Are Shortening Life

The sudden passing of so many men has startled many into thought, Of what may have been the cause. The more thorough the investigation The more the attention centres on the nervous system.

Nerve force which should be available To run the machinery of the body, The heart, the lungs, the stomach and other vital organs, Is consumed by intense emotions, Such as fear, worry and anxiety. Digestion fails and the action of the other organs is slowed down until you become Sleepless, irritable and finally a victim To failure of the most vital organs. You can restore nerve force to the body By using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Through the circulation of the blood New vigor and energy is carried to every nook and corner of the body.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS ELVA MARGARET BANKS

There passed out of this life to her eternal home on Sabbath morning, February 10th, Elva Margaret Banks of Bradabane at the tender age of thirteen years. The deceased underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown the day previous to her death. All the services that medical skill and loving care could render was furnished without avail. The deceased was the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Buchanan of Bradabane and was a general favorite in the community.

Her funeral service was held from the home of her foster-parents and was largely attended. Rev. Arthur Wallis officiated and brought a message of comfort to the bereaved. The hymns sung were, "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and "Jewels," all favorites of the deceased. By request Mrs. Wallace Reeves sang the hymn "There'll Be No Disappointment in Heaven." The pall bearers were Lester Cairns, Earl Todd, Alex Buchanan, Alex MacDonald, Lorne McLaughlin, Lorne Cousins. Interment was in Springdale Cemetery. Among the floral tributes were a wreath from the teacher and pupils of Bradabane School and a crescent

Kinkora

A large crowd attended the Auction Forty-five party held on Feb. 18th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mulligan, West Newton. The bidding was lively and each contestant vied with one another for who should win the prize. Miss Ethel Delghan, Emerald, and Mr. James A. E. McKenna Newton, were the lucky winners. A generous and dainty lunch provided and served by the ladies of the Emerald section of St. James' Church, Summerfield, was greatly enjoyed by all after which a few hours were whiled away in dancing music being furnished by Mr. George M. McMahon of Emerald, and Emery Mulligan of Newton. The handsome sum of twenty-three dollars was realized.

We regret the continued illness of Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe and Mrs. Rose A. McKenna of Kinkora, but hope that their condition soon improves.

Rev. Sr. Angela daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe arrived on Saturday evening on a visit to her parents.

Miss Teresa McCarvell nurse in training in P. C. Hospital, left Wednesday for General Hospital Montreal, Miss McCarvell is accompanied by her father Mr. Patrick McCarvell, Kinkora.

The sympathy of the Community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. George S. McKenna on the sudden death of their youngest child at the tender age of 4 months.

The day previous to his death his mother notified that he had a slight cough but did not consider it as anything serious. Next morning she gave him his feeding and he took it all but when she went to his crib to give him his bath she found him apparently lifeless. But God who lent him only for a time wanted him back, so we have only to bow our heads in humble submission and say "Thy will O Lord not mine be done."

His funeral took place on Tuesday morning, Feb. 28th to St. Malachai's Church, Kinkora, when Rev. Father Smith performed the last service over the casket.
