GIVES BRIEF ADDRESS.—Hon. A. E. Arsenault was in Esmond Bay last week, consulting the different conservative committees. At Abram's Village a fair crowd had assembled to greet him, and he was persuaded to give them a few remarks on the present administration. His speech though short was very explicit and convincing. He highly outlined the failure that had attended the Liberal regime during their long stay in office and contrasted it with the present successful administration. He dwelt also on the betterment of the schools and increased salaries. In conclusion he said if anyone had questioned to ask, he would answer them to the best of his knowledge.

Mgr. Burke, who was its first president in this part of the American Continent. Incidentally he explained the high character of the honor that had been conferred on Dr. Burke by the Holy Father, which the speaker declared was entirely unlooked for and was given solely for meritorious services. Citizens were shocked and saddened yesterday afternoon on learning of the death of Mr. J. H. Reddin which occurred in the City Hospital, following an operation. Mr. Reddin had been in his usual health until a few days ago when he felt slightly indisposed. Saturday afternoon on the advice of his physician he went to the City Hospital for treatment. The operation was performed but the patient succumbed while on the operating table.

Dr. McLellan preached the funeral sermon, paying a high tribute to the deceased as a member of the Judiciary and as a citizen, referring especially to the good he rendered the church since the twenty-five years or more that he was organist and choir-master. LAYS CORNER STONE.—The Moncton Times says. The laying of the corner stone of the Central Methodist Church Thursday afternoon was a most interesting and impressive ceremony. There was a large number of people present to witness the proceedings, which were carried out without a hitch. Rev. Mr. Opie, of Albert, President of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Methodist Conference, laid the corner stone in the absence of Lieut-Governor Josiah Wood, of Sackville, who was taken suddenly ill yesterday morning and was unable to be present. Rev. Mr. Opie was then called upon to lay the corner stone, and this task he did most acceptably and with due formality, the stone being declared "well and truly laid." He used a handsome silver trowel which was presented to him and on which was the following inscription: Presented to Rev. Richard Opie, Methodist Conference on the occasion of laying the corner stone of the Central Methodist Church, Moncton, N. B., August 26, 1915.

ISLAND CLERGYMEN LEAVE.—Those two bright island clergymen, Rev. Mgr. Burke and Rev. Dr. Kelley, leave Charlottetown this morning, the former on his way to the war zone, and the latter en route to Rome on business connected with the Church extension movement in the United States. Mgr. Burke has been appointed superintendent of Catholic chaplains with the Canadian overseas forces, and has been given the military rank of major. Rev. Dr. Kelley, it may be added, saw active service during the Spanish-American war, having been chaplain to one of Uncle Sam's regiments. At that time he was parish priest in LesPeer, Mich. During his stay in the city, Rev. Mgr. Burke, who was one of the charter members of Charlottetown Council, Knights of Columbus, was given a reception in the Club Rooms at an open meeting of the order. The attendees were large and addresses highly complimentary to the distinguished guest were given by his lordship the Bishop, Rev. Dr. Kelley, Rev. Maurice McDonald, Chas. G. Duffy, Dr. W. J. McMillan, Lieut. Temple McDonald, Alex McDonald and other members of the order. Mgr. Burke, in the course of an able address feelingly acknowledged the honour done him.

NARROW ESCAPE.—When Mr. Leturgy, son-in-law of Mr. Stanford Gay, of Summerside, was returning from a boating expedition on Darnley Basin, a few days ago he lost his balance and in some way fell from the boat into the water. The boat was travelling at a fast rate and before it could return he was almost exhausted. However with the aid of bathooks and fish-gaffs they managed to haul him on board more dead than alive.—D.

THE LATE MRS. WORRELL.—Halifax Recorder:—A throng of loving and sorrowing friends and acquaintances, crowded All Saints' Cathedral to the doors for the funeral of Mrs. Worrell, wife of His Grace the Most Reverend the Archbishop of Nova Scotia, which took place on Thursday. The officiating clergyman was Very Rev. Dean Llwlyd, who arrived home from Huntsville, Ont., in order to be present. The service was very impressive and the grief evidenced on all sides bore testimony to the very deep affection Mrs. Worrell had won from all sorts and conditions of those with whom she came in contact. A very deep loss will be felt in both social and church circles. Her daughter, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, of Toronto, and her son, Mr. Frank Worrell, manager of the Bank of Commerce, Shelburne, N.S., are staying here. Rev. and Mrs. Foster have been spending the summer in town. Mrs. Worrell's sister, Mrs. Gilmore, of Montreal, is also here.
