IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

HARTNEY HALL—Service on Friday at 8 p. m., July 2nd.

POWNAL CIRCUIT—Services on Pownal Circuit for July 4th are: Pownal at 11 and 7. Millview at 2.30.

INTERESTING OUTING—Carleton Point is the place of interest. Attend St. James' S. S. Picnic on July 6th. Fare 50c.

I. O. G. T.—Pownal Lodge, L. O. G. T., will hold a session on Friday evening at 8 o'clock to elect delegates to Grand Lodge, etc.

FUNERAL FRIDAY—The funeral of the late Mr. W. H. Horne, S. Milton, takes place on Friday at 2.30 p. m., to Milton Cemetery.

ACCEPTS POSITION—Mr. A. J. Cullen left yesterday for Quebec, having accepted a position in the Bank of Montreal in that city.

MEETING TONIGHT—Rev. Mr. Porter will address a meeting in Pownal Church on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on matters of interest to our Church. (No collections.)

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE—The Guardian understands that a horse belonging to Mr. James Dunn, Mt. Stewart, has mysteriously disappeared from the pasture, some night last week. No trace of the horse has been seen since, but likely Mr. Dunn "will know the reason why" before long.—L.

PRINCE STREET SCHOOL—The following grade was inadvertently omitted from the school report yesterday: Grade 9—Trustees' Certificates for General Proficiency, 1st, Gladys Crawford; 2, Jean Tait. Trustees' Certificate for Penmanship, 1st, Doris Gill. Trustees' Certificates for Attendance, Jean Tait and Victoria Whitlock.

OUR ADVERTISEMENT of flowers and vegetable plants is issued only every Monday morning in The Guardian and Monday evening in The Patriot. Cut out and paste up for reference—there is something in it to interest every owner of a few feet of land and just at this time it is a good thing to forget all the horrors of war—what better way can this be accomplished than in the cultivation of flowers and vegetables? We are holding all orders for tender plants until the weather is warmer—trust customers will have patience. Send for price list. J. J. GAY & SON, Charlottetown, P. E. I. 1734-6-30M21.

PUBLIC MEETING—The Farmers' Institute will hold a public meeting in the hall at Kensington Saturday evening, July 3rd.

ESTATE SALE—The groceries of Sanderson & Co. will be sold by public auction on Tuesday, July 6 at ten o'clock unless otherwise disposed of. The ad. appears elsewhere 1761

POLICE COURT—At the Police Court yesterday Henry McAlister was fined $5 and costs, $1, on a charge of having behaved himself disorderly in public.

COD FISHING—Messrs. Ed. Duff, David Jay and Lorne Jay, Mt. Stewart, went out fishing cod on Monday and returned with a barrel of fine fish. They report the fishing on the North side the best of any past year. They hooked them as fast as they could haul them in.—L.

SUPREME COURT—The Supreme Court met again yesterday morning and after the disposal of some ordinary routine business, three judgments were given against G. L. Poole by consent. The Court then adjourned until Monday morning, when the Petit Jury will be in attendance.

TRAINS CROWDED—Yesterday afternoon the outgoing trains from this city were taxed to their utmost, some having to take on extra cars to accommodate the passengers. This was largely due to the Big Dollar Day in this city and excursionists going to the rural districts to spend Dominion Day.

FLORAL ASSOCIATION—Persons living in Summerside and the surrounding districts, who desire to join the Prince Edward Island Floral Association, may leave their names and membership fee (50 cents) with Prof. W. J. Reid, at the Agricultural Building, Summerside. 1763

MILTON CHURCH—St. John's Church, Milton, which has been restored throughout and a new window placed in the Chancel, over the Lord's Table, will be opened on Sunday next, July 4th. Services will be held in the morning at 11 a. m. Sermon by Rev. C. DeW. White, M. A., rector of Summerside, followed by Holy Communion. Afternoon at 3 p. m., preacher the Rev. T. W. Murphy, M. A., Charlottetown. Evening, 7.30, Rev. J. Bamford, Port Hill.

PICNIC AT CARLETON POINT—Visit this famous spot, July 6th, St. James Sunday School Picnic. Return fare only 50 cents 1755-7-1M31

VICTORIA SHIPPING—The Schr. "Blanche M. Thorbourne," Captain S. Bowdidge in command, cleared Friday for Sydney. Cape Breton. Her cargo, loaded by Wright Bros., consisted of 1100 bushels of oats, 700 bushels of potatoes and 25 tons of hay. The Schr. "Raeburn," Captain J. M. Chapman in charge, cleared Friday for Pictou, N. S., with a cargo of hay shipped by Wright Bros. The Schr. "Ralph," Captain G. Renaud, entered Monday. Her cargo was composed of coal from Pictou for Wright Bros.—V.

WEDDING BELLS—An interesting event takes place this afternoon at the home of Mr. R. R. Reid, Cra-paud, when his daughter, Miss Hazel B., will be united in marriage to Mr. Harold Lea Norton, of Bedford. The bride will be attended by Miss Ella Cameron, of Cra-paud, while Mr. Earnest Reid, brother of the bride, will act as groomsmen. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Geo. M. Young in the presence of a number of relatives and intimate friends of the interested families. After a supper at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Norton will drive to Charlottetown, thence to their future home in Bedford. The Guardian joins in congratulations and best wishes for the continued happiness and prosperity of the young couple.

BAPTIST CHURCH—A very interesting missionary meeting was held in the Baptist Schoolroom last evening under the auspices of the W.M.A.S. of the Church. Mrs. A. W. Sterns, President of the Society, presided, and Mrs. Norton had charge of the music. Miss Blanche Boyver sang a solo very nicely, to an accompaniment by Miss Lillian Earl. The schoolroom was filled. Miss Mabel Archibald gave a most interesting address. She has a very attractive way of presenting her subject. She was dressed in the beautiful dress of an Indian Princess. It was a finely wrought garment, which was presented by an Indian King to Miss Sanford, a lady nurse in connection with the Canadian Baptist mission in India. It was valued at $50, and is worth much more. There has not been a missionary address in Charlottetown for a long time that had the popular interest of the one that Miss Archibald gave last night. She has the knack of saying things in a taking way and she is a good word painter. It was a very interesting and successful meeting. Miss Archibald has been the guest of Mrs. A. W. Sterns while in the city. She leaves this morning for Summerside, to attend the Baptist Association, where she gives a couple of addresses. She has been making a tour of the island, where she spent the years of her girlhood when her father was a pastor in the province.

A New Piano for $98. $2. Down $1. a Week

A Clean Sweep of Everything

We have gone over the stock. We have annihilated prices. We have shaved terms down to a shadow. We have taken old reliable Standard High Grade Pianos and literally shot the prices to atoms. We are going to sell every Piano, every Player Piano, every Organ, every Phonograph, every Sheet of Music regardless of price, regardless of terms. We are bound and determined to dispose of this stock of Musical Merchandise at some figure. All must go. This is final. Some of the pianos are show-worn, some have been rented, some we have taken in exchange on our Cremonate players, but the majority, the vast majority, are brand new high grade Pianos, backed by the entire wealth and resource of the Amherst Piano Co., Ltd.

The Great Sale is at Its Zenith

We are selling Pianos as fast as we can wait on the customers. We are selling Pianos cheaper than they have ever been sold in the entire history of the Piano business. Can you imagine such Pianos as you see depicted on this paper here today. Look at the prices and terms. This sale has taken on such enormous proportions that it is beyond the bounds of human comprehension. People are flocking from all over the Maritime Provinces. We have sold Pianos within a radius of 100 miles of Charlottetown, and every train brings more buyers from the neighboring towns. This will go down in history as the greatest sale of any kind or character ever held in the Dominion of Canada. Our entire store is bending and creaking under the tremendous strain. Every Piano is a snap. The doors crash open at 8 o'clock each morning.—Be here.

A LETTER FROM THE FRONT

The following is a letter from one of the few survivors of the Princess Patricia regiment which left Canada last fall 1,000 strong, and is said to consist of only 150 men now. It is from Joseph Monaghan to his father, in Kinkora:—

May 30th, 1915.
Dear Father,—Just a line in answer to your letter of yesterday. I haven't had much rest yet, as I just came out of action on Saturday. You wanted to know if I was in that battle in which our Canadian boys took so gallant a part. As we were holding a different part of the line we didn't happen to be in it; and as the firing line extends over five hundred miles you can understand that sometimes it is quiet in one place and at no great distance there is the fiercest of fighting. It is peculiar that some days there is not a shot fired, and then on others battle rages all around you. As our regiment is with the best British battalions we are generally put in the worst part of the line and I certainly saw some "scraping" out here lately. You might well wonder how men can stand it. I have seen many a fine fellow fall, but as it is up to us to beat the Germans we have to "take our medicine." One of my best chums was killed the other day not a yard away from me. Another day I asked my comrade for a match to light my pipe. He handed me the box and when I turned to give it back to him he was dead. But we do not worry over these things as we came here to fight and are prepared for the worst. The only good German is a dead German and I have had the pleasure to see more than one go down. Davey, a fellow from the island, was wounded a few days ago. I miss him very much, as we often used to get together to talk about the island. I don't think it was serious, as it was a flesh wound and will mean only a few weeks rest in a hospital. Well, father, I never felt better than I do to-night, the out-door life seems to agree with me. An occasional shell bursting overhead just puts the finishing touch on it. It is the prettiest thing in the world to see the shrapnell bursting in the air about sunset. I was sorry to hear the Lusitania went down, but that should open the people's eyes to let them know there is a great war on.
JOE.
