VALUABLE ADVICE TO RHEUMATICS.
Eat meat sparingly, and take very little sugar. Avoid damp feet, drink water abundantly, and always rely on Polson's Nervine as an absolute reliever of rheumatic pains. Being five times stronger than other remedies, its power over pain is simply beyond belief. Buy a large 25 cent bottle to-day, test it, and see if this is not so. Polson's Nervine always cures rheumatism.

THE death occurred at her home in Sydney on Monday, July 13th, 1903, of Katie Elvira, beloved wife of John McLure. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cairns, Bentinck street, and was born at Murray Harbor, P. E. I., on Dec. 17th, 1884. Her death is a particularly sad one, coming as it does, in the very bloom of youth, and so close upon that happy hour in human life when she was led to the marriage altar by him who has been left to mourn. Only two months have passed since that pleasant occasion when we were invited to witness the union of man and wife until that sad event when they were separated for life. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Clarence McKinnon, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, who spoke words of encouragement to the bereaved. The remains, accompanied by a large concourse of relatives and friends, were interred in Hardwood Hill cemetery. She is now where no echo of this world can reach her, and where its temperatures cannot assail her. She has passed from her friends on earth to her friends in heaven; from the Valley of Tears to the Mount of Joy; from a howling wilderness to a heavenly paradise. Such is life—only a step from the cradle to the grave. By her passing away we are again reminded of that solemn warning: "Prepare to meet thy God."

To the bereaved husband, parents, brothers and sisters the heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended. May the Lord console and comfort them and enable them to rest on the sweet promise: "When thou passest through the waters I will be with thee; and through the rivers they shall not overflow thee; when thou walkest through the fire thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle about thee." MOORE & McLEOD.

AN immense audience was gathered in the gardens last night to hear the 4th Regt. band. A remarkable departure was made (for a popular band concert in Charlottetown) in the last number, Chopin's funeral march, the band standing while playing. This, one of the masterpieces of music, is not an easy piece for a band; and it was played in a manner that did justice to it. The lovely major melody and the well managed accompaniment were, to one listener, the highest point of excellence yet reached by a Charlottetown band. The credit is shared by the musicians and Prof. Watts. It is hoped the march will be given again during the summer.

THE annual Provincial exhibition is now looked forward to by every Islander as an event of prime importance and one to which he can point with justifiable pride. The announcement in The Guardian of today will therefore be read with interest by all the readers of this journal. The exhibition this year will be held from September 23rd to the 25th and the directors claim that it will be the best in Provincial history. The prize list amounts to over $8000 and the prize money for the two days' horse races to $1350. The special attractions will be equal if not superior to those of any previous year and no money will be spared to make the show an immense success. The excellent results that attended the exhibition of last year should be an encouragement to every exhibitor, who it is hoped will continue to do his best to place before the public the foremost products of our Island province.
