U. S. RURAL MAIL SERVICE.

Not many are aware to what extent house to house delivery of mails has been developed in the United States in recent years, or at what cost. The expenditure of the department has increased from ninety millions in 1896 to one hundred and ninety millions in 1907. But in the same time there was an equal increase in the receipts from eighty-two to one hundred and eighty three millions. A deficit in the U. S. postal service has been common from year to year for a generation past, but it has grown something larger since rural delivery came in.

A published extract from the latest report of Postmaster General Meyer tells that the rural delivery system is now in operation on thirty nine thousand mail routes and serving a population of about eighteen million persons. Mr. Meyer has a scheme for carrying a special parcel post on rural mail routes which he thinks might wipe out the postal deficit. this year exceeding fifteen million dollars. The plan is to carry parcels of merchandise on these routes at a a charge of five cents per pound for the first pound and two cents for each additional pound up to a limit of eleven pounds. Nearly all the revenue from this source would be clear gain, and if each mail driver took with him fifty-five pound of merchandise on each trip at this rate, the service would yield fifteen million dollars.

Uncle Sam's mail system costs the nation heavily, but it is a marvel of completeness and efficiency in the service which it renders to the people, and is being improved from year to year. The American people are wise in not making the postal system a source of surplus revenue, but rather spending the full earnings and something more in giving the best possible service. For a like reason Canada may well afford to expend on rural delivery the million or more of surplus now earned by the postal service.

Hitherto in Canada, as was formerly the case in the Republic, the cities have been vastly better served in postal matters than have the country districts. It is time that the farmers should share in these benefits. To deliver the mail at the farmer's gate is only extending to him a like service to that bestowed upon the citizen who has the mail brought to his door. It is not likely that much more will be done this year in extending rural delivery in Canada, but after Parliament meets and a liberal appropriation for the purpose is made, we may hope for a considerable development in this line next season.

The following letter speaks for itself. It shows how one away from home appreciates The Guardian and map of Charlottetown.

Attleboro, Mass.,
Nov. 16, '08.

To The Guardian,
Charlottetown.

Kind Sirs :—It gives me great pleasure to let you know that I have received three Guardians and also one of your valuable maps of Charlottetown. I can assure they are very much appreciated by me. It is almost 14 years since I resided in your town and there are a great many streets I have forgotten and many new ones added. I will be only too glad to inform the boys of Attleboro, formerly of Charlottetown of the fact. Please let me know who subscribed for my paper and send me some blanks and I will gladly solicit subscriptions for you. I am working with R. F. Simmons Co., one of the largest watch chain concerns in the world. I am a gold plater and roller by trade and have been with them for the past nine years. I remain

Yours very respectfully,
D. B. CAMERON.

Note—The sender of the above subscription did not wish us to make his name known to the recipient.

At the provincial election of four years ago, the returns for which are elsewhere tabulated for purpose of comparison with the returns of yesterday's voting, the total franchise vote polled for 13 Government candidates was 10,122 and for 13 Opposition candidates 8,783. Two Assemblymen, one of each party, had been returned by acclamation, and these may be supposed to balance each other. The majority in favor of the Government on the franchise vote four years ago was 1,339. All the Councillor seats were contested in 1904 and the total property vote for the fifteen candidates was, Liberal, 7,176; Conservative, 6,061. Liberal majority 1,115. In the thirteen districts in which both Councillors and Assemblymen were in the running the total property votes cast numbered 11,586 as against a franchise vote of 18,905 the difference being 7,319.

CHAPPED HANDS AND COLD SORES

ZAM-BUK GIVES SPEEDY RELIEF.

Few women entirely escape the pain and annoyance of rough or chapped hands during the winter season, and most outdoor workers suffer more or less. If your hands are chapped, wash them at night in warm water; cleanse them thoroughly—using Zam-Buk soap if possible—and then anoint them well with Zam-Buk balm. By next morning you will be pleased with the result. Zam-Buk gives almost instant ease, and speedily closes the cracks.

Mrs. Walker, of 14 Manufacturer Street, Montreal, says- "My son Henry works with his shirt sleeves rolled up above his elbow, and passing from a warm room to the biting cold, as he was obliged to do, he got the worst case of chapped hands and arms I have ever seen. From his fingers to his elbows was one mass of raw flesh, with bad cracks here and there. Whenever he washed, it brought tears to his eyes; the pain was so acute.

"He tried several kinds of salve, but nothing relieved him really until he tried Zam-Buk. This took away the burning and smarting almost at once, The cracks began to heal, and a few applications of the balm cured him. His hands and arms are now smooth and soft.

"We have also used Zam.Buk for other emergencies. I sustained a burn on one of my fingers. Zam-Buk took the fire out and healed up the sore, It really is a wonderful household preparation."

Everybody says so who has tried Zam.Buk. Purely herbal, it is nature's own remedy. Eczema, ulcers, and chronic sores it heals and closes. Same with cuts, burns, and lacerated wounds. For childrenjs injuries it is without equal. Rubbed on the chest it ends the aching and tightness due to cold. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.
