

HERCULES Leather-Chain Trace

A harness as strong as the trace—no stronger. The trace takes the strain and the strongest trace is the best. The Hercules is a flat shaped trace, strong as steel, flexible as leather, tough and unbreakable, made of steel chain covered with heavy leather neatly finished in turned and rounded edges strongly stitched. Powerful heel chain and either clip or bolt pieces at home end; one and one-half inch wide leather billot. Does not chafe the horse and is tremendously satisfactory. If you don't have the Hercules Trace of your heavy harness, don't wait order a set NOW. If your dealer does not have it, order from us direct. We will ship same day, on receipt of price.

TUESDAY

WEDDING IN LONDON. The London Daily Mirror of October 31st contains a likeness of Lieut-Colonel J. S. Jenkins, D.S.O. and his bride formerly Miss E. Louise McLeod Mitchell of Pittsburg, U.S.A. The photograph was taken as they were leaving the church after the wedding. Lieut. Jenkins is the eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. S. R. Jenkins of this city.

DIED AT SEA. It is with much regret that the word has come that the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Waite, of Springfield, namely Private Sandford died at sea on 21 October from broncho pneumonia. This news has brought much sorrow to the parents who were looking forward to a very successful career for their boy. He was acting as a Military Policeman when he sailed. The residents of O'Leary and district join in sympathy for the parents in their sad loss.—W

DIED OF INFLUENZA. Mrs. George Schurman, of New Amman, received a telegram on Wednesday conveying the sad news that her son Leonard had died of influenza in Dodsland, Saskatchewan. Deceased for a number of years resided in Summerside and left with his wife and children about three years ago for the West. He leaves to mourn besides his widow formerly Miss Marie Horton of Summerside, four children, three brothers and two sisters. The remains will be brought home for burial.—L.

FAREWELL PARTY. A most enjoyable dinner and dance was given at the Kozy Korner Friday evening last by the lady members of the staff of DeBlois Bros wholesale office, to their comrade Miss Hilma Nowell who leaves the island shortly to go to New York. At the supper, which was served daintily and so heartily enjoyed, the girls expressed in a short address and small remembrance their sense of loss in the departure of a competent, lively associate and their best wishes for a career of happiness and prosperity in her new field. Shortly afterwards the dancers arrived and the evening passed in rhythmic time and jollity all too quickly. At the close three cheers were given for Mr. DeBlois, whose generous thought made the happy occasion possible, and also to the popular Misses Nowell.

The death occurred at her home in Roseville on Thursday, Nov. 7th, 1918, of Mrs. James E. Palmer at the age of 63. She had been ailing for some time but all that medical aid and tender nursing could do was in vain. She knew the end was near and had no dread as years before she had committed herself to her Saviour and she was fully resigned to the will of her God. She was a daughter of the late Richard Costain, a highly respected family. Her home was a very pleasant place to visit as hospitality was one of her crowning virtues. She leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, four daughters namely: Mrs. Leon Ellison, California; Mrs. Chester Caslain, Miminegash; Mrs. Harry Green, Montreal and Miss Edith B. at home. Also five sons namely: Thomas C., in California; Richard W., in Boston; James B., in Washington; Hedley L. at home and Cecil R. "Somewhere in France." One sister Mrs. Helen M. Green, of Boston, also one brother, Paul R. Costain, of Miminegash. The services were conducted at the home and grave by her pastor the Rev. Earnest E. Styles. To the sorrowing ones the sympathy of the community is extended.

AS AGE CREEPS ON

As age creeps on, vital forces gradually decrease, until, when a man or woman is around 60, the kidneys and bladder need assistance to keep them in perfect working order.

Rheumatism, neuralgia and backache are common complaints of those getting on in years. It seems to be the custom to expect these afflictions—conclude they are simply the inevitable results of old age, and that there is no remedy for them.

There is a remedy—Gin Pills—and there are hundreds of people who can prove that the remedy is good.

Mr. Frank Lalonde, a well-known farmer, of St. Raphael, Ont., was enabled to return to work at the age of 61 by the help of Gin Pills. Mr. Lalonde writes that he had suffered for years with pains in his back and sides, until, finally he was forced to quit work. Gin Pills relieved him to such an extent that he now states he feels as strong at 61 as he did at 30 years.

Mrs. Hugh McLeod, of Lewis Cove Road, had a similar experience with Gin Pills. In her letter to us she says: "I am 51 years and the mother of 3 children. Five years ago I was troubled with backache and dull pains across the abdomen. I used a box of Gin Pills, and feel so much better that I will continue to use Gin Pills."

Testimonials such as these cannot be disregarded, for the aged speak the truth. It is foolish to suffer when you don't have to. Use Gin Pills and enjoy your latter years. 40c a box. Sold by all dealers. Sample free upon request to The National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Toronto, Ontario. U.S. residents should address National Drug & Chemical Co., Inc., 208 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y.

WEDDING BELLS. A quiet wedding took place on Thursday evening, November 21st, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Bearisto, of Alberton, when their son, George Keith, was united to Mildred, daughter of Samuel Bearisto, of Alberton. Only the immediate friends of the bride and bridegroom were present at the ceremony. Rev. E. E. Styles, officiating.

P. E. I. FOXES FOR JAPAN. The Silver Fox Ranching Company of Alberton recently disposed of seven pairs of 1918 pups to a company in Japan. The selection was made by Mr. Clester McClure, Manager of the P.E.I. Fur Sales Board. It being a stipulation on the part of the company in Japan that Mr. McClure should select the foxes. It is understood that exceptionally good prices were realized.

Mrs. H. J. Palmer received the following cable yesterday from Major D. A. McKinnon, D.S.O.: "Fred Longworth mortally wounded in action, 10th November, near Mons. Had received Military Cross lately for brave conduct in action. Deep sympathy of entire battery to relatives and friends. (Signed) D. A. McKinnon Major."

Mrs. McKinnon yesterday received the following cable from her husband, Major D. A. McKinnon, D.S.O.: "Boys send love from Mons to parents and friends. Deeply regret Fred Longworth mortally wounded at battery near Mons on November 10th. We all loved him as a true friend and brave comrade. (Signed) D. A. McKinnon."

It will be observed that the above cable was despatched after the armistice had been signed and fighting ceased. The capture of Mons was the last act in the great drama and took place only a few hours before the order "cease firing" was given.

TRYON DAIRY CONTEST. An increasing interest in school fairs is evident from the generous response of individuals in awarding prizes to pupils exhibiting, particularly in the live stock classes. The Tryon Dairy Company through their manager, Mr. E. G. Lang, gave $21.00 in cash to the boys and girls whose parents were patrons of the factory for the best dairy calf under six months of age, cared for by the exhibitor. The competition brought out a fine class of calves and was keenly contested. The money was divided into six prizes and awarded at the Tryon School Fair as follows: 1st prize, Earl Clark, Augustine Cove, $6.00; 2nd prize, Katie Carr, Augustine Cove, $5.00; 3rd prize, Vera Wood, North Tryon, $4.00; 4th prize, Raymond Wood, N. Tryon, $3.00; 5th prize, Albin Keough, N. Tryon, $5.00; 6th prize, Archie Thompson, N. Tryon, $1.00. The Dairy Company is considering some way of following these calves by having them exhibited next year thus encouraging the boys and girls to carry on the work so well begun. This generous interest on the part of the company should commend itself to other concerns that they too may share in educating the youth of today for the business and farm activity of tomorrow. A matter of great importance in our business and farm activities of tomorrow. A matter of great importance in our education should be the stimulating of a growing interest in farm life. A similar contest was conducted by the Kensington Dairying Co. but on account of the wet day there was not so large an exhibit as at Tryon. The names of the winners are not at hand to publish.

MACDONALD MATHESON. At eight o'clock on the evening of the 20th inst. a number of the immediate friends of Mr. John Macdonald and Margarete T. Matheson had gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Matheson, Oyster Bed Bridge to witness the ceremony that was to make two hearts beat as one; two lives to work for each others welfare and yet the two one flesh! The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. D. MacLean. When congratulations had been given an invitation was extended to all to visit another room which was readily accepted and a bountiful repast was partaken of by young and old in the very happiest mood. To change the scene a very large and certainly very impressive Charivari serenaded the bridal party. The skill of the artist was evidently to be seen in the various costumes worn by the different actors on the lawn. The night was all that could be desired for out door sports and the young men and maidens also enjoyed themselves, yet all acted in a way that reflected credit upon all, no doubt largely because both bride and groom were so highly respected. The numerous and beautiful presents received testified to the esteem in which both are held by the very large number who have had the pleasure of their acquaintance. In the wee sma' hours the happy couple left for their home at Bradalbane after receiving a heavy shower of rice. The very choicest blessings were bestowed upon them and a long and happy wedded life was the wish of all. The Guardian extends to Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald its hearty congratulations.
