

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN MONDAY, JANUARY 3, 1910.

THE CLOSED YEAR AND THE COMING ONE.

The year 1909 ended as it began with peace among the great powers, but with preparations for naval and aerial warfare going forward on an unprecedented scale.

great changes have taken place. The Liberal Government at Ottawa remains strongly entrenched. The provincial elections of the year made no changes of power from one party to the other.

THE SNOW AND THE SNOW SHOVELLERS.

Just as The Guardian predicted, the snowstorm, on his return to town ordered the walks across the Square to be shoveled out.

Present prospects are that each of the authorities will, in the future, do its part manfully and that under their inspiring example private citizens may ply the shovel in front of their premises with renewed vigor.

THE HINDOO PROBLEM IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

What to do with the Hindoos in Canada and especially in British Columbia, whether they resort in numbers has become a serious problem.

Honduras was made a while ago, but aroused angry feelings and many refused to go.

THE LATE WILLIAM T. BURROWS.

The very sudden and unexpected death of William T. Burrows in Summerside, will be sad news to the many throughout that town and the Province to whom he was very favorably known.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.

PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of itching, Blind Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded 50c.

The period of interrupted mails and boats is upon us. Good hopes are entertained of the services of the new winter steamer Earl Grey.

An obliging friend at Ottawa has sent The Guardian a copy of the Ottawa Times of September 11, 1868 containing the report of the trial of Patrick James Whelan for the murder of Hon Thomas D'Arcy McGee.

PURIFIED HIS BLOOD

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Healed Mr. Wilson's Sores. When the sewers of the body—bowels, kidneys and skin ducts—get clogged up, the blood quickly becomes impure and frequently sores break out over the body.
