—BADLY HURT IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT—Last Friday afternoon, Mr. Arthur Ramsay, well known merchant at Conway was very badly hurt in a runaway accident. Mr. Ramsay was trying out a pair of western horses which he had just purchased, and was driving along the road in the truck wagon, when the horses got out of control, overturning the wagon. In the accident a piece of iron caught Mr. Ramsay at the pit of the stomach, inflicting a wound about twelve inches long. He was taken to his home and Dr. Champion of O'Leary was immediately summoned. He was quickly on the scene having been brought down by the section trolley car. Dr. Champion found it necessary to insert sixteen stitches to close the wound. Although in a serious condition for several days it is pleasing to report that Mr. Ramsay is now making progress towards recovery—S.
