LARGE ENTRY LIST AT THE TORONTO FAIR

Great Interest was Taken in the Live Stock Exhibits Reports Superintendent J. A. Clark

Superintendent J. A. Clark of the Experimental Station returned last night from attending the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair at Toronto, and reports quite an improvement over last year, with great crowds attending every afternoon and evening—numbering 10,000 in the auditorium alone. Many of the classes had more entries than last year, and in those that did not have so many the average quality was greatly improved. It was said that the entries of horses numbered 1,700.

Mr. Clark attended the auction sale of Shorthorn cattle held in connection with the Fair, which was very largely attended, the bulls averaging $243 and the females $208, the highest price paid being $700.

The Experimental Station cattle won the following prizes at the Fair: R. O. P. Classes: Cow 6 yrs. or over in milk, Buttercup of Glenholm, 2nd; Cow under 4 yrs. in milk, Daisy of Sunnyside, 2nd; in open classes: Aged cows, not in milk, Ravenwood Milkmaid, 8th; Aged cows in milk, Cora of Craggan, 8th; Senior Heifer, 3rd; Junior Heifer, 3rd; Junior Heifer, 3rd; aged bull, Ravenwood Victor, 7th; Yorkshire Swine: Boar, over 6 yrs. under 9, Geo. Boswell, 5th; Pen of Three Bacon Hogs, Geo. Boswell, 4th; Boar and two sows, over 15 months, Falconwood Farm, 4th; Get of sire, Geo. Boswell, 4th; Bacon class, Pope Cook, 6th; Shropshire sheep: Ewe lamb, Geo. Boswell, 2nd.

POTATOES: Irish Cobblers (unclassified) Peter Brodie, 3rd; Carman, Peter Brodie, 2nd; Green Mountains, (unclassified) Peter Brodie, 3rd; Irish Cobblers (classified) Peter Brodie, 3rd.

The Central Creameries, Charlottetown, for creamery, unsalted, 56 lb. box, 2nd; Creamery, salted, 14 lb. box, 5th; Creamery, salted, 56 lb. box, 2nd; Creamery, salted, 14 lb. box, Oct. 2nd; Creameries, 20 lb. prints, 8th.

The prizes won by Messrs. Roper Bros., and Alex Agnew have already been published in the press.

Mr. Clark is bringing home the junior champion Ayrshire Bull, Overton Lord Kyle, 8th, of Ottawa, to head the Experimental Station farm at Charlottetown. He is also bringing one of the best sows from the Central Farm bred to a boar imported in 1923 from England. The Experimental Station bull calf, Ravenwood Comrade, will be sent to head the Experimental Station herd of Ayrshires at Fredericton when he leaves the Royal for home.

Mr. Clark attended on Friday night a joint banquet of the Alumni of the Ontario Agricultural College and the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists held in the King Edward Hotel, Toronto. The following were among the speakers: The Minister of Agriculture for the Province of Ontario, Hon. John S. Martin; the Minister of Agriculture for New Brunswick, Hon. Mr. Mersereau; the Minister of Agriculture for P. E. Island, Hon. John H. Myers; Dr. Cumming, of Truro; Mr. E. S. Archibald, director of the Dominion Experimental Farms for Ottawa; Prof. Carlyle, manager of the E. P. ranch, Alberta; Hon. Duncan Marshall and Dr. G. C. Creelman. There were between 200 and 250 members of the above mentioned associations present.

Mr. Clark reports that on Saturday the streets of Ottawa were covered with snow and passing through Montreal Sunday night there were fully six inches of snow, which continued while he remained in Quebec.

HOWLING STORM IN EASTERN STATES

N. Y. State Covered By Foot of Snow, Traffic Held Up.

(Canadian Press.)

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Winter unloaded snow on northeastern New York over the week-end, the full ranging in depth from six inches to a foot and a half. Plattsburg, Saranac Lake and other Adirondack points temporarily were cut off from communication. The rain of Saturday turned to snow under a howling wind, bringing down wires and blocking roads. The car service was curtailed in Albany, telephone communication was interrupted and supplies of milk were brought into the city section with difficulty. Motor trucks and automobiles were stalled in deep drifts south of Schenectady.

The snow began drifting tonight. Railroads were preparing snow fighting equipment and a tie-up of both rail and highway traffic was generally expected in the morning.

RUTLAND, Vt., Nov. 26.—An eight-inch snow fall following a sleet storm blanketed all western Vermont today, which most of the east side escaped. The wire service was badly crippled, telephone connections between Rutland and Bennington and Burlington and St. Albans being nearly cut off for some twenty-four hours.

NEW PROPOSALS ON LIQUOR LAW

(Canadian Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The United States government will propose at the United States Canadian conference on liquor smuggling opening tomorrow at Ottawa that clearance of ships destined for United States ports with liquor cargoes be prohibited by Canada, that search and seizure of vessels engaged in smuggling on the Great Lakes be authorized and that treaty arrangements be made for extradition of persons accused of violating the liquor laws.

GLACE BAY, N. S., Nov. 26.—Harry Spicer, pressman at the Gazette office, died suddenly of heart failure, Sunday night. He at one time worked in Charlottetown.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN REGRETS FAILURE OF TREATY

(Canadian Press.)

MONTREAL, Nov. 26.—Addressing the Young Men's Canadian Club here Saturday Right Hon. Sir Robert Borden said that he agreed with the statement of Premier Poincare, of France, that if the engagement which the United States and Great Britain made as a guarantee to France over a number of years had been carried out, a great number of the difficulties we were facing today would never have occurred.

It was a treaty by which Great Britain and the United States guaranteed to protect France against attack during a certain number of years, but it had never been ratified by the United States and as such ratification was contingent to its acceptance by Great Britain, it had fallen through.

P. E. ISLAND HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN

A meeting of the campaign committee which is blocking out the organized public appeal to raise $67,000 in one week for Prince Edward Hospital was held in campaign headquarters, No 101 Queen Street, at 7.30 o'clock last evening. Mr. Frank R. Heartz, Executive Chairman, presided. Others present were: J. E. Bell, His Worship R. H. Jenkins, H. D. Johnson, M. D., Murdoch McLeod, S. A. McLeod, W. Chester S. McLure, James Paton, W. K. Rogers, Frank M. Stewart, W. F. Tidmarsh, and J. A. Webster.

The committee went over the card index list of probable givers and classified them in a general way. It divided the people into a group of five-figure prospects and another group of four-figure prospects and another group of two-figure expectations. No attempt will be made to place on the card bearing the name of any possible contributor the exact amount which he is expected to give. It is hoped that all subscribers automatically will classify themselves into the groups to which they naturally belong.

Rapid progress is being made in preparing the campaign. The work of organization is going on steadily in Campaign Headquarters, and in the same place a small but efficient staff of clerical workers is compiling a list of probable givers which runs into thousands of persons. Much of the campaign literature is ready for distribution, and the remainder will be printed and mailed this week. It is not expected that a large part of the funds will be contributed through the mails, but the literature will break trail for the volunteer workers who have agreed to see the several thousand prospective contributors in the week of the campaign.

A strong campaign committee has been organized and for the past two weeks this committee has worked vigorously every day to get ready for the organized public appeal. Heading the campaign committee is Mr. Frank R. Heartz as Executive Chairman, next comes Mrs. W. F. Tidmarsh, Chairman of the women's division. Mrs. F. J. Nash, as vice chairman of the women's division, is third on the list. The campaign treasurer is Miss

PRETENDER PRO VIDES THRILL FOR FRENCH CAPITAL

PARIS, Nov. 26.—Paris had an unusual thrill this morning when she awoke to find the Bourbon legitimists preparing to start a Fascist movement, with the announced purpose of placing on the throne a mysterious candidate who, they say, is the grandson of Louis XVII. During the night the city was placarded with huge posters calling on the Orleansists to desert Duke Philippe d'Orleans and rally to the support of "Louis Prince de Bourbon, descendant of the Kings of France and Navarre."

No one knows where the mysterious Prince is to be found. The Orleansists, faithful to the tradition that the son of Louis XVI was killed in the French Revolution, nevertheless, the controversy as to whether the Dauphin escaped has been getting more and more intense since the war, with frequent hints that the Bourbonists have been hiding their candidate until the time was ripe for a royalist uprising.

The police did not interfere with the posters, which attracted large crowds throughout the day and provoked comment that a change might be a good thing. The unknown pretender calls on the voters to tear up their ballots, saying it is no longer possible to change the Government by electing a Royalist Parliament, as once the deputies are sworn to protect the republic they become the servants of the revolution.

"The idea of a monarchy is still alive in France," says the appeal. "We must break up all lines, organize for combat and agree on measures to be taken. Arm yourselves seriously and remain calmly silent so as to be able to strike energetically when the time comes. France will never be a great and strong nation again until she is protected by the heavy sword of a legitimate king. A legitimate descendant of the House of Capet is behind you and will prepare the way for a triumphant return of the Kings of France and Navarre."

The son of Louis XVI was imprisoned in the Temple in Paris and was reported to have died there on June 1, 1795. Doctors certified to the death of a child "said to be the son of Louis Capet." It was later rumored that a young boy had been substituted for the Dauphin, who had escaped. The rumor grew with time and many pretenders to be his descendant appeared. Naundorff was one of the latest of these to be exposed.

Widely Known Pastor Passes Away

(Canadian Press.)

ST. JOHN, Nov. 26.—Ven. Archdeacon William O. Raymond has passed away and St. John mourns in the news of his death. The sad news came to St. John from Rev. R. Taylor McKim, rector of St. Mary's church, where Archdeacon Raymond so long and so well labored. Rev. Dr. Raymond died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. G. McNeillie, in Toronto. Although he had been ill for some time his death came as a shock to his relatives as well as a host of friends in this city.

For thirty-two years Ven. Archdeacon Raymond was pastor of St. Mary's church and during that long period won the love and respect not only of the members of his congregation, but citizens in general throughout the community and heartfelt expressions of regret were heard on all sides when news of his death spread.

Threatened Arrests Stir Roman Society

(Canadian Press.)

PARIS, Nov. 26.—Advices from Rome declared Roman society has been startled to the verge of panic by Premier Mussolini's action in setting police machinery in action against a gang of tricksters, said to be led by a Prince who is related to some of the most aristocratic families in the land.

The band is declared to have operated in three of the most aristocratic clubs in the capital. The victims are said to be very prominent persons. The gang's profits are understood to have exceeded fifty million lire.

EX-PREMIERS STAGE PUBLIC FORMAL RECONCILIATION

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The most arresting feature thus far of the present election campaign occurred last night when a public formal reconciliation between Herbert Asquith and David Lloyd George, after about seven years' estrangement, was staged at Paisley, where the two ex-premier ministers, amid great Liberal enthusiasm, appeared to speak on the same platform in Mr. Asquith's constituency.

Premier Baldwin, it was remarked by those present, could scarcely have foreseen what but a few months ago seemed such an improbable event when he decided to dissolve parliament and appeal to the country. The town hall, the scene of the meeting, holds 3,000 people but fully 10,000 struggled for admission. The hall was uncomfortably crowded, but the discomfort did not prevent the gathering from giving the two statesmen a big ovation.

Introducing the speakers, the chairman said the marriage of the Liberal party had been celebrated in London but that the honeymoon was to be spent in Scotland.

Mr. Asquith, rising first, remarked that he shared to the full the impatience of his constituents in awaiting Mr. Lloyd George's address.

"In the presence of my Right Honorable friend and colleague," he added, "I may say that his presence here is conclusive and sincere evidence that we are all one."

Mr. Lloyd George, replying after a storm of cheers and the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," said:

"It has been a deep and sincere grief to me that we ever separated. It is a real and sincere joy to me to find ourselves on the same platform and side by side in the same battle."

The remainder of his speech constituted an attack upon the protectionist policy of the Government.

Mr. Lloyd George had spoken earlier Saturday at Glasgow, making his theme a severe attack on Premier Baldwin's foreign policy and a repudiation of his strictures against the Premier for his share in funding the debt to the United States. This he characterized as "a foolish settlement," insinuating that Mr. Baldwin had been bluffed by the United States.

This question of the funding of the debt is becoming rather a favorite subject for Mr. Baldwin's opponents, who elaborate on the theme that through it the British taxpayer is paying the United States income tax, this being a reference to the report of the probable reduction in the amount of that tax in the United States.

MAY PROTEST SHIP SEIZURE

(Canadian Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The crew of the rum laden schooner Tomako formerly the Arethusa, after the vessel was captured yesterday about six miles off the Jersey shore, threatened the coastguard boarding officer and attempted to dash to sea after firing her machine guns at the cutters Seneca and Leyington. The despatch from London today said that if the vessel is of British registry the British Government would probably protest her capture outside the three-mile limit, the proposed twelve mile limit not yet being effective.

(Canadian Press.)

BRUSSELS, Nov. 26.—The Belgian government today seized German rolling stock at Duisburg and Hambrone in view of Germany's failure to reply to the Belgian ultimatum demanding an indemnity of one million, two hundred and fifty thousand francs for the assassination of Lieutenant Graff, near Dueseldorf in March 1922.

Leaps into Furnace to End Toothache

(Canadian Press.)

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 21.—Crazed with pain as the result of bad teeth from which he had suffered for years, Robert Reichelt, 65, hurried himself head first into a holler furnace at the plant of the Stehman and Meyer Furniture Company today, and was burned to death. Reichelt frequently complained of the pain to fellow-employees and said he could stand it no longer.

BRILLIANT COMEDY DRAMA AT THE PRINCE EDWARD

"The Girl with a Million" Scored a Big Hit at the Opening Performance Last Night

Local talent was seldom seen to better advantage than in the brilliant Society comedy drama, "The Girl with a Million," at the Prince Edward Theatre last night, which delighted the very large audience and held the interest from the opening act to the final curtain. The performance which was given by the "Charlottetown Dramatic Club" under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, showed painstaking practice and careful arrangement of detail, and would indeed have gone credit to any visiting professional company. There were bright flashes of humor running through the play and each part was taken admirably. Specialties between the acts were features much appreciated and received enthusiastic accolades. The stage settings were good and excellent music was furnished by the Casino Orchestra.

Mr. Urban Pineau as Ted Small had the comedy lead and scored many hearty laughs throughout the performance. His enunciation was perfect and as a comedian he is par excellence. Mr. Andrew Williamson appeared as Warren Dale, a young artist, and made a strong impression. Mr. Williamson has a splendid stage appearance, and his rich musical voice added greatly to the pleasing effect of the part. The eccentric role of Burton Crosby, was well taken by Mr. Thos. White, who showed a thorough appreciation of the role. A difficult part was that of Lord Ashby Merton, taken very successfully by Mr. Jas. Callaghan who maintained just the proper characterization and did not once fall into the error of over-doing the effect.

The part of Ruth Hawley, "The Girl with a Million," was admirably taken by Miss Gladys McCormack, whose previous successes in dramatic productions have given much pleasure to Charlottetown audiences. Her performance last evening was warmly received. Miss Agnes Flynn as Mrs. Dorothy Gleason, the dashing rich widow, scored a decided hit. In the character role of Mrs. Dale, Miss Louise Arsenault showed great versatility. The role was a difficult one and splendidly taken. Miss Harry Saunders appeared as Mrs. Hilton, a society lady and scored a splendid success.

Mr. White and Miss Saunders made their first appearance in a theatrical production last night, and are to be warmly congratulated on their ability. The entire performance indeed was highly creditable to the Charlottetown Dramatic Club, which, under the capable direction of Mr. J. Austin Trainor has already since its organization about a year ago done splendid work, and Mr. Trainor is to be congratulated upon his untiring efforts. At last evening's show there were no embarrassing pauses or hesitations as might be expected in an amateur performance. Everything moved smoothly and the humorous touches in the play were brought out naturally and with no undue straining after effect.

FOX SCORING EXPERT HERE

Mr. Geo. Brackett, of The Bureau of Economic Fox Standard, is in the City.

Mr. George Brackett, Boston, Mass. has been on the Island for several days, a guest at the Victoria Hotel. Mr. Brackett is founder of the Bureau of Economic Fox Standard which has to do with the judging and scoring of foxes for breeders' purposes. He was for several years secretary of the American Fox Breeders Association, resigning his position this spring to devote his time exclusively to judging and scoring foxes according to the Economic Fox Standard which is now recognized as the most stringent standard in existence.

Mr. Brackett has had a large experience in judging foxes and a lifetime's experience in the pelt business, growing up in it with his father who was engaged in the industry since 1865. Mr. Brackett was associated with Mr. Chester McLure M. L. A. of this city, in judging foxes at the first silver fox show ever held in the world. The Bureau of Economic Fox Standard to
