

You don't like the cheap tea you are using. Do you?

Before the war so increased the cost of living, many people used to drink better tea than they are now using.

Perhaps, this is true in your case?

Of course, you are not drinking poor tea because you like it, but because you think it necessary to save money.

But are you really saving anything? Cheap, common teas only make about 150 cups to the pound. You are lucky if you can stretch them out to 185 or 200.

On the other hand, Red Rose Tea easily makes 250 cups. It goes further because of its fine quality, consisting chiefly of Assam teas, the richest and strongest in the world.

You may almost doubt if so many cups of tea can be made from a pound of even such good tea as Red Rose, but you can readily prove the economy of Red Rose without waiting for a package to be used up. Just use a few leaves less of Red Rose for a brewing than you use of common tea—the result we are sure will please and surprise you.

The death of Mrs. J. T. Oxenham in Winnipeg, came as a great surprise to her many friends and relations on the Island, as well as elsewhere. She was enjoying her usual health up till a few minutes before her spirit passed into the presence of Him Who gave it. Although in her sixty-ninth year she was still very active, always of a cheerful disposition and greatly attached to her family, yet the anxious thoughts concerning her two sons, Walter and Isaac, both of whom are on active service, no doubt bore heavily upon her, as upon many other parents during the terrible war that is taking the lives of our young men. On Saturday the 29th of September, the funeral services were held at Mr. Benjamin Matheson's and conducted by the Rev. Daniel MacLean, and attended by a very large number of her old friends from Brookfield and Hunter River, where she was held in such high estimation. Messrs. Arch. MacPherson, Joseph MacPherson, Silas Wonnacott, Hector Buchanan, John Spence and William Darke acted as pall-bearers, and the body of a kind neighbor and loving mother was laid to rest in the little Greenvale cemetery. Besides the two sons already mentioned, Arthur who lives in Winnipeg, accompanied the body to the Island. She leaves also to mourn their loss, Mrs. George Dixon, Royalty Junction, Mrs. Wm. Dempsey, Carberry, Bessie, May and Gertrude in Winnipeg.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS—Over two hundred Christmas Post Cards bearing the following inscription and nicely printed in green ink were posted by Canon Simpson to leave the city yesterday, to the prisoners in Germany," 21 Fitzroy Street, Charlottetown, P. E. Island. Heartly Christmas Greetings from the Officers of the Prisoners of War Fund, who are responsible for your adoption. May the Prince of Peace who came "to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound," give you His blessing on the Festival of His Birth. (Canon) James Simpson, Treasurer, Florence Norton, Secretary.

Premier Arsenault yesterday received the following cable in reply to enquiries concerning Lieut. Fred M. Nash who was reported missing on October 3rd.

"Royal Flying Corps reports unofficially that Lieut. Fred M. Nash is a prisoner, un wounded. Confirmation expected shortly. (Signed) (Sir) George Perley.

The many friends of Lieut. Nash will be glad to learn that, although a prisoner, he is alive and well. It appears that a certain code of chivalry exists between the airmen of the belligerent countries whereby either side notifies the other of any casualties incurred. It is sincerely hoped that ere long Lieut. Nash will be exchanged for a German prisoner in the hands of the Allies. Meanwhile the many friends of his parents and relatives will rejoice with them in the fact that the mishap is so much less serious than at first feared.

Pte. John Campbell Martin the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Martin was born at Kinross Jan 16th 1885. He was killed in action in France on August 17th, 1917; aged 22 years and 7 months.

In the death of John C. Martin another brave Island son has made the supreme sacrifice to his country's cause.

The regret of officers and men of his Battalion the 13th R. H. C. for the loss of their comrade on "Hill 70" on Aug 15th has been tendered the sorrowing family, through the chaplain, Capt. C. E. Graham.

The sorrow of his parents, sisters brothers and friends is assuaged as far as these things bring comfort, by the knowledge of the service this noble young man rendered to the cause of righteousness. In the final contrasting of life's values he indeed won the highest reward.

John C. was a worthy son, kind and dutiful in the home, genial and wholesomely among his companions. When the call came for men, he was among the first in his community to respond. He enlisted Nov. 17th, 1915, a week later he began to train in Charlottetown. He left with the 105th on June 13th, 1915 for Valcartier, and on the 13th of July sailed for England where he arrived two weeks later. He was early drafted for France and left for there in the 29th of November last, and in January 1917 went to the trenches. He was off and on in action till he day he was killed in August.

His parents and friends have in common with all parents and friends of heroic sons, the gratitude of the nation for their protection from a merciless enemy. They have the sympathy of all who know them. They have the assurance of the sympathy of Him who in all His peoples' affliction "He himself is afflicted." Also the high tribute paid to all who die in behalf of others by Him who in the consummation of His life work died upon the Cross, who said "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."
