—William D. Sumner, Chicago, who is visiting his home at Tignish, was in Summerside yesterday in connection with some projected building operations. He has secured some land sites and purposes beginning to build about the first of July.

—Isak Walton said "O, Sir, doubt not that angling is an art. Is it not an art to deceive a trout with an artificial fly? A trout that is more sharp-sighted than any hawk you have named and more watchful and timorous than your high minded merlin is hold?" We have the goods that will deceive the sharpest fish.
