A mother's pride is in the dainty muslin dresses of her children. They soon lose their stiffness and get "mussy" if they are not properly starched. Celluloid Starch gives the muslin just the proper firmness and the finish makes them keep clean longer. It is a pleasure to iron when you use Celluloid Starch and the result is never disappointing. All good grocers sell Celluloid Starch. Never Sticks. Requires no Cooking. The Branford Starch Works, Limited, Branford, Canada.

loved the woods for game, but not for the flowers. He never loved flowers as flowers. Facts always had to be presented to him as bare, unbreakable rocks, and not as rocks clothed in garments of green and in Joseph's coats of many floral colors. One day, much to Henry Ward Beecher's surprise, he saw his father standing before a beautiful picture. It was a hunting scene, but the son prized it for the beautiful colors, such as are always found in the retreat of the woods. "Ah," said Henry Ward Beecher, "father is at last learned to love nature!" He stepped up to the side of the old man and said: "Father, how do you like the picture? What do you like about it most?" "Well, Henry," said the old man, "I was studying that picture to see whether the artist had aimed that gun right. Yes, I think that hunter will hit the rabbit. I think he will. I think he will." "Ah, father," said Henry Ward, "can you not see anything more in that picture than a cruel man shedding the blood of an innocent, playful rabbit?" "No," Henry Ward Beecher's mind and Lyman Beecher's mind were cast in different molds. They both had their limitations. What one could do in a mental way the other could not do.

If the United States Government compels us to obey certain social laws, enacted upon the statute books by the dictates of its own national legislators, is it unjust for God to declare that when we surrender our hearts to him we should come to him in his way and not in ours? If we have our mental limitations and only in a feeble and incomplete way can grasp the infinite thought of God, are we not foolish in setting up ourselves as judges and critics of his methods? Ought we not rather to accept his plans and humbly to submit ourselves to his rule? That is the way to true freedom. When we accept the truth that he has revealed to us and give ourselves to his guidance, we learn by experience that the truth makes us free.

True freedom always has its limitations. The Christian life, too, has its rightful limitations. Christ said, "I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh unto the Father but by me." There is only one way to God, one door, one true life. But after we have once entered through that open door then we are free. Aye, we may become transcendentally and eternally free. Is not my text right when it says, "In Christ the truth shall make you free?" The freedom he gives is the freedom from sin, the freedom from punishment, but that freedom, like all others, can be obtained only by submitting to Christ's rule. In one way alone can we gain that freedom, and that is by the way of the cross. In his service are endless joy and pleasure for evermore.

My brother, my sister, are you ready to let the truth make you free? In antebellum days there was a beautiful scene enacted in one of the southern slave markets. A young black girl stood upon the auction block and was being sold to the highest bidder. Rough men were trying to buy her for evil purposes, but in that group of by-standers was a Christian gentleman, holding by the hand his own young daughter. The young girl's heart went out for the sufferings of her black sister, and she persuaded her father to purchase the slave. Higher and higher went the price, but at last the Christian gentleman bought the young slave. When the black girl was handed over to her new master he said: "Mary, I bought you for my daughter's sake. I now give you your papers of freedom. You can go where and when you please. You are free." "What, master, am I free? Can I go where I will? Then I shall go and stay with you." Oh, she was a slave before the auction. She was a slave after the auction. But now she had become a slave of love. Will you not, oh, man, oh, woman, hear Christ's proclamation of emancipation from sin? Will you not let "the truth make you free?"—that is, will you not, in Christ's name, cease to be a subject of sin, but in bondage for the love of Christ? He died to make you free. With his divine limitation will you not be eternally free, yet still in bondage to Jesus Christ?

A GRAND SHOWING.

Andrew F. Gault, a prominent merchant and manufacturer of Montreal, insured his life in the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. He was required to pay the sum of $16,900 per $1,000.00 each year. Recently Mr. Gault died and the Company paid to his heirs, not only the original insurance of $1,000.00, but $1,424.00 in addition, making in all $2,424.00. Mr. Gault paid fifty-two annual premiums, amounting to $878.80; the Company returned in dividends $545.26 more than it received in premiums from the insured.

Mr. Gault was insured under another policy in the same Company for a like amount, taken out a few years later, on which he paid forty-two annual premiums of $18.28, amounting to $769.72. Dividend additions to this policy were $1,238.00 or $342.28 in excess of total premiums paid.

Kitchener Range

Saves Fuel. It is not the first cost of a range which makes it cheap or expensive, but the amount of fuel it afterwards consumes.

If you buy a range a few dollars cheaper than a Kitchener, and it burns from 15 to 25% more fuel, what do you gain? Nothing, but you actually lose money, besides putting up with all the inconveniences of an old-style range. The Kitchener range is equipped with every device known for reducing the consumption of fuel.

Sold by all enterprising dealers. Write for booklet.
