A Friend to the Aged As the Years Creep On

In the later years of life we start to lose that snap and vigor of our younger days. The blood does not circulate as it once did, the vitality is on the wane, and the nerves not just as steady as they used to be.

Little sicknesses and ailments seem harder to shake off; and evidences of a breakdown begin to appear. Those who wish to maintain their health and vigor and retain their energy should use Milburn's Health Nerve Pills at this time of life.

Kensington And Vicinity

Senator Sinclair, Summerside, and Dr. I. W. Jardine, Kensington, were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. Henry Jamieson, Summerside, was in Kensington Tuesday on business.

Miss Gertrude Gillis, Prince of Wales student, left last week to resume her studies after spending the holidays at her home in Kensington.

Mrs. John MacGregor, Graham's Road, attended the funeral of Mrs. William Mose at New Annan on Saturday, and spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Mose, Kensington.

The many friends of Mr. Bert Kelly, Kensington, regret to hear that he is confined to his home, suffering from a fractured arm.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church, Kensington, was held on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 7th, with Mrs. Hammond Toombs leading the devotional period. The opening hymn "Thy Kingdom Come" was followed by prayer, the theme being "Jesus the friend of women and children." After scripture reading the devotional leaflet was read by Mrs. Donald MacKenzie. Thoughts on scripture reading were given by Mrs. H. Toombs, which was followed by a season of prayer. The new officers for the ensuing year were then installed. Mrs. Everett Glover presiding during the installation service and Mrs. (Rev.) G. Somers making the dedicatory prayer, concluding with the hymn "Breathe On Me, Breath of God." A solo, sweetly sung by Mrs. W. George Simpson, was followed by the offering. The minutes were read and business proceeded with. The treasurer's report was read; delegates to the Presbyterian were appointed; subscriptions to the Missionary Monthly were passed on, etc. Meeting closed with the hymn, "Take Up Thy Cross, the Saviour Said," and the benediction. Following are new officers for the year 1937: president, Mrs. Hammond Toombs; 1st vice president, Mrs. W. C. MacLeod; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Chas. E. P. Taylor; recording secretary, Mrs. W. P. Taylor; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Lockhart; treasurer, Mrs. Thomas Stewart; Christian Stewardship secretary, Mrs. Donald MacKenzie; Mission Band sup't., Mrs. B. C. Salter; temperance secy., Mrs. W. G. Simpson; Associate Helpers, Mrs. Harold Laird; strangers secy., Mrs. Horace Glover; Missionary Monthly secy., Mrs. Russel McKay; envelope secy., Miss Edna MacMurdo; supply secy., Mrs. Evans Inglis; press secy., Mrs. Walker; organist, Mrs. Russel McKay.

Week of Prayer services are being held this week in Kensington, beginning Wednesday in the Presbyterian Church, Thursday in the United Church and Friday in the Church of England.

The many friends of Mr. W. F. Taylor are pleased to see him out around again, after being confined to his home through illness.

Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, B.A., who for the past four years has been practicing law in Kensington has moved into Summerside and opened an office on Water street.

The many friends of Mrs. Preston Kennedy, Kensington, are very sorry to hear that while out walking, she slipped on a bit of ice and fell, fracturing her right arm just above the wrist. The accident occurred early Tuesday evening, and she was immediately taken to the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, for treatment. We are glad to report she is at home again and resting comfortably.

Mention has been made before of the number of new buildings erected and new business places opened up, in the town of Kensington during the past year of 1936. But of all the enterprises started, none gives greater satisfaction to the citizens of the town and surrounding country, than the new bakery. This building is situated on Main Street at the rear of the McPherson building, and is fitted with all modern up-to-date equipment. To be able to procure bread and other delicacies, fresh and hot from the oven, at any time, especially during the winter months, fills the heart of the housewife and those depending on her, with gratification and contentment. Mr. Gilbert Caldwell, the proprietor, is a Scotchman who nine years ago came to this country from "bonny Scotland." Both Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell are natives of Paisley, a town of some 85,000 inhabitants, situated some seven miles distant from Glasgow.

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 13, a united Week of Prayer service was held in the Presbyterian Church at Kensington, with a large number in attendance. Rev. W. O. Rhoad, pastor of the church presiding and expressed gratification at seeing so many present, showing the deep interest being taken in spiritual things. Rev. B. Freeman of the Anglican Church read the scripture lesson and offered prayer. Rev. B. C. Salter of the United Church gave the address, taking for his subject "The Lord's Prayer." One of the Disciples asked Jesus: "Lord, teach us how to pray." They were given what is called the "Lord's Prayer," used down through the ages by all people who profess to be His followers. As the flag is to the Empire, binding all together, so the Lord's Prayer unites and binds all Christians, of whatever creed, together, under the great King who taught us when we pray to say "Our Father." Mr. Salter called attention to the fact that there is one petition in this prayer for bread, to six petitions for spiritual needs, showing that it is right to look to God and ask for our material needs, but much more important to look to God and ask for spiritual graces. What the world needs today is, not so much bread to feed the hungry, but the things that Jesus stood for, unselfishness, charity, and the grace of God in our hearts, and having this, the "pearl of great price," all the other, material things, will be added. Meeting closed with the hymn, "I Need Thee Every Hour, Most Gracious Lord," and the benediction. B

On Tuesday, Jan. 12th the Kensington Aces defeated the Cape Traverse Blood Hound by a score of 3-1. The teams appeared to be very evenly matched, but Kensington seemed to get the "breaks". The work of Joe Ready and Arnold Taylor was outstanding for the Aces.

The fastest and hardest fought game of the present series took place on Jan. 14th between Spring Valley and the Aces. Spring Valley set a fast pace from the starting whistle. The cumulative effect of the energy and strategy of each individual player seemed to overpower the Aces. They never seemed to be able to get started properly. The fine rushes of Ready and Tuplin were rendered null and void by phalanxes of the enemy closing in on them. "Ginger" McQuarrie in the nets for the Aces, in turning back the Spring Valley barrage and exhortations to his team mate; was the busiest man in Prince County. The game ended 4-0 for Spring Valley.

Referees Darrach and Howatt handled the game well.

Lineups:—
Spring Valley: Goal, Weston Campbell; defence, Harold Champion, Robert Craig; forwards, Walter Duggan, Roland Champion, Fred Proffit, Ivan Darrach, Chester Champion.
Kensington Aces: Goal, G. McQuarrie; defence, Fred Semple and Basil Tuplin; forwards, Joe Ready, G. Whitlock, Art Larkin, Keith Hardy, J. Condon, Eddie McDonald.

REFREE DOWN FOR COUNT

LONDON.—Referee W. C. Rees, Garsham, did not see the funny side of an incident in a soccer match between Hitchin Town and Crittal Athletic when a player, attempting to head the ball, knocked Rees down and out. Somebody grabbed the whistle and sounded the "cease fire."

Riverdale Concert

On December 21st, 1936, a very interesting and successful concert was presented in Riverdale school by the pupils assisted by some of the young people of the district.

The schoolroom, which was tastefully decorated with spruce, red and green rope, bells, etc., was filled to capacity.

Santa Claus then appeared and distributed gifts, candy and fruit from a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. The National Anthem was then sung and all departed to their homes quite satisfied with the evening's entertainment.

POINT PLEASANT W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Point Pleasant Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Samuel Lecco on Jan. 5th with the attendance of 10 members and 3 visitors.

The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Mrs. Chester Reynolds, and opened by repeating the club women's creed in unison. The roll call was responded to by naming a Woman of the Bible. The minutes of the previous meeting was then read by the secretary, Mrs. John Lecco, and signed by the vice-president. The table cloth was then raffled off and Mrs. Harper Lecco of Murray River won it with the lucky number 96. Mrs. John Miller then joined for the coming year.

There was no report from school committee as both were absent from the meeting. The sick committee reported having visited sick and a treat was sent to Mrs. Chester Reynolds. New committees were then appointed: Mrs. John Miller and Mrs. John Lecco on sick, and Mrs. J. E. MacInnis and Miss Bernice Jenkins on the school. Correspondence was read by the secretary. The questionnaire on Canadian Industries was answered.

Mrs. John Miller invited the members to her home for the February meeting, roll call to be answered with jokes. The meeting closed by singing Cowboy Jack. Mrs. Lecco served a lovely lunch and a social hour was spent.

NORTH TRYON W. I.

Mrs. Max LeFurgey entertained at her home the members of the North Tryon Women's Institute on Dec. 14th for the regular monthly meeting.

The meeting was opened by singing "Silent Night" and by reciting the "Creed" in unison. The roll was answered by "Christmas Hints" by ten members, and three new members joined. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The sick committee reported that fruit had been sent to the sick. It was moved and seconded that boxes of fruit be sent to the sick who have been shut in for some time. Mrs. Manon McNeil, Mrs. Albert Calbeck and Miss Francis Ives volunteered to pack the boxes and see that the sick received them.

Mrs. Sawyer very kindly invited the Institute to her home for the next meeting, Jan. 19th which is to take the form of a goose supper. It was decided that the gentlemen friends be invited. A menu was then drawn up for the supper.

New sick committee, Mrs. Keith Chisholm, Mrs. Archie Thomson.

A letter of thanks for fruit received was read by the secretary. This part of the meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Instrumental music was then rendered by Miss Mildred LeFurgey, Marion Laerd and Mrs. Harold Harvey. The Misses Helen LeFurgey and Lella LeFurgey sang a duet. The ladies then packed a Sunshine box for Sterling Quigley,

LAKE VERDE PERSONALS

Mrs. Daniel Myers and son, Master George Myers, Lake Verde, have returned home after a very pleasant week visiting in Alexandria, the guest of her parents, Mr. Thomas K. and Mrs. Brehaut.

Mrs. Mary Jones, Hazelbrook, has returned home after visiting relatives and friends in Cross Roads and Alexandria.

Miss Elsie Myers, Miss Norreen Burrow and Mrs. Dan Myers spent a pleasant afternoon on New Year's day, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burrow.

Mr. Kent Jones, Hazelbrook, was in Lot 49 last week on business.

The many friends of Mr. Charles Wood, Mt. Albion, regret to learn of his serious illness.

Praises Merit Of Crime Film

LONDON, Jan. 15.—(OP)—Crime films were praised by Lord Chief Justice Hewart at the British Kinematograph Society's dinner here.

"Generations of men have read hair-raising stories of detection and adventure," he said. "Their sympathies, if they are healthy and wise, were no doubt found on the side of the criminal in his efforts to escape. There is something to be said—is there not—for Bill Sykes and all his kind? Yet it is seldom suggested that children who read works of this kind are thereby encouraged to entertain evil designs or indulge in criminal practices."

"On what grounds other than prejudice can you base the view that the cinema makes criminals of young persons? Every film of crime or adventure possesses the common feature that the criminal is brought low. Film producers have been resorting less and less to stories of a cheap and ridiculous kind. British films have given a lead in this wholesome direction."

St. Eleanors Concert

A very successful concert was held in St. Eleanors Hall, Dec. 22nd. In spite of the inclement condition of the roads, the hall was well filled. Mr. J. A. C. Creswell capably performed the duties of chairman, remarking that there was a lack of interest on the part of the parents after all the work the teachers, Mr. Earl Cannon and Miss Dorothy MacMurdo, had gone to in preparing the children for their different exercises.

The following program was then carried out:

Chorus, Welcome Christmas, by school.
