No one flour suits everybody alike. It may be that the flour you are now using doesn't altogether please you; in that case you would be wise to make a change. In suggesting as your next choice, we wish to emphasize that it is a blend of selected Ontario soft wheat and Manitoba hard wheat, and for that reason is very probably the most ideal kind of flour for pastry, biscuits and bread—or, in other words, for general baking use—that can be had.

DIAMOND FLOUR

Your grocer will be glad to supply it.

FRIDAY
KINDLY REMEMBERED.—Mr. John McPherson, who has been one of the employees of the Mechanical Department of the Prince Edward Railway for nearly 50 years, is now retiring on a pension. Wednesday he was waited upon in the Railway Works by his fellow employees, and presented with a purse of money and the following address, read by Mr. Peter McQuaid, Mechanical Foreman:—John McPherson, Dear Sir—We, the employees of the Mechanical Department of the Prince Edward Railway, learn that you have decided to retire on the Pension Allowance after a long and faithful service of nearly half a century. During the many years that you have been associated with us, we may say that we have always found you straightforward and conscientious in all your dealings, every ready to help your fellow employees, either in distress or otherwise, and for these noble qualities you will long be remembered, not only by the employees of the Mechanical Department, but by the employees of the other departments of the P. E. Railway as well. In bidding you good-bye we ask you to accept the accompanying purse, not for its value, but as a slight token of esteem in which you are held, and our earnest prayers are that you may long be spared to enjoy the fruits of your labors.—Signed on behalf of the Employees of the Mechanical Department, Mr. McPherson heartily thanked his fellow employees for their kind gift which he highly appreciated. Though retiring from active service he shall not soon forget his friends in this city.

MENTIONED IN DESPATCHES.—Among those "mentioned in despatch" at the beginning of the new Year, appears the name of Corporal F. E. Horne, who is serving with the No. 3 Canadian Casualty Clearing Station in Flanders. Corporal Horne is the eldest son of Mr. George Horne, O'Leary and was for four years a student at Acadia, but gave up his course to leave Canada with the first Contingent.

GOLDEN WEDDING.—A very enjoyable time was spent recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch McDonald, Rose Valley when a number of their friends and relations came to honour the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. After a number of valuable gifts had been presented the evening was past in singing old time songs and story telling. After which the jovial company gathered around a well laden table to which they did ample justice. The company returned to their homes after wishing Mr. and Mrs. McDonald many more years of happy wedded life. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald have twenty-eight grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

AN ISLANDER.—The Winnipeg Tribune of Jan. 17th contains an excellent photograph of Corp. Jack Norton, son of J. P. Norton of the Norton Land Co. of Winnipeg who is mentioned in the despatches as having received the Distinguished Conduct Medal. One of the first Winnipeg men to enlist and land in the trenches in France, Corp. Norton has been seriously ill for the past four months in the Canadian Hospital at Monthliffe but is now convalescing and expects shortly to return to the firing line. Corp. Norton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Norton formerly of this City and he is also a nephew of Mrs. McPhail Brighton. Another brother Glen is still at the front he having joined in the early days of the war.

On January 25th there passed to the home beyond the oldest resident of Dunstaffnage in the person of Mr. Donald McLaughlan. He was born in Marshfield 87 years ago and was a resident of Dunstaffnage for over 50 years. About 50 years ago he married Miss Jessie Ellis of Donaldston, who survives him. Mr. McLaughlan was a kind, obliging neighbour and a friend to everybody. He was very well known to the former generation and was active until three years ago when the infirmities of age compelled him to live a retired life, faithfully attended by his wife to the end. His funeral on Thursday, the 27th January, was very largely attended to the Marshfield Cemetery, his pastor, Rev. R. L. Coffin, officiating. (Pat. please copy.)

"SHEDIAC, N. B., Jan. 29.—An old and highly respected citizen passed away this week, when the late Samuel MacDougall, after a long illness, died at his home here, on Friday morning. Deceased, who was eighty-three years of age, was a native of P. E. I., but had lived the greater part of his life here. In religion he was a staunch Presbyterian. The late Mr. MacDougall is survived by a widow, five daughters, Misses Jessie, Margaret and Sophia, of Shediac, B. I., of Fredericton, and Mrs. C. Elliot, of Sussex, and one son, I. C. R. Conductor Coll MacDougall of Moncton. Three brothers also survive, Messrs. George, of Morell, P. E. I., John of Rexham, North. Co., and Donald of Sydney, Cape Breton, and one sister, Mrs. Geo. Bell, of Albany, P. E. I. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon interment at Greenwood Cemetery.

DIED IN PICTOU.—News reached the city yesterday of the death in the hospital at Pictou of Gunner John McDonald, who was taken inn with congestion of the lungs while on his way to Halifax to go on duty at Ives Point. Before the detachment left the Drill Hall, Wednesday morning, Gunner McDonald showed symptoms of illness, but he explained that he had hurried away without waiting for breakfast, and said he would be all right shortly. Major McKay insisted upon his remaining at home, as he appeared to be quite sick. Major Leigh also added his protest to the young man's going and the detachment left without him. He, however, after a short interval, ran after the detachment, fell into line and marched with them on board the steamer. He became much worse before arriving at Pictou and it was found necessary to place him in a hospital there. His passing away yesterday is a sad blow to a widowed mother, who resides on Queen St., this city, and she has the heartfelt sympathy of all. The remains will be brought home for interment on Saturday by the S.S. Prince Edward Island.

A very pleasant time was spent last night at Grace Church, Parsonage when a number of the Ladies Aid and Young Peoples Society met to welcome the strangers of the church. During the evening the pastor, Rev. F. H. Littlejohns, was presented with a fur coat accompanied by an address (which appears below) in token of the esteem in which he is held by his congregation. Although taken completely by surprise Mr Littlejohns in a few well chosen remarks thanked the Ladies Aid and Young Peoples Society for their kindness and good wishes.

ADDRESS.
Dear Mr. Littlejohns—The Ladies Aid and Young Peoples Society of your church, wishing to show in some way their appreciation of your work in this corner of God's vineyard wherein you are labouring at the present time, take this opportunity of presenting you with this fur coat. Wear it; and as you feel its warmth during our cold Canadian winter let that feeling be symbolic of the esteem in which you are held by each and every one of your people. Trusting you may have many years of health, happiness and prosperity. We are yours most cordially.

Ladies Aid.
Young Peoples Society.

As already recorded the death of Mr. John McCabe occurred at his home in Stanhope, at an early hour on Jan. 26 at the grand old age of 102 years.

The deceased was a man of strong constitution, never known to be sick or to require medical aid, and continued so to the end. He gradually weakened day by day, and died a truly natural death.

That which no power can resist, which no entrance can stay, or turn aside has obtained its victim falling upon him, not by surprise however, but fully prepared to meet it.

He was born in the county of Monaghan, Ireland, in the year 1814. He emigrated to this country in the year 1830, taking passage in the good ship Thomas Gelson, which arrived in Charlottetown after a voyage of seven weeks. He first settled in the eastern part of the Island, afterwards removing to Stanhope, where he spent the last 50 years of his life and through his industry and toil he built for himself a comfortable home in which he manifested a deep interest to the last.

He was a veteran of the American Civil War and being a good Conversationalist, could relate many interesting tales relative thereto. He was a strong Conservative always taking an active part in politics.

Mr. McCabe was a man of great intelligence honest and truthful, richly endowed with the traits of character which constitute true manhood.

During his last days he was attended by his devoted pastor, Rev. J. B. McIntyre and died consoled by the last rites of the R. C. Church.

He leaves a family of five sons and one daughter to cherish the memory of a good father. On Friday morning a large procession followed his remains to Covehead Church where a Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the pastor after which he was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Charles Auld James, Robinson, Robert Marshall, John Whelan, James Lamphier and John Misner.—R. L. P.

A Record Revenue

In 1915 the Canada Life income was $9,333,632. This marks a new record in the Company's history.

The Canada Life funds are largely invested in Bonds, Debentures and Mortgages, a good rate of interest being assured for a term of years, with the safety of the principal carefully guarded.

The large interest returns, together with economical management and careful selection of lives are the principal factors in the earning of the record surpluses of recent years. In 1915 the surplus earned was $1,480,866.

The full Report of one of the most successful years in the Canada Life's history is being printed and will gladly be sent you.

"Absent"

with "Crossing the Bar," Columbia 10-inch Double-Disc Record A1891, $1.

If you should find yourself unusually quiet as the final notes of "Absent" die away, it will be no more than a tribute to the beauty of what we believe is unqualifiedly the most effective and artistic male quartette singing to be found in any catalog. The tone, the blending, the very breath pauses are eloquent in tenderness. The same unanimity of purpose and perfection of results is found in the singing of the Columbia Mixed Quartette in "Crossing the Bar", a companion piece to "Absent."

This One Record Alone Affords a Supremely Perfect and Artistic Example of the New

FEBRUARY COLUMBIA RECORDS

We show below a partial list:

Nothing is so well worth its price as a good laugh. "Cohen Telephones from Brighton" (No. A 1885, $1.) with Joe Hayman, the original "Cohen on the Telephone," and "Casey at the Dentist" coupled with "Casey as a Doctor" (No. A 1886, $1.) are laugh creators of the first magnitude.
