

Maritime Provinces tea drinkers know by nearly sixty years experience that can always be depended upon for purity of quality, maximum of strength and richness of flavour.

MORSE'S

IN MEMORIAM

MISS MARGARET CLARKIN

The death occurred in this city on the 9th, of Miss Margaret Clarkin, of the age of sixty-seven years. The late Miss Clarkin was a life resident of Charlottetown, a devoted member of St. Dunstan's Cathedral and during her illness she was frequently visited by all the very kind nature, and beautiful character, ever willing and ready to assist those in need and sickness, and her many charitable deeds were known only to those who benefited by them. Her three brothers, Owen, Patrick and Peter predeceased her, and she leaves to mourn besides her many friends, her only sister, Mrs. John Coyle with whom she made her home for a number of years, and by whom she is sadly missed. Her funeral took place on Saturday morning at St. Dunstan's Cathedral and was largely attended, where a Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Patrick McMahon. The services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Charles McCarthy. The pall bearers were H. M. Davidson, Samuel Craig, John McLaren, Sixtus McLellan, T. Smith and James Eden.

The following Mass Cards and Spiritual Bouquets were received: Crescent, Sister Ellen and family, Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lord, Cambridge, Mass.

Mass Cards—Mrs. Ellen Coyle and family, High.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coyle and family, High.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coyle and family, High.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Doucette, High.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lord, Cambridge, Mass, High.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Coyle, High.

Mrs. Patrick Clarkin and family, High.

Third Order St. Francis, High.

Promoters of the League of the Sacred Heart, High.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perry and family, High.

Central Guardian

STORE OPEN all day Wednesday, during the month of June. Patons Limited. 5582-6-19-11

THE FUNERAL of the late Charles Moore takes place from his late residence, West River, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

STORE OPEN all day Wednesday, during the month of June. Patons Limited. 5582-6-19-11

NOTICE—Beginning June 19th, the Blue Doors Rental Library will close on Wednesday afternoons. 5577-6-19-11

THE FUNERAL of the late Henry MacKenzie takes place today from his late residence at Hillsboro, leaving the house at 2 o'clock, to Mount Herbert church for funeral services.

STORE OPEN all day Wednesday, during the month of June. Patons Limited. 5582-6-19-11

WINDSOR SHIPPING CLUB will load live hogs this week. Car of seed wheat on the way. Send your order to T. A. Rodd, Milton. 5581-6-19-11

A CHURCH PARADE, under the auspices of the Southern District Local Orange Association, will be held in Wood Islands Presbyterian Church, on next Wednesday, 26th, June, at 8 o'clock p. m. The service will be conducted by Rev. D. V. O'Meara, R. W. G. C.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR—Mrs. Maynard Carter, the chief of the Nursing Division of the Red Cross League, with headquarters in Paris, is now visiting this country. She has already been accorded a hearty welcome in the City of Halifax, several functions being held in her honor. Yesterday, (Monday), she was at guest of honor at a luncheon at the Ashburne Golf Club. Today she is to be a guest at Government House at a function given in her honor.

Mrs. Carter is an English lady who knows the work whereof she speaks, having had practical experience in nursing with the Red Cross in the interior countries of Europe. She is on her way to attend the International convention, which this year is being held in the City of Montreal—Halifax Chronicle. Mrs. Carter is expected to visit Charlottetown this week.

PERSONALS

Mr. J. Belanger, of the Robison National Clearing Co., Montreal, is at present visiting the Province.

Miss A. Thelma Cook, R. N., of Boston, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph E. Jenkins, Orlebar Street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Palmer were passengers on the Borden train last night, returning from Toronto and Montreal, where they have been spending a short but very enjoyable holiday.

Minard's Linctant for Coughs & Colds.

Minard's Linctant for Sore Throats.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. John Coyle and family wish to thank their many friends for acts of kindness and sympathy extended to them during the illness and death of their sister and Aunt, the late Miss Margaret Clarkin, also to those who so kindly sent Mass Cards, Spiritual Bouquets and Letters of Sympathy. 5571-6-19-11

BIRTHS

QUIGLEY—At the Prince Edward Island Hospital, June 18th, to R. D. and Mrs. Quigley, a daughter.

DEATHS

MacLEAN—At 220 King Street, Monday, June 17th, Allison Roland MacLean aged two months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleaver MacLean.

ARNOLD—Entered into rest on June 9th, 1929, at Bristol, Lot 40, Nita Gladys, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Arnold, aged 4 months.

ROBINS—At Milburg on May 24, Roy, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robins, aged 14 days.

MacKENZIE—At Hillsborough, on Monday, June 17th, Henry MacKenzie, aged 78 years. Funeral from his late residence on Wednesday, June 19th, leaving the house at 2 o'clock for Mt. Herbert Church for services. Interment at Mt. Herbert Cemetery.

Wanted

WANTED—BLACKSMITH. MUST be good horseshoer. Apply Proud and Moreside, 223 Great George Street. 5540-6-18-31

Wanted

WANTED—at once at J. B. Millman's Warehouse, Kensington, 73 bushels barley. 5523-6-18-31

Wanted

WANTED—GIRL OR ELDERLY woman to assist with housework. Apply Mrs. Amos Rodd, Milton. 55566-6-19-31

Wanted

WANTED—TWO EXPERIENCED maids. One for kitchen and one for dining room. Apply Parker House. 3133-4-10-11

Wanted

WANTED—BLACKSMITH. MUST be good horseshoer. Apply Proud and Moreside, 223 Great George Street. 5540-6-18-31

Wanted

WANTED—at once at J. B. Millman's Warehouse, Kensington, 73 bushels barley. 5523-6-18-31

Wanted

WANTED—BLACKSMITH. MUST be good horseshoer. Apply Proud and Moreside, 223 Great George Street. 5540-6-18-31

Wanted

WANTED—at once at J. B. Millman's Warehouse, Kensington, 73 bushels barley. 5523-6-18-31

Wanted

WANTED—BLACKSMITH. MUST be good horseshoer. Apply Proud and Moreside, 223 Great George Street. 5540-6-18-31

ORDINATION AT MONTAGUE

Glad memories of May 26 and June 2 will linger long with the parishioners of St. Mary's Church, Montague. On the former date their church for the first time in its history was the scene of ordination rites. To the Reverend John A. Sullivan, of Greenfield, a favored son of the parochial soil, belongs the distinction of bringing to his native parish the unique honor of the event. The beloved bishop of the diocese accompanied by a cortege of clergy had come in the dignity of the Episcopate bringing joy to the hearts of this portion of his flock by conferring Holy Orders on a truly worthy and highly esteemed son of St. Mary's.

The church was filled to capacity. Many interested spectators joined the ranks of relatives and friends who had come to witness the solemn ceremony and to unite with Mother Church in prayer and petition in behalf of the young candidate to priestly power. It was indeed a day of exceedingly great joy for the good pastor and his people. By tireless energy Father Kiggins succeeded in having the modest little sanctuary converted into a veritable bower of beauty in fitting tribute to the great occurrence of the day. At the conclusion of the service the newly ordained gave an individual blessing to his immediate family and relatives and a general one to all.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

On June 2, Father Sullivan offered his first Solemn High Mass and again there was a large congregation present. Devout, edified worshippers followed the sacred ritual so beautifully intoned by the gifted celebrant. At the close of the Mass in response to the parishioners' greeting and presentation extended by Messrs. Eugene Dunn and James Cain, the Reverend Father spoke feelingly and at some length to the people. He referred to the hopes and inspirations of his boyhood that through the goodness of God had been so happily realized and he united his joy and gratitude with that of the parishioners, thanking them for their expressions of goodwill and promising them a prayerful remembrance.

The people regret that owing to pressure of work in the diocese their young priests vacation was shorter than anticipated. They hope however, to have him with them again for at least a short time before the end of the summer and they pleasantly expect that in the future they may have him occasionally in their midst. In the meantime their prayers and best wishes are with him in the performance of his priestly duties.

Executive Meeting P.E.I. Presbyterial

A meeting of the Executive of the P. E. I. Presbyterial was held on Thursday afternoon, June 13th, in Hearts Hall, Charlottetown. Mrs. W. A. Thomson, the President, occupied the chair and the following other members responded to Roll Call: Mrs. John Sterling, Montague, 1st Vice-Pres.

Mrs. Geo. Grant, Winsloe, 2nd Vice Pres.

Mrs. Metcalfe, Victoria, 3rd Vice-Pres.

Mrs. F. E. Boothroyd, York, Corr. Sec.

Mrs. L. R. Allen, Summerside, Treas.

Mrs. A. J. Reynolds, Bedeque, Sec. of Ch. Stewardship.

Miss Elma Inman, Carleton, Sec. of Y. P. Work and Temperance.

Mrs. J. B. Andrew, East Royalty, Sec. Missionary Monthly.

Mrs. W. E. Alken, Central, Sec. of Lit. and Supplies.

Mrs. D. M. MacLeod, Hunter River, Rec. Sec.

Several items of business were discussed and passed, and tentative arrangements made for the holding of Rallies during the early summer.

Temperance work was discussed and the necessity stressed for the active support of every W. M. S. member to aid in the gospel of Temperance education and law enforcement.

The meeting was also made the occasion for a presentation on behalf of the Executive and Finance Com. to the loved President, Mrs. Thomson who leaves shortly for Toronto for several months. Mrs. Sterling, in addressing Mrs. Thomson told of the very large place she held in the hearts of every member and that their goodwill, love and prayers would follow her with their sincerest wishes for her complete restoration to health.

The gift was a beautiful wrist watch and bracelet presented by Mrs. Boothroyd. Mrs. Thomson, though so very completely taken by surprise, graciously thanked the donors for the loving thoughts that prompted the gift and for their sympathy and help through the years she served as President.

Meeting closed with Mizpah Benediction.

SONIER FOUND NOT GUILTY AT SUMMERSIDE

The Supreme Court at Summerside was occupied all day yesterday with the further hearing of the case of the King versus Benj. Sonier on an indictment for breaking and entering the vendor's store in Summerside, and stealing two cases of ale therefrom.

The principal witness for the crown was Robert H. Phillips, who testified that on the early morning when the crime was committed he was walking towards his stable to feed his horses. When opposite the building in which the vendor's store is situated he saw the accused step out through the broken window of the store door. He identified the prisoner absolutely. The defence was two fold. First that Phillips gave contradictory reports as to recognizing the person coming out of the store and that his evidence did not deserve credit. Secondly an alibi. Charles Richard, for the defence, testified that he took the prisoner home about two o'clock that morning, in a state of drunkenness in which he could not walk without assistance, and the prisoner's wife gave evidence that she immediately helped the accused to undress, and put him in bed and that he did not leave his bed till about nine o'clock next morning.

Mr. J. J. Johnston, K. C., addressed the jury on behalf of the prisoner and Hon. A. C. Saunders, K. C., Attorney General, ably presented the case for the crown. The Chief Justice briefly addressed the jury who retired at 2:45 and at 5:30 returned with a verdict of not guilty.

While the jury was deliberating in the Sonier Case, the case of the King against Eckhart Wadman was proceeded with and brought to the point where counsel for both sides had addressed the jury. It was then adjourned until this morning. The witnesses for the Crown were Franklin Jamieson and Major Schurman. The former testified that the accused with another had accosted him on the street seizing him by the coat and demanding money. He had felt the outside of his pockets. After trying unsuccessfully to get away Jamieson had promised the accused the money he demanded agreeing to see him the next morning. The accused and the man with him had then walked up to Mr. Surman, who was passing at the time and he gave evidence that the accused demanded money of him. After some conversation Mr. Schurman had walked away. Both of the witnesses stated that the accused was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

WILL VISIT THE ISLAND NEXT MONTH

TORONTO, June 18.—A rousing farewell by heads of the United Church of Canada, representatives of the civic and provincial governments and trade commissioner for the Maritime Provinces, nearly 200 members of the New Outlook Maritime special left Toronto last night on the first stage of their journey which will take them on a good-will tour as far east as Sydney, N. S., and return.

R. W. E. Burnaby, Toronto, trade commissioner for the Maritime Provinces, pointed out that the party was the largest of its kind that had ever visited the Maritimes and would make history "One of the things that this pilgrimage will help is the cementing of national unity," he stated.

Lieut.-Governors of four eastern provinces, have signified their desire to extend an official welcome to the New Outlook Maritime tour.

One of the most important touring parties to visit the Maritime Provinces this year will be the New Outlook party, consisting of about 150 people, mostly residents of Ontario and the Middle West, which is due to arrive in New Brunswick on June 22nd, and remain in the Maritimes until July 5th.

LONG TRIP

The tour which the New Outlook, the official organ of the United Church in Canada, has arranged for this part of Canada this year is organized especially for the Maritime Provinces, and they will travel by special Canadian National train from Toronto through the provinces and return. This special train will enter New Brunswick through the Matapedia Valley, and cross from Newcastle to Fredericton, down the Saint John River, visit Saint John, proceed by motor to St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, and on return to Saint John leave by train for Moncton, with a stop at the Railway City, and then proceeding to Sackville, and from Sackville to Sydney. After visiting Cape Breton they proceed to Halifax, and from the Nova Scotian Capital they go via the South Coast to Yarmouth, and from Yarmouth they proceed through the Annapolis and Cornwallis valleys, and thence via the Midland to Truro. From Truro they will proceed to Charlottetown, and after their Prince Edward Island visit, they return to the mainland and pass out of the Maritimes by way of the North Shore.

The Canadian National radio stations will be used to broadcast programs for their entertainment.

Thursday, July 4, will be spent in Prince Edward Island, where local committees have arranged excellent programs.

BOWMANVILLE, Ont., June 18.—Between 50 and 75 members of a Maple Grove Church who attended an anniversary supper and concert last night had to be treated by three doctors when stricken with a sudden illness. Men and women were stretched out on the lawn in front of the church receiving medical aid it is stated.

It is not expected that serious results will follow the sudden seizures. The illness is said to have been poisoning caused by some of the food eaten.

WESTERN GUARDIAN

—THE ANNUAL MEETING of Kensington High School was held yesterday, Dr. Lockhard in the chair. The following current expenses were voted—$1,000.00. Principal $450.00; Vice Prin; $180.00; first assistant, $155.00; second assistant, $130.00; third assistant, $130.00; fourth assistant, $130.00. New trustee—J. E. Thompson; Auditor, J. A. Ready.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Calbeck have returned from their honeymoon which they spent in different parts of the United States. They will make their home in Bedeque.—S.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Price, have arrived from California to spend a short vacation on the Island which is Mrs. Price's native place, she having formerly belonged to New Annan. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Jamieson, of Summerside.—S.

Three sisters under six were recently registered as voters in Biggleswade, England.

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,

was intoxicated. The prisoner went on the stand in his own defence and testified that on the occasion mentioned he had been drinking rum and was so drunk that he had no recollection whatever of what occurred. The attorney general for the Crown, Mr. E. H. Strong, K. C., for the accused,