Owing to the most enthusiastic of the hockey fans having gone down to Charlottetown to witness the big game between the Crystals and Abegwells, there was only a small attendance at the Crystal Rink, Summerside, on Friday night, when the Kensington Granites crossed sticks with the Summerside C. Y. M. L. in the second contest between these teams for the A. E. McLean Trophy. The ice was in splendid condition and the game, which was fast, with plenty of spills and heavy body-checking, was characterized by many brilliant rushes. Both teams played good combination and there was little to choose between them in the first two periods.

Twenty-one Cubs of the King's Own turned out on Thursday night, and after the Grand Howl and Flag Break, First Star and Tenderpad Tests were gone over by Baghera F. Shannon took charge of the Tenderpads and Akela D. Fulliter took the First Stars.

On Friday the Scout meeting was poorly attended, only 16 of the 21 boys turning out. Troop leader Fulliter presented P. L. Fred Shannon which the Boys have been competing for the last two months. Scout E. Crockett passed his 2nd class first aid to Assistant Troop Leader M. Owen. The indoor hockey league was continued with Ian Scarth broadcasting from station RANK and its short wave station ROTTEN.

Practically all the boys of the Kirk River have passed their tenderfoot tests and are now working on their second class work. Scoutmaster Lawson has devised an ingenious scheme for teaching signalling, a description of which will appear in this column later.

The Baptist troop now has sixteen invested tenderfoot scouts and five recruits. The boys have got away to a good start on their second class tests. The proceeds of the recent entertainment were used to buy knickerbockers, shirts, etc., for the boys.

The Zion Troop which was reorganized last fall with Clarence Walker as Scoutmaster and Robert Cameron and Bertram Peterson as assistant Scoutmasters is now making good progress.

The boys intend to put on a concert about the middle of February and are now practicing hard and they are going to make it a good one. This Troop since its start has had some new members join its ranks, and hopes to have one of the best troops in the city.

Every Scout should carry a copy of the 1930 Scout Diary, price 20 cents at Dominion Headquarters.

Vancouver has a very notable troop in the 33rd comprised of two 8-boy patrols, all of whom are deaf, dumb or blind. The attentiveness, determination and skill of these boys is described as remarkable. Six have passed the second class tests, and five more are about ready to pass.

Don't forget Dominion registration. You reap the benefit of this fund.

run the delinquent, (if I may call him so harsh a name) through the institution, pausing only long enough to give him a passing acquaintance with it, so to speak. In this way a three month's sentence may be served in three days, or two or three weeks at most. All these methods have been tried here, in days gone by with signal success, so far as emptying the jail was concerned.

But there is yet another plan that has its advocates, to wit, repealing the statutes for the infringement of which, one becomes eligible to seclusion behind bolts and bars, which makes it easier for the sinner, and nullifies the sin.

An empty jail is easily procured by the methods outlined, and that without proclaiming a general amnesty. But there are yet many people old fashioned enough to think that law is something to be respected and upheld, and the proper place for those that break it is the jail house, be it ever so crowded. The number of commitments might be taken as evidence of the efficiency and activity of the officers whose duty it is to enforce the law, and also that in the discharge of their duty they have not been unduly interfered with. The certainty of conviction and the knowledge that there will be no mitigation of the sentence imposed, will, in time, result in fewer offences against the law and a reduced jail population, as a matter of course.

PROBLEMS OF SCOTLAND YARD

(British United Press)

LONDON, Jan. 27.—The two most pressing problems before Scotland Yard at present are the mobility of the criminal and his consequent facility for evading capture, and the regulation of the ever-increasing motor traffic.

The Metropolitan Police area radiates for 15 miles from the centre of London and is taken care of by over 20,000 policemen. The tendency is naturally for the force to increase in strength as that area is developed for business and residential purposes, but, in fact, its number is not increasing.

It is officially stated at Scotland Yard that traffic problems are growing in complexity and difficulty. Of the total force more than 1,400 policemen are engaged in traffic control and the number will increase unless efficient mechanical means are devised to supplement or substitute the policeman.

ICE RACES

The Malpeque Driving Club held their third meet of the season on the Baltic River ice on Thursday, 23rd. The weather being fine a large crowd attended which shows the interest the citizens of the vicinity are taking in the sport of kings. Although the track was heavy, very fast time was made, there being three classes viz: A, B and C.

The club intends to hold a big free-for-all with a prize very tempting to the owners of the fast ones in the very near future and race fans should watch the papers for the dates.

In class A, three horses answered the starter's bell, namely Bud Doble Billy Kall and Princess Etta. Bud Doble has recently been purchased by Mr. Joseph Sheen of Kensington, Billy Kall, by Ira Champion, and Princess Etta by E. McKelvie. In the first heat Bud Doble won by a length from Billy Kall, Princess Etta made a break at the quarter pole, spilling her chances and came a good third.

In the second heat Bud Doble again came out victorious with Princess Etta, a good second, and Billy Kall, third.

In the third heat which was necessary to declare second place was won easily by Billy Kall and Princess Etta second.

Class B, had three starters, namely Pansy B., Captain Jack and Little Peter. Captain Jack won easily in straight heats with Pansy B., and Little Peter proving dangerous at all times.

Class C, had four starters, namely Mary R., Bob Mac, Ruby C., and Longset Lady. The first heat was captured by Bob Mac, in fine style and the next two by Mary R., Ruby C., third, and Longset Lady fourth.

The following is the summary:—

CLASS A.
Bud Doble, Joseph Sheen	1 1
Billy Kall, J. Champion	2 3 1
Princess Etta, E. Bryanton	3 2 2
CLASS B.
Captain Jack, W. Stewart	1 1
Pansy B., H. Ramsay	2 2 1
Little Peter, N. Champion	3 3 2
CLASS C.
Mary R., James Gorman	2 1 1
Bob Mac, W. Campbell	1 2 2
Ruby C., F. Bernard	3 3 4
Longset Lady, R. Sudbury	4 4 3

HORSE NOTE

Mr. Wellington MacNeill of South Port has purchased the fine trotting horse Teddy Tilford from Mr. Rubin Heckbert, of Indian River. Race fans should watch for Teddy at the big race meets next summer.

Each of six airplanes recently delivered to the Greek Navy carries a torpedo weighing more than a ton and can attain a speed of nearly 200 miles an hour when diving to attack a target.

WOOL GROWERS WORRIED

(British United Press)

SYDNEY, New South Wales, Jan. 28.—Parker Moloney, the Minister for Markets and Migration in the new Labor Federal Government, finds that there is "a good deal of anxiety about the present position of the wool industry in the minds of wool growers" and numerous representations have been made to him by those engaged in the industry in the hope that something might be done to relieve the position. He is therefore undertaking a thorough investigation of conditions in the wool industry.

To mention a factor which is troubling many growers; for years many requests have been received to prevent the export of stud sheep to other countries, but because those requests have been refused by previous governments, a serious competitor in South Africa has grown up in regard to finest quality wools. Though some people consider it is too late to take action the Minister has decided that steps could be taken to prevent the replenishing of flocks overseas, and eventually Australia should return to the position before the export of stud flocks began. He expects to reach an early decision on this subject.

A recent cablegram from London stating that a group of textile organizations in Yorkshire was negotiating to form a company which would purchase a million and a half acres somewhere in Australia, and raise wool for placing on the market at half the present cost, whilst described as interesting, has been received sceptically. Naturally the wool growers will ask how many sheep that million and a half run. Officially it is stated that there is little prospect of suitable land in the Northern Territory being made available direct by the Crown, as most of the best country was taken up many years ago. Published comment is that the news suggests Bradford is again attempting to break down the wool market.

As the West River ice is now safe as a "highway" many of our farmers are hauling their potatoes and other produce to Charlottetown.

Our local blacksmith, Mr. Mack MacFadyen, is always kept quite busy, but more especially during the "slippery" time.

Our school is progressing favorably under the careful guidance of Miss Mary S. MacKay.

The members of the Derry, L. O. L. are having some lively debates this winter. The one chosen for next night is: "Resolved that we learn more by travelling than by reading." I suppose our newspapers would like to favor the "con" side of the resolution, but there is much to be said on both sides.

Canoe Cove's general merchant, Mr. Nell MacCannell, is doing a rushing business.

We are eagerly looking forward to the night when the play, which is being practiced by our local actors and actresses, will be held in Canoe Cove Hall. "Cherito."
