"The label that protects"

On all genuine Progress Garments

"Where one fellow reads a man's character in his face, a hundred read it in his clothes."

How do the hundreds read yours—well dressed, therefore careful, has good taste, and is prosperous? Or badly dressed—therefore careless and "not doing well"?

"Progress Brand" Clothing

is the clothing for men who want their appearance to count FOR them, instead of against them. It looks good, and it makes the man in it look good.

Look for it

Take no other

There is success ahead for the man who backs up his good appearance in Progress Brand Clothes, with good work.

Clothes can't make a gentleman. But if he IS ONE, "Progress Brand" clothes will make him look the part.

MR. A. N. FRASER, Prov. Manager,
The Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York,
Charlottetown, P. E. I. May 2 , 1905

DEAR SIR:—I acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your Company's cheque for $7,030.30 on Bank of Montreal; also Annuity Policy No. 11725, which provides—That on May 1st, 1905, and each year for life, I will receive three hundred dollars ($300) in settlement of my matured $5,000 15 year endowment, 15 year Distribution Policy No. 101,857 with Deferred Annuity in THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. OF NEW YORK.

This I consider a splendid result, as to buy an Annuity of $300 at my age would cost $4,408, so that drawing $7,030.50 and getting an Annuity of $300, I am getting practically a cash value of $10,430.30.

I also carry another policy in your company, in which I have all confidence,

Yours very truly,

(Signed) Simon W. CRABBE.

Write today for full particulars.

George Bell, Murray Harbor South, is spending a few days with friends in Summerside. Mr Bell has not visited here for more than two years and says he finds quite an improvement in the town. He is in his 81st year. His many friends are pleased to see him so hale and hearty.

The death occurred on Friday last of Jas. D. Patterson, son of James Patterson Hunter River. Deceased had been taken seriously ill about two days before his death on Friday afternoon, and an operation was performed from which he never recovered and died shortly afterwards. He was about 30 years of age.

One of the oldest and most respected residents of Northam passed away yesterday morning in the person of John T. Linkletter, postmaster at that place, at the age of 72 years. The deceased was a prominent member and elder of the Presbyterian church and leaves, besides a bereaved wife, formerly Miss McLean of Lot 16, one son Ivan, who resided with his parents. The late Mr. Linkletter formerly resided in Summerside, and conducted a hotel there but more recently removed to Northam where he for a time, was engaged in business and later kept the post office. In all his business and social relations he commanded the respect and esteem of a large circle of acquaintances. The funeral takes place Wednesday afternoon.

BROKEN SLEEP—TIRED NEXT MORNING.

Sleep not only rests, but builds up the body. Cut down the hours of sleep, and you cut down health in the same proportion. Rebuilding then ceases, nerves go to smash, you grow tired, weak and wretched.

To restore sleep you must get more bodily strength, more nutritious blood, healthier nerves. Ferrozone solves the whole problem, makes you sleep soundly, endurance, vim, ambition. No more morning weakness—instead the fire of youth will run in your veins, supplying abundance of energy and vigor. Witchery expresses the instant effect of Ferrozone; try it.

TO LEAVE RUSSIA.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 3.—George W. Perkins, J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., Mr. Bary and other financiers arrived here today from St. Petersburg on board the Russian steamer Oihonna. Mr. Morgan proceeded immediately to London. Mr. Perkins remains here until Saturday.
