VICTORIAN ERA

MANY of the masterpieces of literature were born in the Victorian Era. Poets, novelists, essayists, historians received their just recognition during the reign of Victoria, of glorious memory. And we, with our modern conveniences, must admire these writers the more for the difficulties they had to overcome.

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen

It is stated that D'Annunzio, before quitting Fiume, got the local authorities to grant him a sentence of divorce from his wife, the Duchess Maria di Gallese, and that the new marriage was quietly celebrated in a small town within the Swiss border.

(Fifteen years ago D'Annunzio was reported to be seeking a divorce from the Duchess, with whom he had not lived for some years, in order to marry the young Marchese Carliotti, widowed daughter of a former Premier of Italy.

Divorce is not recognized by the Government of Italy, so he proposed acquiring Swiss nationality for the purpose, but the Swiss Government refused to concede him the preliminary. He is now at least 60 years of age, though the date of his birth has been given as 1863.

—LEAVE IT TO THE "KID-DIES."—Harry Jenkins, representing the Brighton Ice Cream interests, motored to Summerside on Saturday and gave joy to several scores of kiddies by providing a free treat of ice cream at Gallant's Drug Store, Water Street. The youngsters certainly enjoyed the treat and by changing sweaters and caps, managed to get about six ice cream cones before their ingenuity was discovered.

—ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.—The concert and pie social held in Borden Hall Monday evening, the 16th inst., in aid of St. Paul's Church, Seven Mile Bay was a big success. The popular Pastor Rev. A. J. McIntyre presided and a splendid programme was rendered, comprising piano selections by Miss McLean of Summerside, vocal solos by Miss LeBlanc, recitations and songs by little Misses MacDonald and McAllister of Borden, who made a great hit with the audience and Mr. Chas. McDonald of Borden contributed two numbers. The comedy skits in standard attire played were splendid. These taking part were Mr. Dan Newman, Mr. Bernard Connolly, Mr. John Nolan and Misses Emma and Ethel Green. We have to see this same capable cast with some more additions appear again ere long. Mr. W. Scantlebury's club and acrobatic work were skillfully performed. Mr. Romart appeared in songs and recitations. The pies were auctioned by Mr. Chas. McDonald, the popular Customs officer at Borden. The bidding was lively and a snug amount was realized which goes to help defray the cost of repairs to the Parochial House at Seven Mile Bay. To those who were kind enough to help out in various ways a hearty vote of thanks was tendered.

—SHOULD BE CAREFUL.—"What are you going to do about that sheep your car killed today," was the question hurled over the telephone at a Summerside business man at a time when his mind was as far removed from sheep as it possibly could be. After some investigation, it was shown that a sheep had been killed by a motorist on the Shearbrooke road shortly before another car driven by some members of the family of the Summerside man passed that way. The Summerside business man was cleared of blame, but the sheep owner is still looking for the culprit.

Manitoba Man Says the Pain is Nearly All Gone and That Dodd's Kidney Pills Worked Wonders For Him

—NICE STAGED DRAMA.—On Tuesday, May 10th the Wide Awakes of the Central Bedeque Young Peoples Society staged the four act drama, "Home Pies" in the Central Bedeque Hall. Long before the curtain rose the hall was packed to the doors. Not only were the seats filled but the aisles as well. The play was well staged and very successfully carried through. Following is a cast of characters: Martin Winn—with memories of the past—A. E. Wright, Ralph Everett—Son of the Soil—Gordon MacCallum, Josiah Tezzard—An Umbrella Mender—Haddon Dawson, Harold Vincent—From New York—Louis Pearson, Ruth Winn—Martin's Daughter—Bertha Wright, Alma Wayne—Ruth's College Chum—Amy Linkletter, Aunt Melissa—Martin's Sister—Mildred Callbeck, Mrs. Poplin—A Widow With Symptoms—Hil Hooper, Lindy Jane—Who Helps Around—Helen MacKay, Martin Winn played his part with genuine seriousness, Aunt Melissa adapted herself splendidly to her role, Harold Vincent, the New York "Dude" won feminine admiration while Alma Wayne also from New York certainly made an impression on the country boys. Although the beginning looked dark for Ralph Everett the hero, finally he won the affections of Ruth Winn the heroine. Lindy Jane kept the household running smoothly. Josiah Tezzard took the role of an old umbrella mender, proved beyond a doubt that there is nothing like perseverance in winning the affections of a widow such as Mrs. Poplin represented. The specialties between the acts were repeatedly enjoyed and consisted of: To Mr. William Waite and Gordon MacCallum, whistling, Edward Runcie. The proceeds amounting to one hundred and ten dollars are in aid of the Protestant Orphanage. This play was a credit to the young people of Bedeque as the characters were taken more as profession as rather than amateurs.

NEWDALE, Man., May 23.—(Special) That even the most chronic case of kidney disease and rheumatism can be benefited by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills is the belief of Mr. W. J. Hampton, a well-known resident here. "Dodd's Kidney Pills certainly worked wonders for me," Mr. Hampton states. "My kidneys were so bad at times that I could not work and I was also a sufferer from rheumatism. Mine was a chronic case of thirty years' standing. Now the pain is nearly all gone and I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble." Rheumatism is one of the effects of kidney trouble. The weakened kidneys fail to strain the uric acid out of the blood and rheumatism follows. Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the best remedy for weak or diseased kidneys.

COBLENTZ, May 19.—The pay of a second-lieutenant in the American army on the Rhine is equivalent at present rate of exchange, to that of Marshal Foch. This may explain in part why the American army of 15,000 men costs Germany more than 80,000 troops in the Mayence zone. It accounts also for the exaggerated statement from German sources that America's fighting force cost Germany more than all the Allied armies of occupation. Marshal Foch's salary is 33,000 francs. A second-lieutenant in the American Forces in Germany receives $2,120 a year which extra allowances brings up to about $2,330. At the rate of exchange of 14 francs and a half to the dollar, the second-lieutenant draws about 23,350 francs a year. The buck private receives $36 a month; a corporal $51.80; a sergeant $63; and a technical sergeant $74.20. The French poilu at Mayence has to be content with 75 centimes a day; a corporal received 90 centime and a sergeant two francs.

MILAN, May 23.—It is reported by the Rome newspaper "Epoca" that Gabriel D'Annunzio was wedded to the young pianist, Louisa Baccara, who kept him company throughout his dictatorship of Fiume to the end of the siege. She is the daughter of an ex-colonel of Bersaglieri, and is affectionately known among the soldiers as "The Little Venetian of Santo Stefano," the parish wherein she was born.

Several thousand dollars is the amount that it is roughly estimated that the Scotch quartette was instrumental in raising during the war for patriotic and philanthropic purposes. These well known vocalists supported by other talent gave freely of their time during the bellicose days. They did their bit, as true patriots. No call was unheeded. They chased the gloom away. "Après la guerre," as the boys used to say, they decided that a long leave of absence was due. To a certain extent being war weary they forsook the footlights. During the last year they have had many calls to report for duty. From many quarters there has been a request for more of the fine old Scotch stuff. As a result Mr. Vallance has re-organized. The Lauder Scotch party has been the outcome of the renaissance. The company, that has such an excellent war record will appear at the Prince Edward Theatre on Tuesday the 24th, afternoon and evening—equally a splendid attraction for a patriotic holiday. Seats now on sale.
