SOUTH LAKE NOTES

Despite the inclement weather, which prevailed on Friday evening, March 20th, the concert and pie social, which was held in Kingsborough Hall on that date was a decided success.

Mrs. Samuel McLeod, Uigs, recently spent a week with her daughter, Miss Florence McLeod, who is teaching in South Lake School.

Mrs. Boswell and Miss Jessie Jenkins, after visiting friends at North Lake, South Lake, Kingsboro and Red Point, returned to their respective homes in Mount Herbert and Marshfield.

Mrs. Boswell Jenkins and Miss Jessie Jenkins, as well as a large number of friends were entertained in the home of Mrs. Alton Robertson, Munn's Road, on Saturday evening, March 21st. A very pleasant evening was spent in games, music and social intercourse.

Some of the farmers of Bothwell and vicinity were busy on Friday, 27th, hauling lime from Elmira Station. A large steamer, presumably an ice-breaker, was seen in Northumberland Strait, sailing eastward on Sunday, March 29th.

Although there is still a great deal of snow, some of the hills, under the warming influence of the sun, are becoming bare.

His many friends are glad to hear that Mr. Stephen Mellick, Senior, Elmira, who has been seriously ill for some time, is improving in health. All join in wishing Mr. Mellick a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grant, Souris East, were visitors at South Lake, on Sunday, 22nd, the guests of Mr. John Joseph MacDonald.

His friends will regret to learn of the passing at his home in East Baltic, on Friday, March 27th, of Mr. George Robertson. His remains were interred in the cemetery in Kingsboro on Sunday, 29th.

Visitors to Priest Pond on Sunday, 22nd, included Messrs. Thomas A. A. Harris and Percy Murphy, Elmira.

Mr. Russel St. John, Souris, who arrived at Elmira by rail on Saturday night, the 28th, attended services at St. Columba Church on Sunday.

Mr. Eddie Cheverie, Souris, was a recent visitor to the home of his brother Neil, of Elmira.

Miss Mary Lannigan was a recent visitor to South Lake.

On the night of Thursday, March 26th, an interesting lecture was delivered by Rev. Mr. Bell, of Kingsboro, at Elmira Hall. The subject was "The Blues." Mr. Bell also sang some old Scottish songs. The proceeds went to the Elmira Women's Institute.

Word was received at South Lake of the recent death of Mrs. Norman Pierce, Souris East. The sympathy of all goes out to Mr. Pierce, who is a brother of Mr. Thomas Pierce, of Elmira.

Some open water is now visible in Northumberland Strait, between the ice packs, which, we hope, will soon be disintegrating and moving off.

The roads in this vicinity, which are softening with the heat of the sun these warm days, are becoming very "pitchy."

Some of the men folk in this vicinity already have large numbers of lobster traps built for the spring fishery at East Point.

Mr. John Gillis, East Point, has been busy for some days past, hauling wood to Mr. Raymond McPhee, Elmira.

Miss Tillie St. John was a recent visitor to South Lake.

His many friends regret that the condition of Mr. Joseph Cheverie, Elmira, who has been ill for some three weeks past, is quite serious.

Mrs. Boswell Jenkins and Miss Jessie Jenkins were visitors at the home of Mrs. Alexander Cameron, South Lake, on the evening of March 10th last.

Miss Freda Dingwell, South Lake,

Many of the farmers of this part have large piles of lumber hauled out of the woods to their homes.

Two large piles of poles have been hauled to points near the bridge at Lakeville, which is to be repaired this coming summer.—C.

CHERRY VALLEY AND VICINITY

The school is progressing favorably under the skillful management of Miss Doris Beaton, teacher.

Mr. James E. McEachern and Mr. P. L. Nelson, our genial merchants are doing a rushing business despite the condition of the roads.

A large crowd attended the sale recently held at the home of the late Robert McKinnon, Earncliffe, among those coming a distance were: Mr. Frank Driscoll, Mt. Herbert; Mr. Joseph McKenna and Mr. Martin Power, Mermfid; Mr. Otis McLeod and J. Gillis, Uigs.

The large flocks of geese, flying over Pownal Bay are indications that spring is near at hand.

It is the current report that Mr. Wellington McNeil, Southport and Mr. James Morrissey, Orwell Cove are going to represent the Belfast District in the coming local election.

Mr. Joseph Praught our rural mailman is giving good service and we all hope that the spring thaws will not hinder his daily trip.

Mr. John E. Morrissey and Mr. Joseph McDonald, Orwell Cove, were recent visitors to Cherry Valley attending the sale at Harold Huggan's.

Children Plan Long Journey

VINCENNES, Ind., March 31, (U.P.)—Three children, ranging in ages from five to nine years, will set sail for Vincennes, Ind., from Trieste, Greece, April 16, travelling via American Railway Express.

Pete Bourlekas, confectioner, took his three children—Ernest, nine, George, seven, and Irene, five, to Athens, Greece, more than a year ago. He then returned to his business here.

Anxious to see them again, Bourlekas has made arrangements with the express company for their return.

The express company will obtain passports, attend to sailing taxes and other details and a representative will take the children by train to Trieste. There they will board a New York-bound liner and a stewardess will care for them.

At New York another representative of the express company will meet them and place them on a train for Vincennes.

Chinese Girl Studies Bees

AMHERST, Mass., Mar. 31 (U. P.)—Sara Liu, diminutive Chinese girl, has come 8,000 miles from her native land to study bee-keeping at Massachusetts Agricultural College.

Sun Baths Win Children For Mother

SEATTLE, Mar. 31 (U.P.)—Beneficial nature of sun baths won for Mrs. Oora Peak the custody of her two small children, Billy and Joyce, after she had been granted a divorce.

When Mrs. Peak attempted to obtain a divorce, her husband resisted her efforts, declaring her unfit to have the children because she permitted them to play in the sun with very little clothing.

A superior Judge decided that sunbath was beneficial, that the youngsters were in sound health as a result of their exposure to its rays, and that they should remain in custody of their mother.

OLD AGE

The feeble years of life have come at last, This fragile back has weathered many a sea; But now, the last port has been reached by me— A little while and all life's cares shall pass.

The mysteries of the world I have not solved, The doors of wisdom, still to me are sealed, And only age to me has been revealed

All other dreams, like mist, have been dissolved. Thus, do the years in swift succession flee, Unmindful of the deed still left undone; Time will not stay his flight for you or me, He reck not if our battle's lost or won. In ceaseless mode the tide of life sweeps on, Bearing its human freight to world's unknown— Peopled by countless numbers that have gone, Exiled from earth, we know not where they roam. F. H. M.
