PARTIES tying teams in front of business houses, should remember that they are responsible for damage done by the horse during their absence. Yesterday a team was tied in front of a store and for a time it looked as if the windows of the shop would come to grief. The exercising of care will doubtless save annoyance and expense.

A RUNAWAY horse caused quite a commotion in the vicinity of the market yesterday afternoon. After depositing the driver on the street, the animal in his mad career, went dangerously near several pedestrians who happened to be in the road. Before a capture was made, the harness was badly demolished.

MONDAY night was certainly congenial to those who wished to attend the opening of the new hall at Hampton. For some time arrangements had been going on to accommodate the crowd and seats were provided for 300 people, but before the commencement of the program, the aisles were thronged and the platform crowded almost to the discomfort of those who took part. Mr. Matthew Smith, M. L. A., performed the duties of chairman in an efficient manner. Among the talented performers were Jas. H. Menaghan, Clement P. Flood, Katie Monaghan, Amos Monaghan and others, all of whom won additional credit for themselves. Mr. Robert Lamont who has won for himself a provincial reputation, was present and received well merited applause. He was strongly supported by Mr. Jas. Calder of Charlottetown. The choruses were well balanced and evidenced careful training. During the rendering of the program an intermission was granted during which pies were sold. Mr. John Bradley of Kelly's Cross and O. B. Wadman of Crapaud, showed their ability as auctioneers by the amounts received. Some idea of the success of the affair will be gathered when it is learned that $101.05 was realized. The promoters desire to thank all who took part and also those who showed their interest by attending.

THE funeral of the late Mrs. Wm. Crabbe took place yesterday and was largely attended. The service was held in St. Paul's church; the interment was at the People's Cemetery.
