WEDDING BELLS.—The Church of Scotland at Cape Traverse was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday evening June 25th when Miss Esther Elizabeth eldest daughter of Mrs. Eliza Buxton of Cape Traverse was united in marriage with Mr. Eric D. Hewitt, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hewitt of Borden. Rev. Ewen MacDougall of Charlottetown performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends of the bride and groom. At 8:30, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by Mrs. Batt of Charlottetown, sister of the groom, the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her grandfather Mr. Thomas Howatt who gave her away. She was daintily gowned in white silk crepe-de-chine and her veil was of silk embroidered tulle, caught in place with a bandeau of La Tausca pearls and orange blossoms. She also wore a string of La Tausca pearls the gift of the groom and carried a beautiful bouquet of ophelia roses and maiden hair ferns, Miss Goldie Buxton, sister of the bride was bridesmaid. She wore a very pretty gown of white and pink with white hat trimmed with pale pink rose buds and carried a bouquet of narcissus. Mr. LeRoy Howatt of Victoria cousin of the bride attended the groom. The church was very tastefully decorated for the occasion with roses by girl friends of the bride, the ceremony being performed under an arch of green and white.

The bridegroom presented the bridesmaid with a very beautiful bar pin and to the groomsman he gave a gold tie pin. After the ceremony was performed all repaired to the home of the bride's grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howatt, where a sumptuous supper was served. The large number of beautiful gifts received testified to the esteem in which the bride and groom are held. The gifts consisted of gold, cut glass, silver, checks, china and linen also a number of telegrams of congratulations. Their many friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous wedded life. The bride has the distinction of being the first young lady to be married in the Church of Scotland at Cape Traverse.

Gleanings Here and There

On Thursday evening, June twenty-sixth, a largely attended concert and box social was held in Lady Fane Hall, Crapaud. The night being fine, the hall was packed full, many having to stand. A splendid entertainment was given, each number on the programme being well received, and the sale of well-filled boxes following added much to the profit and enjoyment of the evening. Rev. M. J. MacPherson was appointed chairman and the following program was successfully rendered:—

1. Opening Chorus— A Sailor's Chorus.
2. Recitation—Miss Jessie Dawson.
3. Solo—Clayton Morrison.
4. Reading—Mrs. Ballingall.
5. Negro Stump Speech—H. J. Ince.
6. Solo—M. J. MacPherson.
7. Dialogue—Pat's Dilemma.
8. Solo—Lea Dawson.
9. Closing Chorus—Good Night.

The chorus singing was excellent, Mr. nce in costume and decorater as a negro acted his part well and received several encores. Musical selections on violin and harp were well given by Messrs. Lorne and Art Simmonds accompanied by Miss Amy MacVitte on the organ.

The characters represented in Pat's Dilemma were well taken by Messrs. D. Bell, Eric Lowther, Art Simmonds and Verner Moore and Mrs. Laird, Mrs. Verner Moore and Miss MacKinnon.

The sale of boxes was conducted by Dr. Boyer who capably filled the position of auctioneer and received good prices for every thing sold.

The accompanists for the musical part of the programme were Mrs. Neil Lowther and Mrs. Warren Inman, who are artists always heard with pleasure. About one hundred dollars ($95 net) were received which will be divided between the Orphanage and the Orange Hall, where some improvements are being made.

On June twenty-fifth, in the evening, Eric Douglas Hewitt of Borden and Miss Esther Elizabeth Buxton of Cape Traverse were married in the Church of Scotland, Cape Traverse by Rev. Ewen McDougall, B. A. As this church and congregation have a history extending back for seventy years or more it is an interesting and noteworthy fact that this is the first marriage ever held in this church, so far as one can trace back. The church was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers and an organ was used for the first time also in the services of this church.

Mrs. Thomas Walker, aged eighty-six was buried at Cape Traverse, Church of Scotland on Monday, June thirthieth in the afternoon at two o'clock. The deceased died in Summerside, where she had been visiting in the home of Mrs. Phillipps. She was well known and very highly respected. Her husband predeceased her some years ago and they had no family.

Dr. Alexander Murchuson of Clyde River who for the past three weeks has been ill at his home is slowly recovering. His many friends will be pleased to see him soon resume his practice. His son Dr. Randolph is remaining home a short time to assist his father.

There are many evidences of work being now done on our highways as one can testify who has occasion to drive over those roads during the process of construction. A special piece of road work is being built on the highway between Kingston and Lot 30. The road is being widened, the centre filled with clay and rounded up in good shape. Mr. John MacFadyen of Kingston is supervising the work. Several signs of improvement are noticeable throughout the country. Some new buildings are being erected; others are being improved.

The Methodist Church at Kingston and the Church of Scotland, Churchill, are undergoing repairs.

Mr. Keith Boswell of Victoria well known breeder of short horn stock is building a new, modern up-to-date barn.

The Evangelistic campaign in Victoria under the leadership of F. W. Foster of Fort Fairfield, Maine, is being continued each evening except Saturday. Much interest is being manifested and the attendance more especially from outlying districts is very good. Rev. Mr. Peters of Hunter River attended the meeting on Wednesday evening.

The origin of the name Hunter River, one of our modern, prosperous villages in Queen's County, recalls incidents of the war of 1812, a Hunter's grave around which is entwined a sad, but true love story. The grave is not marked by any stone or monument. Along the bank of the stream there could be seen some years ago a mound under which sleep the remains of our Fred Hunter, after whom the village is now named. This Hunter had an eventful career. He was wrecked on the North Side, of P. E. I. when a youth during the terrible storm of October, 1806. The ship on which he was sailing went to pieces and he was picked up from the wreckage washed ashore and tenderly cared for by George Trueman and his daughter, Inez. Trueman was of Loyalist stock who had come to P. E. I. by vessel a few years before. His father had settled in New York lest his spirit might appear at the time of her nuptials, such being March a party of lumberman disthe superstitions belief of the time, covered his body a few yards from Fred Hunter, given up for dead, the stream now named after him had been discharged as well from and over half a dozen miles from the hospital.
