Address and Presentation

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. James Sheen, Kensington, was the scene of a happy event on February 15th, when upwards of fifty friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Paynter assembled to extend congratulations and best wishes to them, on the occasion of their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Rev. Mr. Noel capably acted as chairman and with some witty remarks called the gathering to order. An address was read by Mrs. John Moase and a presentation of a purse by Mr. Elmer Paynter. Mr. Paynter thanked all for so kindly remembering them. All joined in singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows.

The program consisted of several selections of instrumental music furnished by Mr. James McKenzie, violin, accompanied by Mrs. James Sheen.

A Recitation by Mrs. W. J. Paynter.

Rev. Mr. Noel sang two comic Newfoundland songs.

A singsong of old time selections with Mrs. Trueman Paynter at the organ.

A Recitation by Mrs. John Moase.

Sing Song with Mrs. Allan Brown at the organ.

A bountiful lunch was then served by the ladies, to which all did ample justice.

Mr. and Mrs. Paynter's family were all present, David coming from Charlottetown for the evening, he thanked all who in any way had helped to make the evening such a pleasant one.

Mr. J. B. Millman extended a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Sheen for their kind hospitality, to which each fittingly replied.

After the singing of God be with you till we meet again, all departed to their homes having spent a most enjoyable evening and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Paynter many more years of happy wedded life.

ADDRESS

Kensington,
February 15, 1945

Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Paynter

Dear Friends:—It is with feelings of great pleasure that we your relatives and friends have assembled here tonight to help celebrate on this special occasion. We all wish to extend to you both our heartiest congratulations on this your thirty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Thirty-five years to look ahead seems a very long long time, still to look back on ones life the hand of time seems to have travelled very fast for the years swiftly slide by.

We know the past thirty-five years hasn't been all sunshine for either of you for life does not come in that manner, there were times when you had sickness and troubles and partings from loved ones, but you shared your sorrows and joys with each other, and kept your faith in God, and your spirits high, with always a smile and a joke for every one.

Life has to have those dark clouds to make the bright ones more beautiful.

Still we feel fate has been kind to you both, you have been spared to travel the pathway together over the rough and smooth way of life, with your family all around you.

So if there were the odd dark cloud we want to forget them tonight and look only on the sunny side of life.

We hope you are both enjoying your visit this winter in the fair town of Kensington. Your Uncle Hedley are not in the best of health, but we are very pleased to hear you are improving and trust that in the near future you may be completely cured. May God's richest blessings be with you both and may you be spared to have many more years of happy wedded bliss.

As along the road of life you travel fast
May each succeeding year be better than the last.

Please accept this gift not for its value but as a token of our love and esteem.

Signed on behalf of these people.

VALENTINE SOCIAL — Cornwall "Speeders" (J.R.C.) held their regular meeting in the school on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 14 in the form of a Valentine Social. Meeting opened by singing "O Canada". The president, Evelyn Godfrey presided over the business period. In the absence of the secretary Inez Roma Gass acted secretary. Minutes were read and approved, followed by the roll call responded to by 20 members and 12 visitors. It was answered by a riddle and "grab bag". The treasurer reported 66c on hand plus collection and "grab bag" fees of $2.00, making a total of 2.66. The committees gave their report. The following committees were appointed: Health, Roma Gass; Water, Janet Skinner and Wanda Willis; Program, Dorothy Dunsford and Ina Lowther. Roll call to be answered at next meeting by an Irish joke. A program was then put on by the teacher consisting of a "Valentine Hunt", won by Roma Gass and "jumbled Valentine contest" won by Evelyn Godfrey and Laura Hyde. Following this the girls, teacher and visiting ladies of the district served a delicious lunch. Still greater was the excitement when Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard treated all with ice cream. After everyone had done justice to the before mentioned treat, Leslie MacPhail moved that a vote of thanks be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Howard for their kindness, which was heartily seconded by all. Mr. and Mrs. Howard then in a few words expressed their pleasure in coming to join the pupils who as they put it "pass through our yard daily with always a mannerly greeting." The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

Commander Lester Schuls is shown as he testified before the Pearl Harbor Investigating Committee. He said the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt saw part of Japan's final intercepted diplomatic note the night of December 6, 1941, and immediately anticipated war. Schuls said he delivered the intercepted message to the White House and asserted the late President read it for 10 or 15 minutes, turned to the late Harry L. Hopkins, his confidential adviser, and said in substance, "This means war."

New Glasgow's Activities

Once again that ravaging enemy, known as fire, brought destruction to this district, when on Saturday morning in the howling blizzard, the beautiful home, with most of its contents, belonging to Mr. Percy Dickieson was brought to ashes. Mr. Dickieson had lit the kitchen fire, and while about the other chores, the kitchen pipe went on fire, igniting the ceiling it passed through, gaining great headway before it was discovered. Due to the storm, the neighbours couldn't see and Mr. Dickieson had to leave the house to get help, by this time it was beyond control with the heavy gale hastening it on. Mrs. Dickieson was in bed not well, and their son Leith had pneumonia; both getting out of their beds to walk to the nearest neighbour, Miss N. Campbell, where she has tenderly cared for them. A large crowd of neighbours gathered and were only able to save a few pieces of furniture. Mr. Dickieson had recently renovated it, making it one of the loveliest homes in the district, and his family regret his great loss which is only partially covered by insurance.

Mr. Thomas Goss retired telephone service man, is confined to his home with influenza.

Mrs. Willard Nicholson was a recent visitor to the capital, while there she called to see her cousin, Mr. Allan Moffatt, who is a patient at the P. E. Island Hospital, where his condition is much improved.

Mr. William Nicholson is a short course student, taking the carpenter's course.

Among the visitors to the City on Tuesday were Mrs. Howard Ling, Mrs. Nelson McDonald, LAC. Albert Ling, Messrs. James Moffatt Frank Houston, Davis Moffatt and Stanley Orr.

Reverend H. J. McLeod and Mrs. McLeod attended the funeral on Wednesday of the late Daniel J. (Bud) McLean, who had passed away suddenly at his home in North Wiltshire. Much sympathy is extended to the loved ones, who mourn the loss.

A public meeting was held in New Glasgow hall on Tuesday afternoon to discuss a hospital plan, and to see if it would be possible to obtain another doctor to assist our local practitioners. Mr. George Clark was appointed chairman, and some splendid talks by different ones proved very interesting followed by a general discussion. A resolution was drawn, to be passed into the provincial government, asking that a snow plough be permanently placed in a local center, so that the roads on the north side may be kept open in case of an emergency and when medical attendance is at times impossible. Mrs. Larkins capably acted secretary of the meeting. Rev. Father Dalton was appointed chairman of a committee which consists of two from each school district, from which five of an executive were appointed namely, Rev. Father Dalton, Hope River; Rev. J. H. Hayter, New Glasgow; Mrs. Allan Wyand, Cavendish; Rev. Father Peters, South Rustico and Mr. Alban Peters, North Rustico.

There was a good attendance and residents anxiously looked forward to further developments. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr Clarke and all others responsible to the calling of the meeting. A collection was taken to cover cost of meeting. Singing the National Anthem brought a profitable afternoon to a close.

Rev. Eric Coffin and Mrs. Coffin were to the City during the week, and attended Presbytery on Tuesday.

Due to the storm on Saturday last no races were held on the river, but all race fans anxiously look forward to the 23rd for another afternoon with the King of Sports. Weather conditions favorable.

Do have longer suit jackets, flared skirts, horizontal trimming.

Don't stick with wartime short jackets, slim skirts, skimpy sleeves.

Chicago Sun Syndicate

Three cheers and a big yippee hurrah for longer jackets, flared skirts something special in the 1946 silhouette. Hurrah for you tall girls who need all the fabric the law didn't allow during wartime.

Do choose the longer suit jacket, the flared swinging skirt, full sleeves, horizontal trims, which spell the new spring silhouette. Plenty of fulness should be your motto.
