Trinity United Church

The programme at the meeting of the Tuxis Squares on Thursday evening last consisted of a very interesting debate on the resolution "That Canada is a better country to live in than the United States." The speakers on the affirmative were Gordon Rice, Neil Higgins, Donald Sutherland and George Ayers; and on the negative Ben Rogers, Reggie Smith, and Clifford Bounby. The judges, Rev. Dr. Ramsay, Dr. Archibald and Mr. S. T. Green gave the decision to the negative.

On Friday evening the Young People's Society of Trinity was at home in Heartz Memorial Hall to the members of the Y. P. S. of Cornwall United Church. There was a large turnout of the Trinity Society and a goodly attendance of visiting young people accompanied by Rev. E. Aitken. A very pleasing programme was rendered, including vocal solos by Miss McMurdo and Mrs. Howatt, readings by Miss Johnson and Mr. Reg. Ayers and a violin solo by Mr. Stacey. There followed a series of games conducted by Miss Evelyn McEwen, Mr. Jack Johnson, Mr. Stacey and Mr. Mitchell, which were heartily entered into and greatly enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

The visitors expressed their appreciation of the evening's entertainment, and their hope that their hosts and hostesses of this occasion would be their guests at an early date.

At the morning service yesterday the co-pastors Rev. W. M. Ryan and Rev. Dr. Ramsay addressed the congregation on the church's task. Mr. Ryan vividly outlined the extent of the church's work at home and abroad and made an urgent appeal for the support of this work in the spirit of service. Rev. Dr. Ramsay spoke chiefly of the awakening nations—China and India—dwelling especially on the changing attitude of our great oriental empire towards the gospel. Spiritual insight, the power to grasp religious truth, is a racial characteristic of the Hindu people, and within the past ten years they have become receptive to Christian teaching as never before. Here then a great opportunity and a great challenge are presented to the Christianity of the western world and to the United Church of Canada in particular. Miss Berna Huestis sang the fine contralto solo by Sullivan "Love not the world" and the choir rendered Tamblin's anthem "Praise the Lord."

A very large audience was present at the evening service to hear Col. the Rev. G. O. Fallis on "The problem of world peace." Col. Fallis was the senior padre at Canadian Headquarters in France during the war, and is now pastor of the Maritime Memorial Church, Vancouver. He is a lecturer of international repute and is at present engaged in a speaking tour in the interests of the Canadian League of Nations Society, of which Sir Geo. E. Foster is president.

Col. Fallis opened his address last evening by expressing his pleasure at being for the first time in Prince Edward Island. He named a number of former islanders in the West who are his personal friends, and congratulated this Province on the kind of men and women it has sent forth to the newer parts of Canada.

The speaker's object was to enlist sympathy for the great movement for world peace. The problem of peace is like the problem of democracy. We have been striving for it for seven or eight centuries and have not fully achieved it yet. Dean Inge was present at a lecture by two great scientists who argued for two hours and a half to prove that God had taken eight or nine million years to make this world a fit place for man to live in. Next evening, sitting beside the Dean at a banquet, the scientist expressed his surprise at a man of the Dean's great mentality giving his life to Christianity which after two thousand years had not succeeded in changing humanity. The Dean reminded the scientist of his lecture on the age of the globe and added "God is making souls now; give Him time." Many people have no sympathy with the League of Nations because it has not reformed the world overnight. It is necessary to assume the historical mind and to realize that peace is to be worked for and waited for. The speaker declared that he was not a peace-at-any-price man. So long as the "thug" spirit is in the nations, we cannot wholly disarm. The great difficulty is to get a number of first rate powers to unite wholeheartedly for peace.

It is a false philosophy which says that there must always be war because human nature is such as to render it inevitable. The great philosophers Kant, Fiske, Hurley all taught that improvable nature was the characteristic of man.

One of the influences promoting war is that of the armament makers. Billions of dollars are invested in this business for purposes of private gain. These manufacturers must find a market. Accordingly they have paid agents in every capital lobbying against the peace movement. They exploit the sentiment of patriotism that war may continue, for their own gain. The business of producing armaments and munitions ought to be taken out of private hands, so that the motive of personal gain may be eliminated.

The peace movement is a great spiritual movement. We have to uproot the age old tradition that might is right if you get away with it. This is the direction in which we have been moving and working for a thousand years and now we must reverse that direction. Unless we can abolish the cause of war we cannot stop it; and we must distinguish between the cause and the occasion of war. The causes of war lie very deep, and if we remember that the occasion is to remove the cause, we shall realize that a long task is before us in bringing in the new day. We must not cherish prejudice or hate. We must drive out international ignorance. "Ignorance is the mother of Suspicion" said Beaconsfield. It is not necessary to have prejudice and hatred against our neighborhood nation in order to love our own.

The solution of the problem is in education—education through the church, the school, the press. International understanding and friendship must supplant prejudice. The ideal we hold up before the nation today will be the nation of tomorrow. Let us hold up the ideals of peace, understanding, fellowship and goodwill. Educate, educate, educate. Only this will come the solution of the problem.

The special music consisted of a solo, "The Lord is My Shepherd" (Liddle) by Miss A. Dammarrell, and the anthem "I will sing of the mercies of the Lord" by the choir.

"Dad" Banquets The "Tryon" Arrows

Thursday evening the "Bold and Dashing Arrows", together with several of their leading supporters, were treated to a "Class A" spread, at the home of their manager, Mr. J. A. Lyman, fondly known to the boys as "Dad". After a strenuous season; with the Arrows coming down the home stretch in better and better condition and finally winding up by defeating (on their home ice) the "Beavers" of Bedouin, who were among the three line-ups undefeated (at home) by the other two being the Victorias of Charlottetown, and the Unions of Victoria. It was fitting that the boys, should "eat drink and be merry", so "Dad" took the matter in hand, and Thursday evening at 9.30 the boys sat down to a table which groaned with the weight of the choice viands, etc., placed here for their delectation. What was on that table? Well! Truly words of space must be the excuse for failure of detail, but sufficient to say the war, and is now pastor of the Maritime Memorial Church, Vancouver. He is a lecturer of international repute and is at present engaged in a speaking tour in the interests of the Canadian League of Nations Society, of which Sir Geo. E. Foster is president.

and wound up by giving Rory also the ups and downs of life, and when with coats on ready for the road, they made the matter ring with "What's the matter with 'Dad? He's all right", and departed for their homes feeling that the evening was well spent. "Scribe" unfortunately could not be present, so together with Charlie Poole, "The friend of the Arrows", he was out of the evening's fun. However a friend who is known to several as "Ginger", was present, and passed along the information above furnished, together with this—The Arrows will line up for baseball just as soon as the grass grows green, and as in hockey, will in baseball give the fans their money's worth always in good clean sport. —Z—

(Canadian Press.) NEW YORK, March 21.—Frederic Bush, who confesses that he and five others had robbed a mail car near Alton, Ills., in 1923, set officials on a futile search for a crime to fit the story, is suffering from "Pseudologia fantastica" according to psychoanalysts. "In other words it is my opinion that Bush is a psychopathic liar" said Dr. A. A. Brill.

Helping to make an even Greater Canada for Canadians

FOR sixty years General Motors of Canada, Limited, and its founders, have been important factors in Canadian prosperity. Particularly during the last three years they have contributed outstandingly to Canada's progress.

Over this span of years, to meet an always-increasing demand founded upon the sheer merit of its cars, General Motors has continued to develop its facilities. Its factories have grown from the original shop pictured above and valued at five hundred dollars, to the present mammoth plant upon which, in 1926 alone, $800,000 was expended for additions.

And this progress has brought with it constantly-expanding benefits for Canada and Canadians. . . . Great increase in exports, helping to build up a more favorable balance of trade!

Greater volume purchases from Canadian producers, assisting the greater development of Canada's resources and Canada's diversified industries!

Greater employment of Canadian craftsmen, greater sums distributed in wages, greater prosperity and happiness among Canadian workers.

Beneficial alike to producer, consumer and the Dominion whose progress they mutually desire, this growth bears witness to the merit of General Motors Cars. It rewards a sincere desire and firm determination to give the Canadian public the finest automobile values in the world.
