SCOTT'S EMULSION
is for babies and children who are thin and pale when they ought to be fat and
ruddy; for men and women who are weak and delicate
when they ought to be strong and hearty—for all who are not getting proper nourishment from their food.
Poor blood, thin body, open the door for disease. Scott's Emulsion bars the way.
Makes the blood richer, produces healthy flesh and above
all provides nourishment.
We'll send you a sample free upon request.

THE EARLY RISER.
The early bird, 'tis said, will surely catch
The luscious morsel that too early
I choose to loaf awhile myself and eat.
Canary seed; I never did like worms.
To bed and rise at a becoming hour Gives wisdom, health and wealth, in books we find;
To stay up late and sleep till 9 o'clock
Gives something quite as good—that's peace of mind.
I always like to snooze until the clock
Has worn itself to hoarseness with complaint;
In theory, it's nice to spring right out
At 5 o'clock, but as for me it ain't!
If any foolish bird thinks he can get
By early rising all the worms that crawl,
He lacks the wisdom promised him, for there
Are always worms enough on earth for all.
Don't worry; that's the primal rule of life.
Health, wealth and wisdom come in time, you'll find.
But if you fret to death for them you'll miss
The keynote of content—that's peace of mind.

Obedient Instructions.
"Come, come, Mabel. Don't turn around to look at everybody we meet."
"Why, mamma, you know papa is always telling me to cultivate my faculties of observation."—New York Evening Journal.

Credit Too Good.
Lawyer—What was the thing that led to your financial downfall? You seemed to be doing a good business.
Bankrupt—I was, but one day I started out to see if I could borrow some money. I found it so easy that I kept on borrowing.—Somerville Journal.

The Difference in Slang.
"She uses slang," said the cultured
young woman in a tone of deep disapproval.
"That isn't the worst of it," answered Miss Cayenne. "She uses slang that hasn't yet received the sanction of smart society."—Boston Journal.

No Harm Done.
"It must hurt a man's credit to wipe out his debts by going through bankruptcy."
"Oh, it may in some cases, but the wise man doesn't go through bankruptcy until he has worked his credit to the limit."—Chicago Post.

Would Be Startling.
Miss Reader—How strange it would be if fashion should go back to the old time brass knockers on the front doors
instead of electric bells?
Mr. Sardonic—It would seem strange. The knockers always work.—
New York Weekly.

A Possibility Resented.
"Do you think flying machines will ever come into general use?"
"I hope not," answered the customs house officer. "It'll be mighty hard to have the usual amusement with passengers from Europe if they do."—Detroit Free Press.

THIRTY MILLIONS RICHER
The Mutual Life of New York disbursed during the year 1902 over forty-four millions dollars and at the close of the year was thirty millions richer. Its assets are now over four hundred millions dollars ($400,000,000). It is purely mutual. It has no stockholder. It has already distributed in dividends over one hundred and five millions of dollars among policy holders. It has a surplus fund now invested out of which it can pay over three millions a year in dividends for the next twenty years—not speaking of the large surpluses accru-ing every year. It pays to insure in the grand old Mutual of New York.
