

Welcome FAIR VISITORS

AUGUST 19th to 23rd

The Big Week is Here. The Show is On. The Months of Preparation Are Over and We are Now Ready for Our Patrons.

THIS IS OUR PROGRAM:

MONDAY

(Gates Open at 6.30 P. M.)

Official Opening by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, in the Paton Pavilion, at 8.00 P. M. Short addresses by Premier W. M. Lea, Mayor Samuel Kennedy, M. B. E., W. C. S. McLure, M. P., and others. Seeing the Exhibits and taking in the Midway will give you a good Evening's Entertainment.

TUESDAY

(Morning)

Judging of Exhibits.

(Afternoon 2 P. M.)

First Heat of 2.12 TROT AND PACE with Morning Express 2.03½, Marjorie M. 2.07½, Heatherbell 2.10, Betty S. 2.07 and 4 other entries.

7 VAUDEVILLE ACTS 7

Interspersed between the Heats of the Horse Races will be our Vaudeville Program, featuring THE CIMSE SENSATION, one of the rare Thrillers of the World, in their Death-Defying Feats. See Robert Cimse perform on his Motorcycle high in the Air, with his supporting cast. The sensation of the European Capitals and positively the finest outdoor act in the world to-day.

THE FOUR FANTINOS, two ladies and two men, artists on the Flying Rings, starring Miss Mimi Fanto, one of the world's greatest lady athletes and holder of the world's record of 125 kickovers while suspended by one hand.

GEORGETTY'S HOLLYWOOD COMIQUES, a unique and novel entertainment. They will take care of the fun part of our program. See their boxing act in which they box with their feet instead of their hands. Fun galore with the Comiques.

D'LORNA HIGH POLE ARTIST. See this young man who is rapidly making a name for himself as an aerial artist, stand on his head on top of a slender steel pole six inches in diameter and watch him perform other feats while the pole sways like a reed in the wind.

CHARLIE CHAMBERLAIN THE SINGING LUMBERJACK will entertain you with his wonderful voice. Hear him in his songs of the Cowboy and Lumberjack.

The above Vaudeville Program is the finest we have ever given and we are confident it will please you.

(EVENING: 7.45 P. M.)

Judging of Horse Show Classes with entries from Halifax and Charlottetown Riding Clubs and others, in the new Horse Arena in front of the Grand Stand. Interspersed between the Horse Show Events will be the Vaudeville as outlined above.

(9.45 P. M.)

Grand Musical Ride with 16 Officers and N. C. O.'s, P. E. I. Light Horse in Scarlet and Blue Uniforms. A topping sight!

Spectators on the Main Grand Stand and East Bleacher will get an almost perfect view of the Arena. Its intense illumination increased this year to 22,000 candle power, will be well worth a visit to see.

(10.00 P. M.)

On or about 10 P. M. the FIREWORKS PROGRAM will be set off. We put on a good show last year, but this program is miles ahead of it. Positively the finest display of night FIREWORKS ever shown in the Maritimes.

All Announcements will be made by Holman's Sound System, which has been leased for the meeting.

Canadian Legion Band of 24 Pieces will provide the music, and will play at various times during the afternoon and evening. Every man is a finished player and their ability is unquestioned. It is a treat to listen to a Band of the calibre of the Canadian Legion.

Lynch's 1935 Improved Midway will provide this part of the entertainment every afternoon and evening. It has all the latest adult riding devices, such as the Lindy-Loop, the Merry-Go-Round, the Chair Plane, the Whip, the great big Ferris Wheel, the largest in Eastern Canada. For the kiddies there is the kiddy ride.

Under Bill Lynch's management are "6 Shows" featuring the Hawaiian Dancers, The Monkey Speedway, with real live Monkeys, and the Circus Side Shows.

Our Fireworks Program is one we are proud of. A gorgeous, glittering show with Thunder Bombs, Dragon Rockets, Japanese Comet, The Yellow Sunset, Bengal Lights, Triplet of Electric Plumes and Silver Wheel, Golden Plumes, Aerial Display, Triple Golden Shell, The Tropical Typhoon, The Castanet, The Golden Paragon, The Silvery Sunset, Triple Fountains of Silver, Split Comet, Columns of Empire, The Whirl and other displays that will transform the surroundings into a veritable Fairyland of color. Fireworks will conclude the evening performances in front of Grand Stand, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The finest Horse Show ever staged in the Maritimes in a Real Arena, 100 x 230 feet in Centre Field. Lit by 22,000 Candle Power, the greatest illumination east of Montreal.
