

To-Day's Probabilities.

TORONTO, Feb. 21.—(Special.)—The probabilities for to-day are as follows:—Westerly winds, fair and colder.

LIKE A KNIFE.

Such were the Terrible Pains of Sciatica in the case of Wm. A. Brown.

ROBSTOWN, N. B., Feb. 18.—Northumberland county has seldom seen such an extreme case of suffering as that of Mr. W. A. Brown of this place. Mr. Brown had Sciatica. He describes his case this way: "I had Sciatica so bad in my back and hips that I could not walk without suffering awful agony. The pains would shoot through my back with a sensation similar to running a knife through it. "I took Dodd's Kidney Pills. The first box helped me, and three boxes completely cured me. I have not since had the slightest symptoms of pain or ache. I think they are a wonderful remedy. I have recommended them to a number of other sufferers and have yet to hear of their failing to cure."

A FEW nights ago burglars entered the home of Mr. Charles Cuming, lit a lantern and helped themselves to meat roasted and corned, eggs and a little of almost everything eatable in the house. They then went to the parlor and removed a box in which they probably supposed was money but which was empty. The thieves however secured a couple of purses in which were small amounts.

THE GUARDIAN is informed that an Eastern Prince County farmer has purchased a sheep and there are green oats three inches long growing on its back. The warmth and moisture of the fleece caused the grain which had become lodged therein to germinate, even in the cold weather.

THE GUARDIAN is in receipt of a copy of the Footsray Advertiser which contains an interesting account of the way that the members of the Footsray Football Club entertained their president Mr. James Cuming, J. THE Natal Day entertainment at Pythian Castle Hall last night was a success in every sense of the word. While it was the natal day celebration it also gave an opportunity to a large number to see the hall which has been transformed by the lavish expenditure of both time and money. As each guest entered the Castle a neat program printed in blue and gold with a crest of the order on the fold was presented. Owing to illness and other unforeseen difficulties a number of the performers were unable to take part and their places were filled in by others. The following program will give an idea of the excellence of the entertainment:—Instrumental Solo, —Mr. W. McKie. Quartette, —Messrs. J. R. Davison, G. Moore, F. P. Newson, V. C., R. M. Johnson, Kt.

Vocal Solo, —Miss W. Annie Collings. Song, —Mr. Chas. Earle. Reading, —Miss Stentiford. Vocal Solo, —J. W. Sutherland, Kt. Vocal Solo, —Miss Amy Earle. Reading, —Miss Rattray. Vocal Solo, —Miss Florrie Earle. Reading, Address, —T. A. McLean, P. C. Reading, —Miss Enid McLean. Recitation, —Mr. March. God save the King.

The accompanists were Prof's S. N. Earle, Harry Watts, W. McKie. Messrs Arthur G. Peake, J. A. McDonald, Leonard McKay were the committee in charge.

A WARNING.

To feel tired after exertion is one thing, to feel tired before is another. Don't say the latter is laziness—it isn't but it's a sign that the system lacks vitality, is running down, and needs the tonic effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It's a warning, too—and sufferers should begin taking Hood's at once. Buy a bottle today.

Lines

On the death of Lettie Henry, who died in this city, Feb. 6th, 1901, aged 5 yrs 2 mos.

Gone but not dead; removed from sigh But happier by far Than had she lived to face the fight With many a doubt and scar.

Gone but not lost; removed to where All wanderings are unknown— Where partings, pangs, discord and care Shall ne'er call forth a moan.

Gone never to return; but oh! What comfort doth it bring,— Gone where each one can surely go: Sweet balm for every sting.

Gone where no mother's voice will quell Each little childish wail, For there no fears nor ills can dwell To mar the peaceful vale.

Gone from a loving father's eyes, But better far to be With Him who called her to the skies And immortality.

Gone, but why should we mourn a loss Wherein is so much gain? 'Tis better thus to shun the cross With all its toil and pain.

Gone; but why grieve to see her go Where all do hope to rest; Would we prefer this life of woe To Jesus' loving breast?

Gone without any sad regret Or melancholy doubt, Her little sun has calmly set Her feeble flame gone out.

Gone in her childish purity A lamb without a stain, A blossom plucked from off the tree Ere beaten by the rain.

Gone but to join a purer throng And share a Saviour's love: Then let us thank Him who, ere long, Shall join us all above.
