Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper At the Prince Edward

ALL NEXT WEEK With Special Matinees Starting On Tuesday.

The famous Tom Marks Big Stock Company, presenting comedy dramas and high class Vaudeville. Read what the Sydney Record says about this excellent attraction:

"The Tom Marks Company, which is playing a week's engagement at the Strand Theatre, has been greeted with crowded houses and the "The Golden Rule," the bill on Tuesday evening, was well liked and the specialties between the acts of the play brought rounds of applause in practically every case. Tom Marks, the manager of the company, is one of the well known Marks brothers of Perth, Ontario, known as the 'Ringings of Repertoire.' They have made a considerable fortune in the show business, and while never attempting things theatrically on a pretentious scale, have always been known to give the public the money's worth in a certain class of amusement. Mr. Mark's expects to make two more tours to Canada before he retires, one in western Canada, where he is a great favorite, and has a large personal acquaintance in practically every city and town on the circuit, the other trip is to be a return to the Maritimes. The present tour is just about over as Mr. Marks and his family leaves in the near future for New Orleans, in which city he has spent the winters for the past five years. The company is giving a complete change of bill each evening this week with numerous specialties between the acts. "The Golden Rule," a beautiful Irish drama, will be the opening play on Monday evening. Reserve seats on sale Friday morning at 10 a.m. at the Theatre 6496.

The Truth About Married Life in New York Society—A Modern Answer to 'What is Virtue in a Wife?' A Theme of Aggravating Appeal to Feminine Interest—Picturing in Splendorous Settings and by a Great Cast the Story of "Virtuous Wives" from The Two Million Edition Book by Owen Johnson

The romance of beautiful Amy Forrester, daughter of wealth—swept from society's glitter by strong Andrew Forrester—then left to play while he, in distant Colorado, struggled for wealth to place her in the glowing setting he felt her beauty deserved.

"But no! Andrew," she pleads tearfully—"take me with you." "I couldn't work so hard nor so fast with you beside me," he replied. "I want you to play for both of us while I'm away. I want men to admire you; I shall glory in your triumphs."

As the months passed, Andrew slaved and Amy played with other men as he had willed—holding herself a virtuous wife, according to society's code.

Then came a sinister warning to absent Andrew, the anonymous venom of another woman planted a barb in his trusting heart that brought him back to Amy—and then—then Andrew's soul accused hers:

"YOU ARE NO LONGER A VIRTUOUS WIFE—YOU—YOU!"
