

I HAVE $50,000 DOLLARS IN CASH

For Charlottetown and vicinity, this week, for ranchers selling

SIVLER FOX SKINS!

I am maintaining a CASH MARKET for SILVER FOX PELTS despite the fact that most of the big buyers of this article have been driven away from Prince Edward Island on account of the HIGH PRICES demanded here; and the consequent HEAVY LOSSES, that buyers have taken two years out of the last three.

Here are some of the conditions facing SILVER FOX BREEDERS today:

1. The wealthiest country in the world and a big buyer of SILVER FOX has put a duty of FIFTY PER CENT. AD VALOREM of SILVER FOX PELTS, and AMERICAN BUYERS have to pay this duty on all purchases whether they buy in Canada or on LONDON AUCTION SALES. Consequently, they can now pay only about two-thirds of American prices last year.

2. Political conditions in Europe are so unsettled and financial and exchange conditions are so bad in the countries which are the principal buyers of SILVER FOX SKINS, that if all the pelt produced on fox ranches this year are dumped on the London Auction Sales the results are apt to be DISASTROUS.

European and American Fur Dealers of international standing and reputation all agree that Europe will be able to absorb large quantities of furs this season only at

Much Lower Prices

NOW MR. FOX RANCHER, here is my PROPOSITION; I am not responsible for any of the conditions above referred to: and I DO NOT make the prices for SILVER FOX.

The laws of SUPPLY AND DEMAND, under the present international business conditions, make the price. My business is to maintain a steady OUTLET and to help you market your furs to the best possible advantage.

To this end I have established connections with FUR HOUSES in EUROPE and AMERICA second tonone in the world and I have a ready CASH OUTLET for a lot of SILVERFOX PELTS.

I must buy them, however, at prices to show my FUR HOUSE a fair profit, or we DO NOT WANT THEM. No firm will take losses on any article of fur year after year for the sake of buying them; but I am MORE THAN WILLING to PAY YOU as much as present market conditions will warrant, and I am building up a LARGE FUR BUSINESS ON THAT PRINCIPLE.

If you want to sell part of your furs FOR CASH, and put part on the LONDON AUCTION SALES (which is good safe business) I can, through my London connections, give you the BEST SERVICE obtainable from any AUCTION HOUSE handling SILVER FOXES.

Messrs. Fredk. Huth & Co., 64 Park St., Southwark, S. E. 1, London, England offer shippers service as follows:

1. A large fur room at Summerside equipped for marking, invoicing, insuring and shipping your furs.
2. Advances up to one hundred pounds made to any shipper who wants ready money. Advances this season are limited to twenty-five per cent. of value of furs shipped.
3. Addressed shipping bags holding ten to twelve skins (parcel post weight limit eleven pounds) sent to shippers free on request.
4. A CLASSIFIED CATALOGUE system wherein pelts are classified and catalogued so that buyers can look at the kinds of pelts they wish to buy without having to go hurriedly through the whole collection of thousands of skins; and during the Auction they need only be present when the skins in which they are interested are being sold. This saves buyers much valuable time, assures more accurate grading, and better competition for different classes of pelts. Valued under $40 grouped in bundles and sold as sundry foxes.

BRING YOUR FURS THIS WEEK TO THE BOARD OF TRADE ROOMS, Charlottetown, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and up to noon Saturday. Messrs. E. H. Monkley and Charles Stavert will be on hand to attend TO THE BUYING AND SHIPPING, or if more convenient come to our Summerside ware room.

We are giving SERVICE and SATISFACTION. We want your business and will pay THE HIGHEST MARKET PRICE; or will gladly help you with your shipments for London.

E. H. RAYNER, Summerside

PRETTY DECORATIONS.—The several windows of the different stores of Souris presented a very pleasing appearance for Xmas, and special mention is due each and every merchant for the creditable way in which they decorated their show windows for the Xmas season.

A BRIGHTLY LIGHTED SOURIS.—The people of Souris are proud these days to see the "juice" on and electric power in swing at last. They hope to see the plant in full operation soon, and then they will appreciate more fully the efforts put forth by the mayor and town council to have the town of Souris bright and cheerful after night.

ON HOLIDAYS.—The public school and the Souris convent are closed for the holidays, and we trust that the students will all have a pleasant time during the holidays, and that they will return to their work fresh of memory and with a cheerful smile for the New Year's work.

A QUIET CHRISTMAS.—Christmas Day passed by quietly in Souris, and police officer Ambrose Molloy reports very little evil-doing of John Barleycorn around, which speaks very highly and creditably for the citizens of the town of Souris. Intoxicating beverages seem a thing of the past here now.

A LATE SAILING.—The schooner Golden Rod, Capt. E. Sampson, cleared port Wednesday with a load of produce for Nova Scotia. This schooner was loaded by J. J. Hughes Co., Ltd., and is probably the latest schooner to leave the island this season. Owing to the open harbor of Souris, vessels can load produce here, when all other ports of P. E. I. are frozen up solid.

MIDNIGHT MASS AT SOURIS.—On Christmas eve, midnight mass was celebrated in St. Mary's church and a large congregation attended for the services. The church was for the first time beautifully illuminated by the new electric light plant, installed recently by the town, and the wiring of the church was speedily and creditably accomplished for the occasion by Stephen McIsaac & Sons, electricians. About twelve o'clock the altar boys, under the direction of Rev. P. McMahon, entered the sanctuary, as the choir rendered an appropriate anthem for the occasion. Solomn high mass was then celebrated by the Very Rev. Mgr. J. C. McLean, V.G., P.P., who preached a forceful and touching sermon on the "Nativity of our Lord." The new choir, under the capable direction of Dr. A. A. McDonald, rendered very effectively the Sixth Tone Mass and appropriate hymns for the occasion. Miss Pearl McKenzie presided at the organ. On Monday evening, Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was celebrated by the Rev. Mgr. Father McLean, assisted by Rev. P. McMahon.

SPEND 10,000,000 FRANCS ON CHRISTMAS IN PARIS
PARIS, Dec. 29.—About 10,000,000 or 12,000,000 francs (about $700,000) were spent in Paris celebrating Christmas eve, The Liberte estimates, which is a record. Montmartre restaurants were open until 10 o'clock today, when the waiters awakened male and female clients, who were sleeping peacefully in their chairs, or carried them to taxicabs.

"YES," INSTEAD OF "I WILL." Unusual Wording of Ceremony at Wedding of Aged Briton.
LONDON, Dec. 29.—Sir Alfred Yarrow, the shipbuilder, who is 80, was married on Saturday to Miss Eleanor Barnes, of Greenmeadows, Hampshire, at the Church of St. Bartholomew the Great, West Smithfield.
Miss Barnes wore a silver grey dress and hat that well matched her silver hair. Viscount Knutsford acted as best man.
A curious feature of the ceremony was the bridegroom's uncorrected slip in saying "Yes" instead of "I will" in reply to the priest's "Wilt thou take this woman?"
