MRS. CHADWICK FACES BECKWICK

Aged Banker Upbraids Canadian Financial Adventuress—He Tells he Does not Like Her Frequent Changes of Lawyers.

Cleveland, Dec. 15.—Mrs Chadwick's first day in the county jail was a busy one for her. She received several visits from her attorneys, held long conferences with them, conversed with newspaper men, and for fifteen minutes stood face to face with President Beckwith, of the Oberlin Bank, who has come to such great trouble through his financial transactions with her. Accompanied by Mrs Beckwith, who owing to her husband's ill health is always by his side, the aged banker made his way slowly and feebly up the long flight of iron stairs leading to Mrs. Chadwick's cell. She met him at the entrance of the corridor and shook hands with him cordially. After some general conversation, Mr. Beckwith referred to their business relations by saying:—
 "Mrs. Chadwick, you have ruined me, but I'll get square yet. You are a fraud. I have stood by you to my last dollar and I do think now that the time has come for you to make known everything in relation to this thing."
 Beckwith's voice betrayed deep emotion as he spoke and he leaned heavily on the arm of his wife, who was almost completely physical weakness. Mrs. Chadwick did not reply directly to the words of Mr. Beckwith, but her manner and look on her face were not conciliatory. Seeing that she would not waver, Mr. Beckwith went on:—
 "I have always told you that I did not like it because you changed your lawyers so often. Why do you not get a good one and stick to him?"
 "Well," said Mrs. Chadwick in reply, "I have reason for that."
 "Have you heard from Judge Otcott recently?" was Mr. Beckwith's next question.

"Not since I left New York," was Mrs. Chadwick's reply.
 "Has he changed his mind?"
 "No, he has the same belief that he always held."

To what the questions referred was not known. Mr. and Mrs. Beckwith both said they hoped the matters connected with the Chadwick affair would eventually be straightened out. The interview then closed, Mrs. Chadwick thanked him for calling, shook hands with Mr. and Mrs. Beckwith and said she would be pleased to have them call again.

There is a possibility that the hearing in the Chadwick case may be resumed tomorrow morning in the bankruptcy court, and that she will be summoned as a witness, although the probabilities are that the hearing will go over until Saturday and possibly until Monday. An application for an additional receiver for the Chadwick estate was made in the common pleas court this afternoon by the Savings Deposit Banking and Trust company of Elyria, Ohio, which has brought suit against Mrs. Chadwick on two notes of $25,000 and $10,000 respectively. Mrs. Chadwick this afternoon retained the attorney who is to conduct when she is called for trial in the federal court. He is J. P. Dawley, one of the leading criminal lawyers of Cleveland. Sheldon Q. Kerruish will assist Mr. Dawley. Mr. Kerruish said this afternoon:—

"It is very difficult to know what is best to do for Mrs. Chadwick. She says one thing and a little later will give a totally different version of the same matter. Until we have succeeded in getting her affairs straightened out it will be difficult to say what we will do."

Are Your Nerves on Edge?
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

ARE YOU SENSITIVE TO LIGHT SOUND AND MOTION? YOU NEED
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
 Twitching of the nerves, sudden starting, tenderness of the scalp or spine, head ache at top or back of head, noises in the ears, sparks before the eyes, sleeplessness, dyspepsia, pains and cramps, neuralgia, timidity, irritability, melancholy, physical weakness and general debility are among the symptoms of nervous exhaustion. You may look well enough and still be a victim of nervous prostration, but can do little with either mind or body without becoming greatly fatigued. Good food, pure air, suitable rest and the regular and persistent use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will thoroughly overcome the most extreme case of nervous exhaustion and prostration.

We need only refer you to such extreme cases as those of Mrs. James Miles, sen., of South Woodlee, Ont., Mrs. R. W. Edwards, 33 Murray street, Brantford, Ont., or Mr. S. Cloutier of 110 Lagache street, Montreal, cases in which regular physicians were entirely unable to render assistance. Use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food regularly, and it will not be long before the working process will be overcome and the work of reconstruction begin. Note your increase in weight as strength and vigor are being restored.

Mrs. Willis Taylor, Hensley Street, Charlottetown, P. E. I., states:—"I suffered from nervous prostration, could not sleep, and frequently had attacks of nervous headache. In fact, my whole system was run down and my health was anything but a satisfactory condition. Since having used three boxes of Chase's Nerve Food I can say that I never tried any medicine that did me so much good. It has built up my system, strengthened my nerves, and enabled me to sleep and rest well. It is now a considerable time since I had a headache and I can truthfully recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a splendid preparation. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.
