The Curran and Briggs baseball club is still marking time and waiting for either New Brunswick or Nova Scotia to complete its intermediate play-offs. As things look now it will be longer than a week before the Island champions get into action again. There are two very deplorable tendencies on the part of sports authorities in the Maritimes, and for all we know, perhaps in other parts of Canada as well. That is to prolong hockey schedules until the play-offs, the most important games of the entire season, have to be played on soft ice where no true test of real hockey ability can be decided, and to prolong baseball schedules until the important games have to be played in weather that is hardly conducive to good playing and that is certainly not congenial for the fans who must shiver and watch these play-off games. Of course, we sometimes get hard natural ice in late March, and we also may get warm, balmy weather in October, but the odds are against such favorable conditions. It seems too bad that play-offs could not be advanced so that these most important of all games could be played in conditions that are closer to the ideal.

Of course we realize there are reasons for prolonging the schedules, one of which is the financial angle. The more games you can crowd into a schedule the more money you will be liable to make if your gate receipts are larger than your travelling and other expenses. That is why the final series are very often expanded into best four-of-seven affairs, too. Even in amateur sports you can't get away from the money angle as it takes a lot of moola to keep a hockey or ball team functioning.

The Charlottetown Knights of Columbus are to be congratulated on their winning of the Island junior baseball title. They were definitely superior to the Summerside boys in the final game and deserved their win. True, there was a bit of a squabble at the end of that game, but we'll have to string along with Poy in his awarding of the game to the Knights. It was the only thing he could do under the circumstances.

That the Summerside team was treated shabbily goes without saying. They went to Charlottetown to play ball at one-thirty and did not get on the field until four. An agreement allegedly made between the Charlottetown junior management and the Old Timers League that the field would be given up to the Island finalists at three o'clock was apparently ignored by the boys playing on the field, and since no one in authority was present at the time, possession seemed to be tenets of the law.

Charlie Ryan and his boys were in no way responsible for this unfortunate circumstance, however, and Charlie was as angry about it as the Summerside boys themselves were. The only sensible thing to do then was to make the best of it and play as close to a complete game as possible, as this would be as fair to one team as the other. We have no quarrel with the Summerside team's insisting on stopping play at 5 p.m., however, as prolonging a game beyond that time on Sunday could have serious repercussions. There is considerable strong feeling

By JACK HAND
 WATERBURY, Conn., Sept. 20 (AP)—Willie Pep, calling his shots like a champion should against an old sparring partner, stopped Eddie Compo of New Haven tonight in 41 seconds of the seventh round in defending his world featherweight crown at Municipal Stadium. Referee Bill Conway halted the uneven contest at the request of Compo's chief second, Goldie Goldfarb.
 The crafty Pep, risking his crown for the first time since he recaptured it from Sandy Saddler last February, was in complete command at all times.
 Most of the crowd which braved the chilly weather to see the best pleated with the referee to stop the contest before he did. Compo, willing and eager but overmatched was floored for nine count twice in the fifth and once in the seventh before the end. A left hook to the jaw dropped Compo, who weighed 124 1/2 to 126 for the champ midway in the fifth heat. He got up to run smack into another furious barrage from Willy Willie. This time a right-hand shot, flush on the "button" sent him sprawling for another nine.
 Willie hitting the kid at will, looked over his shoulder as if to ask the referee if he hadn't seen enough. It was allowed to continue.
 In the sixth Compo's left eye started to close. Willie had almost closed the right eye in the second round. It was obvious that the end was near.
 Pep, the Hartford, Conn., vet, who celebrated his 27th birthday yesterday, came out to put over the finishers in the seventh. The 21-year-old Compo looked weary as he walked slowly from the corner. A left hook dropped him on his back. He rolled over and waited for the count to reach nine, as he got up the referee heeded the shouting from the challenger's corner.
 Goldfarb was waving a towel and yelling that the kid was finished. Referee Conway agreed.
 It was no contest all the way with Pep winning every round on the referee's score card. There are no judges in Connecticut.

OUT OUR WAY

Summerside is deserving of praise too. They put up a much stiffer battle against the Knights than most baseball fans expected they would. Alan Stewart's work on the mound puts him right back among the best junior pitchers on the Island. That he couldn't quite pull off the "iron man" stunt which tempt cannot be charged against him. He made a valiant effort but two full games on successive days is a bit too strenuous for a youngster who still has a year to go in junior ball. The failure of Jack Murphy to put in an appearance as had been expected was the most serious blow to the Summerside team's cause. It was Murphy that turned up, who knows?

What about Winter Driving with the HILLMAN?

READ WHAT A HAPPY COMMUTER HAS TO SAY ABOUT HIS HILLMAN'S PERFORMANCE

"I live on a farm 36 miles outside Toronto," writes Mr. Hockridge, "and it is essential for me to have completely reliable, year-round transportation to and from the city. I made the trip in my Hillman almost every day last winter—and didn't miss a single engagement! Half-a-mile of rutted country lane (which drifts at the slightest whiff of wind) separates my farm from the nearest gravelled road. Yet this grand car took everything in its stride—snow, mud and freezing rain! Thanks to its great-beared engine and extra-low gear, my Hillman carried me in perfect safety and comfort over dirts and ruts that would be a challenge to any car. For many reasons, but especially for its downright dependability—I'm glad I bought a Hillman!"

Thousands—yes, thousands—of motorists in Canada and the U.S.A. are enjoying the comfort, economy and world-famous driving qualities of the Hillman. For their convenience, a permanent network of dealers provides parts and service from coast to coast in both countries. Arrange now for a Hillman demonstration ride—you'll be glad you did!
