A VERY successful Fancy Dress Ball was held at the Hotel Acadia on Saturday evening, 12th inst. The ball room had been very tastefully decorated during the afternoon and when the guests marched in and around the room they made a very pretty picture, representing so many different nationalities and colours. The music was provided by Miss Green and Mr. Levy of New York. Several of the guests of Mr. Alex. Macdonald and Colonel Orr came over from Dalvay and assisted in the entertainment, besides lending a supply of bunting for decoration. With the materials at hand the costumes were really very successful. The following is a partial list:—Madame Routhier, Cloistered Nun; Madame Lussier, Alpine Tourist Lady; Miss E. Small, Nurse; Miss Churchill, Cuban Lady; Miss Unsworth, Canada; Miss Clyde, White Domino; Miss Levi, do.; Miss M. Longworth, Liberty; Miss McSweeney, Quakeress; Miss M. Longworth, Nelly Bly; Mr. Michaud, Highlander. There were a number of other costumes which we are unable to name. The dancing was kept up with great spirit until nearly twelve o'clock and everybody enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Hard On the Feet This Hot Weather..

Those poor, tired feet suffer most during the hot season.

Give them a chance.

We will tell you how to do it. Get a new, soft, well-made, well-fitting pair of Tan Shoes from us and they will repay you a hundred fold for the small outlay in making life more enjoyable during the hot days. And you needn't sacrifice style either. We can give you comfort and style both, and in no boot are those two qualities more exemplified than in the Whitham $3 Boot.

Its easy for any body to say that they have the best $3 boot in the market, but what we ask is that you make a comparison with any other boot at the price.
