HELD CHANCERY COURT—Mr. Justice A. C. Saunders was a passenger on the express for Charlottetown on Monday from Summerside, where he had been for a few days holding session of the Chancery Court.

MR. LEAS' RECOVERY—Though unavoidably delayed at the opening of the Legislature yesterday, Mr. W. M. Lea, leader of the Opposition, was able to be present before the House adjourned. His recovery from a severe cold is a matter of satisfaction to members of both parties.

LEAVES FOR OTTAWA—Mr. B. W. Robinson of Summerside left yesterday morning for Ottawa where he will attend the fifth Dominion Convention of the Canadian Legion, which is being held on the 12 inst. Mr. Robinson will represent the Summerside Branch of the Legion.

WEDNESDAY There passed away on Tuesday morning, February 13th, Annie Margaret Power, at the early age of 19 years, daughter of John T. Power and the late Mrs. Power of Tracadie, Cross, leaving a heart broken father, three brothers and one sister, Florence, William, Edward and Reginald all at home.

Signs of Spring—A Park Terrace resident picked up a nice big woolly caterpillar on the sidewalk yesterday and the day following noticed a flock of black birds flying busily around. Looks like an early spring!

Hon. Herring Strong, K. C., the newly elected Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, comes of a family which is intimately associated with the political life of the Province. He is a son of Mr. C. Edward Strong, merchant, Summerside, and a grandson of the Hon. W. G. Strong, who was elected to the Legislative Council in 1862 and was a member of that body for eight years, during three of which he was leader of the then Conservative Government in that chamber.

Mr. Speaker Strong's great grandfather was the Rev. J. B. Strong of Bingham, Nottinghamshire, England, who in 1813 was sent out to Lower Canada by the British Wesleyan Conference. Among Rev. Mr. Strong's charges in Prince Edward Island was the present Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, he being one of the early ministers of the Methodist church in the Colony.

The present Speaker was born at Summerside on Aug. 21, 1882. He was admitted to the Bar in 1907 and appointed a K. C. in 1924. Elected as representative of the Fourth District of Prince at the general provincial elections of 1931. Hon. Mr. Strong is known as a forceful debater and proved an exceptionally able committee chairman and Deputy Speaker. In his personal and professional capacity it is predicted he will be equally successful.

It is interesting to note that at yesterday's legislative opening the early career of the Speaker, Lieut. Col. E. H. Strong, M. C., V. C., officer in command of the Prince Edward Island Light Horse was also present in an official capacity.

Witnessed by an exceptionally large number of citizens of both sexes, the third session of the 22nd General Legislative Assembly of the Province was opened yesterday afternoon by His Honour Lieutenant Governor DeLois. The function was marked by the time-honored ceremonial and military display, and attracted unusual interest and attention.

Preceding His Honour's call to the Provincial Building from Government House were two official cars with the Sergeant at Arms, and Major J. R. Paton, M. C., V. C., Major W. J. MacDonald, V. C., and Campbell Smith, A. D. C.'s and Mr. M. Alban Farmer, B. A., LL. B., Private Secretary.

Accompanying His Honour the Lieutenant Governor were Brigadier H. F. Hertzberg, C. M. G., D. S. O., Capt. James Coles, M. C., M. C. S. O., District Officer Commanding Military District No. 6 Halifax and Lieutenant Col. G. E. Pull, V. D., A. D. C.

The route was from Government House along Kent Street, Queen and Richmond Streets to the Provincial Building.

On arrival His Honour was received by a group of officers representing the military units in the Province.

The Guard of Honour was composed of "A" Company P. E. I. High and Regiment in command of Major T. B. Rogers, V. D., and Lieutenant J. Campbell and W. Reid. The company was headed by the pipe band of the P. E. I. Highlanders.

The mounted escort drawn from the P. E. I. Island Light Horse was in command of Lieut. W. E. Hyndman with Lieut. W. E. Spillett.

An interesting innovation this year was the color guard carrying the King's colours, unused. The A. Reginald Saunders, son of Mr. Justice Saunders, with two N. C. O.'s guard was under command of Lieut. and two from other ranks from the Highlanders.

As His Honour Lieut. Governor DeLois entered the Parliament Building a salute was fired from No. 2 Medium Battery in command of Major Geo. Craig with Lieut. Russell Spillett and fifteen other ranks.

There passed away at Victoria on Feb. 12, 1894, after a lingering illness, Mr. James Waddell, aged 78 years.

RECEIVES CONGRATULATIONS—Mr. Wm. W. Leas, newly elected Mayor of Summerside, has received many letters and telegrams of congratulation on his election. Among them were letters from Hon. W. J. P. MacMillan, Premier of Prince Edward Island, Mayor Kennedy of Charlottetown, Mr. A. E. McLean, M. P., and leading citizens from St. John and Montreal, N. B., Pielou, N. S., and other points in the Maritimes.

DEATH OF MR. JOSEPH DESROCHES OF MISCOUCHE—The death occurred on Sunday at his home in Miscoche of Mr. Joseph B. DesRoches at 75 years of age. Mr. DesRoches was a life long resident of the village and was most highly esteemed. He leaves to mourn three brothers, Eli and John in Miscoche and Napoleon residing in the United States; two sisters, Mrs. Isaac Perry of St. Nicholas and Miss Ursula who resided with her brother, and to whom sympathy is extended. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning from his late residence to St. John's Baptist Church, Miscoche, Rev. Martin Monaghan, D. D., celebrating the Requiem Mass. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church grounds.

VALUABLE FOX PELTS—Mr. Larry C. Bowness, Kensington market, through the Canadian National Express, has sold a pair of the best one mottled fox pelts, the whole lot averaged $70. This is a satisfactory record.

SURVIVING FAMILY—In naming the family of the late Mrs. Mary A. Hughes of Charlottetown the names of her two brothers, Mr. Michael A. Bacon and Mr. Louis Harney of Massachusetts and her son, Fred MacDonald of Mt. Stewart were omitted.

SOUVENIRS PRESENTED—The members of the rifle team of the P. E. I. Highlanders were recipients last evening of a pleasing surprise and a presentation made at the Army and Navy dinner. The award was made by Brigadier Hertzberg, C. M. G., D. S. O., M. G. of Halifax, who presented each member of the team with a framed photograph of the way they won at the Dominion Rifle Shoot last summer. The team was congratulated on their victory which was made in the face of the heaviest competition. Five out of eight members of the team which won the Jubilee Cup for Mr. D. No. 6 were also from this province. The following are the members of the team which won the shield: Capt. Willie Allen, M. G., Capt. James Coles, M. C., M. C. S. O., District Officer Commanding Military District No. 6 Halifax and Lieutenant Col. G. E. Pull, V. D., A. D. C.

There was only one change in the Directorate, Mr. Edwin Reid, Rollo Bay was elected in the place of Mr. J. A. E. MacDonald, Little Pond.

Mr. J. A. E. MacDonald, Little Pond, was elected as President. Criticism was mainly directed at the difference in price between what the Association was paying for eggs, and what was being paid by independent dealers. Several of the delegates leveled their attacks at the overhead being carried by the Association which it was said had not been reduced in keeping with the decrease in the quantity of eggs handled.

However the benefit of the organization in holding up prices was evident and approval was expressed. If all the farmers would sell their eggs only through the Association there would be an end to present difficulties.

FRIDAY LIBRARY MEETING—A meeting of the general committee of the Summerside Carnegie Public Library was held on Wednesday afternoon, Miss Hunt presiding. Matters of general interest were discussed, and reports received. Miss Ramsay in her report stated that the library now had 1,200 reading members, which is a tremendous increase over the old library, which had one hundred reading members. An effort is being made to increase the number of books to meet the demand of the reading public.

At the annual meeting of the Sheep Breeders' Association held yesterday morning the reports of business done during the past year were very optimistic.

An increase of about forty per cent in the price of wool was reported, and 80,000 more lambs were marketed. A considerable increase in the consumption of lamb was indicated.

Mr. W. H. MacGregor, Vice President, presided over the meeting. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mr. J. W. Boulter. Mr. J. W. Boulter read the following report on the marketing of wool during the past year.

Mothers, Mix This At Home for a Bad Cough Needs No Cooking! Big Savings!

You'll be pleasantly surprised when you make up this simple home mixture and try it for a distressing cough. It's no trouble to mix, and costs but a trifle, yet it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water for a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any drugist, put it into a 16 oz. bottle, and fill up with your sugar syrup. The 16 ounces thus made gives you four times as much cough remedy for your money, yet it is far more effective than ready-made medicine. Keeps perfectly and lasts fine.

This simple remedy has a remarkable three-fold action. It soothes and begins the inflamed membrane, loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and clears the air passages by means of its penetrating action, and lets you get restful sleep. Pinex is a compound of Norway Pine, in concentrated form, impregnated with a healing agent for throat membranes. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.
