NOW RAISES 600 CHICKENS

After Being Relieved of Organic Trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oregon, Ill.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for an organic trouble which killed me down until I could not put my foot to the floor and could scarcely do my work, and as I live on a small farm and raise six hundred chickens every year it made it very hard for me."

"I saw the Compound advertised in our paper, and tried it. It has restored my health so I can do all my work and I am so grateful that I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. D. M. ALBERS, R. R. 4, Oregon, Ill.

Only women who have suffered the tortures of such troubles and have dragged along from day to day can realize the relief which this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, brought to Mrs. Albers. Women everywhere in Mrs. Albers' condition should profit by her recommendation, and if there are any complications write Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. LOUIS WHEELER

There passed away at Murray River, P. E. I., on December 15th, 1918, Sarah Bennet McKay beloved wife of Louis J. Wheeler. During the recent epidemic of influenza she contracted the malady and only survived one day. Her husband was absent on the mainland at the time and the great burden of grief came very heavily upon their two daughters Estella and Myrtle, who had the care of their mother and aged grandmother. Deceased was a daughter of George McKay, of Murray River, and is survived by a husband and two daughters mentioned above. She was a consistent member of the Church of Scotland and the funeral services were held in private by the elders of the church. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family in the loss of a kind and devoted wife and mother.

MISS LILA TOOMBS

A sad death occurred at the home of Mrs. Mary Toombs North Rustico Jan. 29, 1919, when her only and dearly beloved daughter Lila passed peacefully away after two weeks illness of Pneumonia despite the best medical skill and tender nursing. The funeral which was largely attended took place the following day at 1-P. M. to Wheatley River Cemetery. Services at the house church and grave, were conducted by her former pastor Rev. John Strirling Bradalbane. The deceased being of a kind and lovable disposition endeavored herself to all who knew her and her untimely death is keenly felt by her grief-stricken mother an only brother Calvin and also many relatives and friends. Her life was an example of pure christian character being faithful in life and beautiful in death. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

MRS BENNETT O'HALLORAN

There passed peacefully away at the P. C. Hospital following an operation Feb. 5th Mary A. dearly beloved wife of Bennett O'Halloran of Campbellton Lot 4. Her death came as a great shock to her family and friends as nothing was anticipated until three days previous. All that medical skill and kind and loving hands could do was done but God willed otherwise and she peacefully yielded her spirit to him who gave it. Deceased was the daughter of the late Mrs. Angus Gillis, Summerside. She was a lady of estimable character beloved by all who knew her. She is to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband and family also three sisters, Miss Maggie Gillis of S. Side Mrs. J. D. McDonald and Mrs. Jack Birch of Ch'town to all of whom most sincere sympathy is extended. Her funeral took place Friday morning to St. Mark's Church and was largely attended. JOHN JOSEPH TRAINOR

Death in any form casts a gloom over the community but when it calls one just in the morn of manhood and an only child it leaves a dark pall which time can never wholly dispel. Such was the case when on Jan. 21st it was learned that the dread influenza had entered the happy home of Mr. Patrick Trainor, Morell and carried away their beloved boy John Joseph. Deceased was in robust health until stricken with the fatal disease and although all that medical skill and the kindest and tenderest nursing could accomplish was done for him he passed away after nine days illness. He was attended in his sickness by his pastor Rev. P. Duffy, who also officiated at his funeral. Although he was scarcely 18 years he had made hosts of friends and was a prime favorite with all who knew him. He was kind and friendly to young and old, upright in all his dealings and a model Christian young man. He was a tireless worker trying to do his short span of his life. Although with out any training he was a splendid carpenter and could duplicate anything he had ever seen in woodwork. Being an accomplished musician he will be missed in a special way by the young folks of the parish for many a social gathering he graced with his violin, and his name will ever remain fresh in their memory. Where his loss will be felt so keenly by strangers what must it be in the home where he was the joy and comfort of his parents. Needless to say the sympathy of the whole parish goes out to them in their sad bereavement. Besides his heart-broken parents he leaves to mourn a foster-brother Mr. Peter Barry, Boston, Mass. to mourn the loss of a loving brother and a kind and dutiful son. His funeral took place on the 21st to St. Joseph's Church and all that was mortal of the darling of their heart was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. (Examiner please copy)

Forty-Ninth Annual Report 1869-1919

The following is a summary of the 49th Annual Report submitted to the policyholders at the Annual Meeting held at the Head Office, Waterloo, Thursday, February 6th, 1919:

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Income	$ 7,021,103	Gain over 1917	$ 506,588
Paid to Policyholders	3,291,418	Increase over 1917	777,427
Assets	34,755,737	Gain over 1917	2,590,305
Ratio of Expense to Income	46.84%	Decrease from 1917	31%
New Assurances	21,541,069	Gain over 1917	1,417,506
Assurances in force	137,040,614	Gain over 1917	14,129,300

War and Pestilence. In the long history of life insurance the Companies have never borne a heavier burden than during the year 1918. Through that fateful year of war and pestilence The Mutual Life of Canada has come with unimpaired stability, having met all claims—foreseen and unforeseen—and yet the Company has been able to maintain the distribution to policyholders of the liberal dividends of past years.

Intrinsic Prosperity. The adverse conditions of war and a virulent epidemic have not been without compensations. The great value of life insurance has been demonstrated as never before, resulting in a very marked impetus to the business and an enlarged sphere of usefulness and service for the Company. The new assurances procured during the year were the largest in the history of the Company.

Notable Progress. During the five-year war period just closed the Company has enjoyed a marked expansion of business, the new assurances written being 63.5% greater than in the preceding five year pre-war period. And this was achieved without any increase in the percentage of the income required to meet the general expenses of administration.

Victory and Peace. Not only have the exactions of the war period been met, but the Company, like the nation of which it forms a part, has come to the close triumphant, with the brightest prospects of prosperous development during the ensuing years of peace.
