THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Manager, and in Souris, M. S. Acorn, Manager

The latest news first of all.

George Wright, a well known farmer of Lower Montague had three of his ribs broken recently by a fall from the stable loft.

A subscriber from the eastern part of the Province thinks that enough praise has not been given to the designer and foreman, Milton McLaren, who so faithfully superintended the construction of the new church at Greenwich. He says great praise is due the congregation, the work in the building both outside and inside but great praise is due the designer and the more so that he donated a beautiful oak pulpit trimmed with mahogany.

What might have culminated in a very serious accident was providentially averted at the railway wharf at Georgetown on Friday, January 29th. As a team belonging to W. W. Jenkins, driven by his son, Fred, accompanied by their hired man, was coming up the wharf after delivering supplies to the steamer Minto, the horse took fright at the shouting engine, which was on the track, became unmanageable and leaped over the wharf, taking the driver with him. Luckily for both horse and driver, the tide was low at the time, or else the Patriot might have to chronicle another drowning accident. The space between the track and the side of the wharf is very narrow, and if the engine is on the track it is difficult to pass with a spirited horse. There should be a rail on this wharf, not a temporary affair, but a strong, and substantial one. As this is the third or fourth horse that has gone over this wharf within the last three years, it is about time something was done to insure the safety of life and property.—Pat.

A grand social and entertainment will be held in St. Margaret's Hall on Tuesday, Feb. 9th. 2-2dril.

While Percy Manuel of Georgetown was driving on the ice last week, his horse in stepping into a hole near the Ferry Wharf, on the Georgetown side, had its leg broken. The animal was mercifully shot shortly afterwards.

VICTORIA DIVISION CLOSURES ITS DEBATE

The meeting of Victoria Division S. O. T. City, held last evening had quite a variety of business. After the initiation of two candidates, it was decided to pay a fraternal visit to Heather Division, Long Creek, on Friday next. Teams will assemble at Worth's Stables and leave at 6.30. Visiting members were present from Prince Edward Division, City, and Carnegie Division, Bradablene. The debate on woman suffrage was closed with two excellent addresses by Bro. Dorman, opposing the franchise and Bro. Lowe for it. On a vote being taken it was found that the Woman Suffrage lost the day by two votes. An illustrated copy of the Toronto Globe was received by the Deputy containing an account of the great temperance victory in the City of Toronto. Large caravans are shown parading the streets on election day bearing the words "Vote for U.S." in one of the caravans the families of Bro. Solomon Thompson is noticed formerly of Victoria Division of this City. All the caravans are filled by friends of temperance.

ISLAND MEMBERS AT OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Feb. 1.—Messrs. Warburton, Prowse and Richards waited on the Department of Marine and Fisheries respecting the tie-up of the mail service to Prince Edward Island.

Instructions were at once given to start the iceboat service between the Capes. This goes into effect at once.

They also saw the Postmaster General and got that Department to give instructions to Postmaster Wear to adopt the Capes route and continue the service there until all risk of delay on the Pictou-Georgetown route is over.

SUMMERSIDE BOARD OF TRADE

The adjourned annual meeting of the Summerside Board of Trade, was held in the Council Chamber, Summerside, last night, the President William Stewart in the chair and a large number of members present. Dr. McLellan presented the report of the committee appointed at last meeting to re-organize the Summerside Post Office. The report suggested, that instead of moving back the main partition as at first suggested that the south section of boxes be placed at right angles to the delivery wicket, thus giving larger corridor room. The report was discussed at some length by Major Schurman, A. E. Schurman and others, and upon motion was received and adopted. Major Schurman was added to the present committee to arrange for the proposed changes. The report on the Vice President's address was next taken up and generally discussed. The motion made at the last meeting re the union of the Island Boards was put and carried, and a committee consisting of Neil McLeod, Dr. A. A. McLellan and the secretary were appointed to take up this matter of the union of the Island Boards, with the committees of the other Boards of Trade on the Island. Dr. McLellan suggested that the Board take steps towards having an all night telephone service at Summerside, and he believed that if the telephone Co. were approached in the proper way about the matter that they would accede to the request as it would doubtless mean an extension of business. After considerable discussion, Dr. McLellan moved a resolution that a committee be appointed to take up the matter of an all night service with the Telephone Co. The motion was carried and the following committee appointed, Dr. A. A. McLellan, Neil McLeod and Major Schurman.

Neil McLeod moved a resolution asking the Legislature not to repeal or amend the Automobile Act. This resolution was discussed at considerable length by a number of the members of the Board, but owing to the lateness of the hour the resolution was laid over for further discussion at the next meeting.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

The regular meeting of the City School Board was held last evening at seven thirty. The teachers' reports for the past month showed the enrollment to be 1073—the average attendance 901, the percentage 83. There were 281 cases of tardiness, 2 cases of truancy and eight cases of corporal punishment. The teachers made 145 visits to parents and sent 55 notices. Forty five requests were made to leave school before the hour of closing and 33 fell below average for grading. Provision was made to give certificates to teachers who qualified for drawing. Estimates for the current year were considered and the adjustment of salaries decided upon. The matter of Medical Inspection in the following resolution was unanimously agreed to:—Resolved—that in view of information possessed by the Board with regard to the Sanitary

'LIVE LIKE JESUS' MOVEMENT TO SPREAD

CLEVELAND, Jan. 30.—In every emotional language told of the way in which their efforts during the past two weeks to live like Jesus had brightened and ennobled their lives. "Cleveland is sweeter since the movement began," testified Vice-President Melhing of the Epworth League, and all who spoke declared the project to have been a success. "WHAT WOULD JESUS DO?" To remind Christians that they should live as they think Christ would live in their place, cards were distributed to be signed at home, reading: "What would Jesus do? In the quietness of my communion with Almighty God I do solemnly reaffirm all previous covenants made with my Savior, and will conscientiously endeavor to live and act as He would have me in my place. I will also endeavor to interpret His will from a careful study of God's word and the teachings of the Holy Spirit." When Mr. Wallace asked for a sign nearly every person in the church which was passed to the doors, raised a hand. Chairman W. D. Price, of the committee through the world, has received letters from leaders in church work throughout the United States expressing interest in and a desire to forward the movement. "You have none of you attained perfection during the last two weeks, but you will have better efficiency as the movement continues," said Mr. Price at today's meeting. "Thousands have lived purer and nobler lives. That in itself is an answer to any criticism that might be made for isn't anything that tends to raise the moral standard a good? Haven't you found Cleveland a better place to live in?" "Let it be clear that we have not been putting Christianity on trial during the past two weeks. We have put on trial the concrete question of what Jesus would do. We have found that the movement is helpful, and we are ready to consider ways of assuring its permanency." Rev. Charles W. Sheldon, of Topeka, Kas., author of "In His Steps," the book which inspired the Cleveland movement, wrote a letter of encouragement to Mr. Price, and it was read at the meeting, in part as follows:—

BETTER PLACE TO LIVE IN. "You have none of you attained perfection during the last two weeks, but you will have better efficiency as the movement continues," said Mr. Price at today's meeting. "Thousands have lived purer and nobler lives. That in itself is an answer to any criticism that might be made for isn't anything that tends to raise the moral standard a good? SHELDON'S LETTER. "Will you please say to the young people I am very much interested to know the result of this experiment, which should pass into a daily habit for life. If this should become the habit of all the Christians in the country, old and young, it would revolutionize business and politics and amusements and turn things upside down generally. We must not forget that the first Christians were characterized as men who turned the world upside down. They found it very much topsy-turvy, and their turning it upside down made it right side up. I believe that it is the business of Christians in the world yet to turn things upside down so that they are right side up."

WHAT GROCER SAID. John Jordan, a grocer told the meeting:—"It has been a great blessing to me during the past two weeks. These two weeks have been the happiest in twenty-seven years of serving Christ. In weighing goods, in serving a customer, I have asked myself "What would Jesus do?" It has not failed me." "The endeavor pledge has become nearer and dearer to me every day I live," said Miss Mabel McKenzie, stenographer, of the Fidelity Free Baptist Church. "I have not to know more about the bible to know what Jesus would do," declared one man. "I must know my orders to obey them."

NEWS FROM FARAWAY PROVINCIALISTS

Written Especially for The Guardian by L. S. Woodside Formerly of Summerside.

Seattle With its 275,000 population during the summer of 1908 was very is situated on the Puget Sound with one of the finest harbors in the world and facilities for shipping surpassed by none. Her rapid increasing trade and other islands of the coast, with her direct and increasing trade with Alaska will be so increased that in the very near future she may well be styled the New York of the Golden West. Tacoma, with her 150,000 population to the south of us some thirty miles may be reached by steam or electric cars, the latter every hour, or by steamers down the Sound. These two beautiful steamers make eight round trips daily at the expense of fifty cents per round trip. This makes one of the most pleasant excursions the writer ever had the pleasure to enjoy. From here we have boats to Victoria at fifty cents per round trip and to Vancouver, B. C., for one dollar the distance being some one hundred and seventy-five miles. These boats call at several towns on their way going and returning, giving the citizens of those different towns the accommodation, which Seattle benefits through their trade and the travelling public. I might here say that the passenger accommodation on all these boats are on the Seattle style, up to date and A. I.

Coming into Seattle by night, once seen never forgotten. To the north we view Queen Anne which gradually rises from the Sound to several hundred feet above sea level. The city is bright electric lights and the many fine resident homes illuminated as they are makes this view very impressive. What I say of Queen Anne, can be said of south or west Seattle with her Luna Park, which is reached sea level with her many magnificent buildings towering ten to fourteen stories high all beautifully lighted up makes a very imposing scene. From Capital Hill (one of the best residence districts) we can view the city and out to the east we view Seattle proper also rising several hundred feet above sea level. Also eighty miles further west the Sound with her many steamers we see the Olympic Mountains with their white caps the year round, turn to the east we also view the snow-capped Cascade Mountains which run up into Canada. We must not forget to mention Mt. Rainier some thirty miles high, two miles of which is perpetually covered in snow. The first time the writer came to the decided he would take a walk over to it but on enquiring the distance (sixty miles) he decided otherwise.

In Seattle proper, we have Lake Union, Green Lake, Washington Lake, the latter thirty miles long and ten miles wide, the two other lakes are much smaller but still large enough to have many valuable steam pleasure yachts. These lakes are of fresh water and said to be above sea level.

Around these lakes is considered ideal resident districts therefore many of our most beautiful homes are to be found located in those districts.

This places Seattle in the foremost rank as the city with Nature's most beautiful scenery.

Regarding the climate a person should live in a place for a few years before they are able to give an opinion on that, all I can say that

WHAT IS THERE IN IT FOR ME? The saloon-keepers all may be very nice men, But what is there in it for me? I blow in my money and wake in the pen, So what is there in it for me? Of course I'm as welcome as flowers in May When I come to the joint to squander my pay, But I wake in the cooler the very next day; And that's all there's in it for me. My thirst costs me more than my clothes and my food, The barman gets paid—he's always on deck— But whatever I get, I get in the neck— And that's all there's in it for me. The booze took my money and did me no good, And that's all there's in it for me. The brewer is rich, he has gold by the peck, And that's all there's in it for me. Why should I vote that the curse may endure? For what is there in it for me? I'm bound to vote "dry" on election day sure, For what is there in it for me? Why, new self-respect and a chance for my life. New clothes for the kids and a home for my wife, The beginning of peace and the end of all strife— And that's what there's in it for me.
