Help the Young People To Health - Happiness

What a common sight to see a young person whose bloodless face and feeble frame are evidences of poor circulation and weakness where bounding health and rosy cheeks should reign.

Young people in such a condition are generally anemic in nature and require a preparation containing iron to improve the blood content.

Milburn's Health and Nerve Pills meet this requirement, as they contain three concentrated forms of iron of an easily assimilated nature together with other valuable ingredients indicated for building up the system and helping to improve the blood content.

Take one box, 50 pills, at all drug counters. Look for our trade mark "Red Heart" on the package. The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

THE TAPESTRY WEAVERS

They tell this curious thing of the patient, plodding weaver: He works on the wrong side evermore, but works for the right side ever.

It is only when the weaving stops and the web is loose and turned, that he sees his real handiwork, that this marvellous skill is learned.

Ah, the sight of its delicate beauty, how it pays him for all his cost! No rarer, daintier work than his was ever done by the frost.

Then the master bringeth him golden hire, and giveth him praise as well, and how happy the weaver is no tongue but his own can tell.

The years of man are the looms of God, let down from the place of the weaver ever till the mystic web is done.

Weaving blindly, but weaving surely, each for himself his fate. We may not see how the right side looks, we can only weave and wait.

But, looking above for the pattern, no weaver hath need to fear. Only let him look clear into heaven, the Perfect Pattern is there.

If he keeps the face of the Saviour in his mind, his weaving is sure to be right.

And when the work is ended, and the web is turned and shown, He shall hear the voice of the Master, it shall say unto him, "Well done!"

And the white-winged angels of heaven, to bear him thence shall come down.

And God shall give him gold for his hire—not gold, but a glowing crown.

It Looks Different From Above

In a letter to his mother, an American soldier of the Army Air Corps wrote: "I have a deep and abiding faith that some day the boundaries between nations will be more than the boundaries between states in our own country. From the air the world looks so small, and so much one."

Flying had added a new dimension to this soldier's thinking. He saw the earth from a new perspective, and it made a difference. So, the issues of life when we see them from above, we get another angle on them.

Artificial distinctions we draw between groups and classes, the prejudices against management or labor, rich or poor, cultured or uneducated, fade out when viewed from that higher outlook. At that altitude humanity, "looks so small and so much one."

Bristol and Vicinity

There was a dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Palmer and well attended. A feature of the party was the music furnished by our British boys called "Bristol's Music." They are better known as Bristol's old time band.

Mr. John J. Perry was in the city on Saturday on business.

Friends here of Mr. W. A. O'Brien of the staff of Holman's Ltd., will be pleased to hear he has returned to his duties after his leave of absence of three weeks with a severe attack of the flu.

Pte. Angus Lapierre, has arrived from overseas and will leave this week along with his father Mr. John Lapierre, for the Islands. They will make the trip by air.

Asking an old timer about early spring weather and he says that many years ago farmers were ploughing in the middle of April and after a very light mild winter.

At present the road for sleighs is gone and on some of the by-roads there is bad travelling, especially in the morning. The routes there are long, one more than twenty miles.

Mr. Laurence Byrne was a visitor to the city last week for a couple of days.

Mr. Joe McDonald who is planning on taking up farming after returning from the army was in the city last week on this business.

S. T. I. DEPARTMENT

Dear Fellow-Members: Frances Willard was a firm believer in education and throughout the years of our W. C. T. U. history that policy has been maintained and expanded. So we, who are members of this progressive organization, are ever on the lookout for books with vital information on the question of alcohol and other narcotics.

One of the best and most concise books on the former is that one by Bertha Palmer entitled "What Alcohol Is and What It Does." This is a booklet of 28 pages containing thirty-three phases of alcohol and its problem with scripture reference material on each.

It is important that we know what the findings of science are on this subject and this booklet is especially valuable in that it contains Bible references at the beginning of each section.

Some have studied this work before and will wish to refer to it again and again.

For this year let it Timothy 2:1 be our motto in this department. Not only do we want to increase our own knowledge but we want to spread temperance information amongst the youth of our land. Our National Superintendent, Miss M. Legate, has outlined an interesting course in the form of a contest for the higher grades in Public Schools and all grades in High Schools and Colleges, a copy of which will have an active role in this. Please do what you can to further this among your teacher friends for it is a very worthy project.

Wishing you every success in all your endeavours for the furtherance of the cause.

Yours very sincerely,

CAPE BRETON HEARS DR. COBURN ON TEMPERANCE

(By C. U. MacN.)

During the latter part of January Dr. John Coburn, who for many years was one of our courageous secretaries for Evangelism and Social Service, spent a few days in Cape Breton in the interests of temperance. He was here as Secretary of the Canadian Temperance Federation and had first-hand information on what beer-parlours may do. It is a problem that has been occupying the minds of our people here for some time, and not a few have been finding it hard to decide how voting should be done. It is not a matter of whether temperance is or is not a good thing, but will beer-parlours reduce the amount of drinking, which is now reaching alarming proportions?

Well, Dr. Coburn spoke with no uncertainty and claimed that when young people begin with the drinking of beer and wine, they are soon led on to the drinking of hard liquor. In giving figures he surprised us by saying that in Canada money is spent at the rate of a million dollars a day for liquor while for education it is only a little more than a million a week, and for all religious purposes it is less. His lecture was emphasized by two motion pictures, "It's the Brain that Counts," and "The Pay-Off."

We were here just previous to the taking of the vote in one or two places, and yet, despite the warning, the returns were overwhelming in favour of beer-parlours. Perhaps the "flu" epidemic had something to do with the smallness of the vote, not more than fifty per cent went to the polls.

THE MONTGOMERY BAND

An Irish minister is organizing a "Montgomery Band," a youth movement the aim of which is to follow the example set by General Montgomery in refraining from alcoholic liquors and tobacco, and cultivating the habits of prayer and Bible study. The General's grandfather was Dean Farrar who took an active interest in temperance work, preaching his first temperance sermon in Westminster Abbey on October 8, 1876.

General Montgomery's life-long abstinence from liquor has paid him well. During the first world-war he was in Bombay in August, 1914, and yet today he can truly say "I am one hundred per cent fit." Lady Montgomery, the general's mother, was the daughter of the Rev. C. M. P. Farrar (General Montgomery's great-grandfather), was a C. M. Montgomery; the latter taking a leading part in founding the Robert Money School of which he became Principal in 1843.

THE TRUTH ABOUT ALCOHOL

The drinker, may think he needs the relief from tension a drink will provide. He may indeed need relief from tension, but alcohol is a dangerous antidote. If he continues to take it his need will grow by what it feeds on. He will come to be an excuse for desire. And although drinking will relieve for a time the tension which convinces him of his need, it will do so by deadening his sensitiveness to his problems, not by stimulating him to their solution.

STEPHEN BROWN

There passed peacefully away to his eternal reward at the home of his son Elmer in the early hour of the morning of January 22, 1946, Stephen Brown of York at the advanced age of 86 years.

The deceased was the son of the late David and Martha Brown of York and of a family of ten, he was the last surviving member.

He carried on the trade of butcher for over fifty years at the Charlottetown Meat Market, where he was well known and highly respected, also throughout the country where he had done business for so many years.

For the past number of years, as had been crippled but seldom complained, would say he was trusting in the Saviour's love. He was always glad to have his friends and neighbours call, especially his pastor, Rev. J. A. Nicholson who visited him so frequently.

He leaves to cherish his memory two sons Elmer T. and Leith A., both of York and one daughter, Mrs. E. of Truro, Nova Scotia.

The funeral which was held on Thursday, January 31st with a short service at the home followed by service in York United Church was largely attended, and was conducted by his pastor Rev. J. A. Nicholson, assisted by Rev. T. Wilson of West Covehead. The pastor spoke touching words of comfort to the bereaved. The hymns sung were "The Lord is My Shepherd," "Forer With the Lord" and "Abide With Me."

The service the remains were tenderly laid to rest in York cemetery beside his wife who predeceased him twenty years ago. The pallbearers were: Lester Kelzer, Harold Watts, Stanley Scott, William Vessey, Will Cooke and Leigh.

The floral tributes were as follows:—The Family, Spray—Abner and Jennie, Spray—Mrs. Heath Vesey, Arthur and Mary, Wreath—Michaels Grocery, Wreath—Butchers and Clerk of Charlottetown Market.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Stephen Brown wish to thank all friends and neighbours for their many acts of kindness in their recent bereavement, also those who sent Cards and Letters of Sympathy. 3-9-46.

MR. ROBERT F. MacNUTT

In the passing of Mr. Robert F. MacNutt on January 30th, the community of Darnley has lost an aged and most respected citizen. The deceased had reached the age of 83 years and led a most active life till a few months before his death when he gradually began to call to Higher Service. The deceased was the son of the late James and Mrs. MacNutt of Darnley and was a long time resident of that community, a prosperous farmer and a good citizen in every respect.

Mr. MacNutt was a member of the Kelt Memorial Presbyterian Church. Funeral service was held on Friday afternoon, February 1st, and was largely attended. Reverend James MacGowan his pastor officiated and gave a most helpful message paying a fitting tribute to the life of the deceased as a friend and co-worker in the congregation. The services were "The Lord's My Shepherd," "O God of Beings" and "Forer With the Lord." The casket was borne by the floral tributes from sympathizing friends. The pall bearers were Messrs. Dawson Dickinson, James Hickey, Wallace Pickering, Arthur McKay, James Champion and Ralph Bearlito. Interment was in Malpeque Cemetery. There are left to mourn a wife and one brother Peter and father, his sorrowing widow one daughter, Mrs. Fope and one son, Mrs. Fope's son, Frank at the home, Darnley; Reginald, Charlottetown and John at Kensington, to whom the sympathy of host of friends is extended. 3-9-46.

Maritime Women's Club at Montreal

The Maritime Women's Club of Montreal, Inc. had the pleasure of a talk from a past President, Mrs. George R. MacLeod, on the "History and Romance of the Hooked Rug and the Quilt," at their meeting held in Tudor Hall on February 26th last.

Mrs. MacLeod pointed out that the earliest history of rug making was wrapped in mystery, but it was generally accepted that it was developed by seamen as they waited for wind and tide, and soon spread to the home. In New England, hooked rugs reached the height of their popularity in the Civil War period, and it spread to the Maritimes and to Newfoundland. In Canada the art was primarily Maritime, but has now spread from coast to coast, with all nationalities contributing something of their tradition.

The speaker paid tribute to the Canadian Handicrafts Guild for having sponsored the art and thus helping to make many people in the rural districts self supporting. In reference to quilts the speaker said that the design and quilting were equally important, and paid tribute to our grandmothers, who really understood interior decorating in that they used rugs and quilts of similar design and coloring to add beauty to their own homes.

She pointed out that the hooked rug and the quilt were our heritage from the Maritimes, and we should foster the art with all our strength. Mrs. R. Bruce Marr, (formerly of Charlottetown), was a visitor at this meeting, and spoke a few words of greeting to the members.

Mrs. A. D. Ross, the President, was in the chair, and introduced the speaker who was suitably thanked by Mrs. J. E. MacVicar.

Peerless Dry Ginger Ale

The famous "Peerless" Dry Ginger Ale is now in short supply as everyone knows. However, due to the prevalence of Flu at this season, there is a big demand for "Peerless" where there is illness.

We would therefore ask the public not to "drink Peerless Dry Ginger Ale" unless one needs it as a result of illness, and to leave the small amount available to cases of real need.

During the present difficult time we are forgetting "Quotas" and trying to help those in need. We ask your co-operation.

"Peerless" has never varied in quality and never will, it has been made by the same process for over 25 years.

Please help us to help the ill.
