Judge Offers Suggestions Re Farm Rehabilitation at Supreme Court Opening

The best wish which we can convey to each other at the New Year season is that when we again meet about the same time next year, we will find one another at peace and in good health.

As on former occasions, it is not my intention to attempt a review of the situation of the farm as it is now, but to offer some suggestions which may be of help to the farmer.

It is a matter of satisfaction that the past two years have brought to the farmer and fisherman a measure of prosperity.

Never in the experience of the farmer has so much money been in circulation.
