The Insurance Agent is a benefactor "He who serves another is a princely host."

LIFE says the poet, like every other blessing owes its value to its use alone. Are you seriously considering the question, how can I increase the earning power of my life for those who are or may be dependant upon me? It can most easily be accomplished by paying a premium of insurance in a strong financial institution—The North American Life—of Canada.

If you have not seen our Investment Annuity Plan (with guaranteed rates 30 per cent less than straight life, and endowment features after 10, 15, or 20 years) we will be pleased to furnish you rates on application.
