E QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Had Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

The mail train did not arrive until 10.40 last night.

The Northumberland arrived at 7.40 last night.

Rev. Hammond Johnson of Summerside preached in the Central Methodist church in Moncton on Sunday last.

The marriage takes place this morning in St. Joseph's Church of Miss Florence E. Giles of this City to Herbert E. Cantwell.

The remainder of the linerick lines sent in for last week's contest, and which were crowded out of yesterday's issue, appear to-day.

Mrs. John Weston, of Jardineville, left Monday to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. McLure, of Montague (P.E.I.),—St. John Telegraph.

Rev. A. E. Burke, of Alberton (P.E.I.), was the guest of Senator and Mrs. Wood, Sackville, N. B. on Tuesday.—Telegraph.

Miss Josephine Blake, Charlottetown, who has been in St. John a few days on her way home from a visit to Canadian cities, left for Charlottetown Friday.—St. John Globe.

Persons who are unable to get The Guardian by telephone after six o'clock in the evening, and who have news or other business for the next issue, are requested to ring No. 124.

The George T. Moon Co., wholesale commission dealer and shipper of fresh fish, lobsters, etc., whose address is 2 Fulton Market, New York City, make a specialty of Canadian smelts and eels. This firm has been established fifty years and careful personal attention is given to all consignments. Fishermen in this Province would do well to consult this firm. See ad in another column.

John E. Cameron of the Prince Edward Island Railway, who was in town visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexandra Cameron, left for his home in Charlottetown last week. Mr. Cameron had been in Moncton attending a meeting of the Boiler-makers' Union. While there he was the guest of A. McDougall of the Inter-colonial Railway works.—Sackville Tribune.

Island fishermen who have shipments to send abroad cannot do better than correspond with Chas. O. Meigs Co., 109 Fulton Market, New York City, whose address appears elsewhere in to-day's paper. This firm handles all consignments carefully and guarantees daily returns. Parties having smelts and eels to dispose of should write this firm, which is at all times most happy to secure the best results for those having business relations therewith.

The marriage takes place in St. James' Church tomorrow of Miss Annie Cameron of this City, daughter of the late Capt. R. Cameron, to Charles Ernest McGowan, Manager of the Union Bank of Halifax, New Glasgow, N. S. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. T. F. Fullerton in the presence of the immediate friends. The bride will be attended by Miss Perle Taylor, while the groomsmen will be Judge Patterson of New Glasgow.

The Moncton Transcript says that a family named Bell who moved to Moncton from Charlottetown about a month ago are reported to be in desultory circumstances. A child, Muriel Bell, aged 15 months, died a few days ago. The father, Roland Bell, the Transcript says, went north to seek employment. Chief Ridout of Moncton, learning of the circumstances of the bereaved family sent an officer to investigate. Arrangements were made to provide for the family until they could be returned to Charlottetown.

At St. Dunstan's Cathedral, at a quarter past six this morning the marriage of Miss Josephine Croake, daughter of John C. Croake, to Frank J. Hornsby will be solemnized by Rev. Dr. McLellan. Both the principals belong to Charlottetown. The bride will be the bride's sister, Miss Elith, and the groomsmen are F. G. Waller. The bride will be gowned in bronze broadcloth, with a fawn hat. The bride-maid will wear a brown costume with hat to match. After a wedding breakfast at the bride's home Mr. and Mrs. Hornsby will leave by the St. Northumberland for a brief wedding trip to Nova Scotia. The groom's present was a set of link pens, and numerous and costly offerings from many friends and admirers make the bride's array of presents a large and handsome one.

Four linericks were received too late to enter last week's competition and the money sent is placed to the credit of the senders for the competition of this week who send the lines required. Those referred to are Captain Nunn, Winsloe Road; L. G. Hazard, City; Harry Barr, City; P. O. Box 1041. In future no prizes will be awarded to anonymous competitors whatever the merits of their line. The reasons are obvious. All competitors desire to know who are the prize winners and as payments are made by cheque there must be a name to whom said cheque shall be payable. The two anonymous prize winners announced on Monday are asked to promptly verify their claims with the names for publication or the prizes awarded them will be passed on to the senders of the lines next in merit.

It is simply useless for correspondents to send The Guardian items of news unaccompanied by the names of the senders. In many cases neglect or forgetfulness is the reason the communications are unsigned. Nothing can be done however with these offerings except to consign them to the waste basket.

John Hunter, locomotive engineer of the P.E. Island Railway at Charlottetown, passed through Moncton yesterday afternoon, on his way to St. John to visit his brother S. C. Hunter. His daughter Miss Pearl Hunter, stopped off at Moncton to visit friends here.—Moncton Times.

Persons sending advertising matter to The Guardian are requested to state whether same is to appear among Classified ads, Business locals, Announcements or among regular display advertisements. When no such information is furnished the management will not be held responsible if ad does not appear as desired.

The well known fish-dealing firm of B. D. Luce & Co., Inc., whose ad appears in another column will be glad to have consignments of fresh fish sent on to them to their address in Fulton Market, New York City. Fishermen may rely on receiving every attention and satisfaction by dealing with this firm which makes a specialty of smelts, eels and clams.

Some slick New York swindler last week very nearly succeeded in relieving some Charlottetown paternalists of some of their wealth. One or two prominent heads of families received urgent messages from sons away from home, saying that they were stuck in New York and wanted funds telegraphed. One leading citizen was on the point of sending first aid, per check, to his suffering son, when he "smelled a rat," and got suspicious. With the aid of a friend in New York the plot was soon exposed.

THE TUNNEL.

The Guardian would like to know if the residents of Prince Edward Island really desire a tunnel to connect with the mainland, and with this end in view each person is requested to cut out the below coupon after writing in their name and address, and enclose to "The Guardian, Charlottetown," marking "Tunnel" on corner of envelope. Everybody should send at once.

TUNNEL COUPON.

As I desire wealth and prosperity for Prince Edward Island I would like to see a tunnel connecting this Province with the mainland.
