Dizzy Dean In Serious Mood Begins Anew

(By Earl Hilligan)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

CHICAGO, May 5 — Baseball's one and only Dizzy Dean worked out like a lowly rookie today—with his $185,000 arm just so much excess baggage.

The famed pitcher, from whom Chicago Cubs turned over that much cash and three players less than three weeks ago to St. Louis Cardinals, began the four-weeks rest campaign he hopes will eliminate the soreness which threatens to knock a big hole in the Cub pennant chances.

INJURED MUSCLE

Ole Diz, whose high priced arm was X-rayed yesterday and found to be handicapped by an inflammation of a shoulder muscle, wasn't the loquacious Dean of old as he jogged around the Wrigley outfield with three young sandlot hopefuls for company.

He wasn't popping off. He said he wasn't discouraged, but made it plain he was serious about making good—within 30 days—on a comeback to former greatness.

"Maybe its the best thing after all that they found out something was definitely wrong with my arm," he said. "I suspected things weren't right several days ago and I know I haven't been in good physical shape this year, mainly because I was sick during the first few weeks of training. I weigh 193 pounds now and my best pitching weight is 185. When I get down to that and my arm gets rested, I'm sure I'll be all right again."

NEW YORK, May 5—The Reds took a 5-2 decision from New York Giants today and thereby handed the National League champions their first series setback of the year. Today's win gave the Reds the set, two games to one.

Mell Ott's wild peg past first in a tight spot in the eighth inning let the Giants' defences down enough to permit the Reds to shove three runs across, break a tie, and give Jim Weaver and Ray Benge the decision over Harry Gumbert, who went the route for Terry's terriers.

Big Eighth Inning

In Chicago, the Cubs presented rookie Paul Epperly with 12 runs in the eighth inning, but the 20 year old pitcher did not need them to defeat Philadelphia Phillies 21-2 in his major league debut.

Epperly held the Phils to six hits while Rip Collins and Augie Galan batted out the Cubs' 19th and 20th. home runs as part of the 18 hit assault on Wayne La Master, Tommy Reis, Pete Silvess and Harold Kelleher. LaMaster was charged with the defeat although he pitched but three balls and a strike to the first batter, Stan Hack, before retiring with a strained arm.

The Cubs' 12 runs in one inning bettered the season's previous major league high of 10 established by Cleveland against Detroit Monday.

Pirates Defeat Dodgers

The Pirates came to life in a big sixth inning, shoved over three runs on four hits, and whipped Brooklyn Dodgers 4-2 in Pittsburg Red Lucas' five-hit pitching.

Except for that frame, old Waite Hoyt held his former mates in check. They made only three hits outside of that one inning.

Boston Bees swarmed on rookie Max Macon and veteran Guy Bush for 9 nine, one a homer, in the fifth and sixth innings to take the final game of their first series of the season with St. Louis Cardinals 5-2.

The game started as a pitcher's battle between the young Macon and 32-year-old Milburn Shoffner. The first four innings were scoreless and hits were few. Then in the fifth four hits and a walk gave the Bees three runs. The spree was climaxed by Cooney's double.

MacPhail Quells Dissension In Dodgers

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

PITTSBURGH, May 5—General Manager Larry MacPhail of Brooklyn Dodgers flew to Pittsburgh from New York tonight to tell his players with emphasis that Manager Burleigh Grimes is "the boss, and I mean boss" for the remainder of the baseball season.

The hurried trip came in the wake of reports of dissension over Grimes removal of pitcher Luke (Hot Potato) Hamlin, right hand hurler, in yesterday's game.

MacPhail said Hamlin had been quoted in New York papers as saying "there wasn't a reason in the world for yanking me and don't you think I didn't say something to the manager about it."

MacPhail told newsmen:

"This is the lousiest and rankest piece of insubordination on the part of any major league baseball player since I have been in baseball. Grimes was manager when I came down to Brooklyn and he's going to have a fine chance for his white alley and that means for the whole season."

Hamlin started yesterday's game but was lifted suddenly by Grimes while holding a two-run lead in the fifth inning. Bill Posedel replaced him and was slugged freely by the Pirates who went on to win the game. After the game, Grimes and Hamlin engaged in a verbal row.

Fights Enliven Play As Canucks Defeat Wings

LONDON, May 5—(CP Cable)—Two fist fights and flashes of brilliant play tonight enlivened an otherwise tame hockey game as Montreal Canadiens defeated Detroit Red Wings 6-3 at Earlscourt rink.

A crowd of 8,500 saw the professionals resume their English series after playing three games at Paris where Canadiens won two and lost one. The next game will be at Brighton May 7.

Johnny Gagnon and Toe Blake of Canadiens; Ebbie Goodfellow and Carl Liscombe of Detroit each drew five-minute penalties for fighting while Hec Kilrea of Detroit received a similar banishment for arguing with the referee.

Paul Haynes' two goals in the third period put Canadiens ahead to stay. Pete Lepine also scored two while Gagnon and Blake netted one each. The Detroit scorers were Eddie Wares, Marty Barry and Mud Bruneteau.

Altogether since reaching this side Canadiens have won four games, lost one and tied the other.

Irish Youth Looms As British Walker Cup Hope

By SCOTTY RESTON
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 5 —Jim Bruen, big, plump youngster who won't be 18 until Sunday, loomed tonight as Great Britain's new Walker Cup golf hope.

Quitting school to get ready for cup play, this young Irishman posted rounds of 68-71, five under par, today as a squad of 24 began two days of trials designed to help the Royal and Ancient Club in selecting the cup team that will face the United States June 3-4.

Bruen's 68 equalled Bobby Jones' record for St. Andrews Old Course. The only difference in his morning and afternoon play came on the greens. He sank putts of 45 and 30 feet in the first round but three-putted four greens in the afternoon.

The squad went out in threesomes, each man playing 36 holes against the other two in his group. Bruen was nine up on J. E. Gent and eight up on Andy Dowie when the day's firing was over.

Hector Thomson, former British amateur champion, played well. He beat K. B. Scott five up and John Fitzsimmons, the bartender who holds the Irish Open crown, three up. Cecil Ewin, Harry Bentley, Leonard Crawley, A. T. Klye and Frank Pennink, English amateur champion for two years, all were considered team certainties on the basis of their play today.

Steeds Present Contrast Training For Big Race

NEW YORK, May 5—War Admiral and Seabiscuit, training at Belmont Park for their $100,000 match race May 30, are a couple of equally beautiful steeds, but their similarity ends at about that point.

The Admiral, pride of the United States east, was brought out first yesterday to pose for photographers. He bucked and reared and tossed his saddle off twice before they finally got him settled down. Even then he jerked his head and stared intently when a train whistled two miles away.

The Biscuit sauntered up as though he owned the place, and after Jockey Red Pollard climbed on his back he struck a pose and held it for close to five minutes. He didn't ripple a muscle when the movie machine began whirring almost in his face.

That's why the War Admiral camp is trying to get the conditions of the big race altered to permit a walking start. They are down now to start from stall gates, and the Admiral doesn't like that sort of confinement. The Biscuit, on the other hand, wouldn't care if they started him from a coal shute.

Trainer Charley Conway and Charley Kurtsinger, who will ride the Admiral in the great race, seemed irked at all the comment on their horse's skittish behavior.

Royals, Leafs Win Opening Home Games

MONTREAL, May 5—(CP)—The cellar-place Montreal Royals opened their first home stand of the International League season today by beating the Syracuse Chiefs 5-3 behind the steady eight-hit pitching of veteran Harry Smythe.

Though five of the blows off the old southpaw were doubles, he kept them well scattered and two of the runs off him were unearned. He was not threatened until the eighth, and then shortstop Sammy Bell retired the side and ended the game with a smart double play on a purposely-dropped line drive.

Arnold Moser and Bill Schuster, making their debut here as Royals before a 5,000 crowd, led Montreal's nine-hit attack with two safeties.

Leafs Blank Giants

Three pitchers combined to hurl a three-hit shutout as Maple Leafs scored a 5-0 triumph over Jersey City Giants in the opening game of the season in Toronto.

Earl Caldwell, John Berly and Mike Meola shared the hurling duties for the Leafs. Caldwell started, and allowed only one single, before he retired from the game with a spike wound inflicted by George Myatt, who was the final out in the third inning on a close play at first. Caldwell covered first on a bunt to Burns.

Berly went in for the fourth, allowed two singles in three innings and then was lifted after hitting Blakely and passing Horne to start the seventh. Mike Meola finished without allowing a hit or run.

Aussies Show Batting Power Against Oxford

LONDON, May 5—(CP Cable)—In another demonstration of tremendous batting power the touring Australian cricketers today declared their first innings against Oxford University after scoring 697 runs for seven wickets. Last week in their opening match the visitors defeated Worcestershire by an innings and 77 runs, hitting up 541.

The Varsity eleven faces a heavy defeat. Wickets fell rapidly and after being dismissed for a meagre 117 the students followed to lose four second-innings wickets for only 29 runs. Fleetwood-Smith dismissed five for 28 runs.

Three Australians contributed centuries to the Antipodeans huge score which fell short of the English record set up by Yorkshire against Warwickshire in 1896 by 208 runs. A. L. Hassett made 146, K. H. Fingleton 124 and Stanley McCabe 110. Captain Don Bradman followed up his 258 against Worcestershire with 58.

Close of play scored in other first-class matches started yesterday follow:

Somerset 240 and 20 for seven wickets; Sussex 297 (C. Oakes 61, J. Oakes 51, Buse four wickets for 80 runs); at Hove.

Hampshire 279 and 248 for two wickets (Pothecary 112 not out, Walker 56); Gloucestershire 271 (Allen 97, Hammon 48); At Portsmouth.

Worcestershire 342 and 20 for one wicket; Lancashire 468 (Iddon 185, Pavnter 66); at Manchester.

Yorkshire 254 (Tutton 180, Mitchell 100, Smailes 86, Barber 66, Wild six wickets for 125); Cambridge University 251 for nine (Carris 53); at Cambridge.

M. C. C. 196 and 336 (Edrich 115, Compton 100); Surrey 67 and 276 for three (Gregory 97 not out, Squires 80); at Lord's.

Fists Fly As Bengals Rally To Defeat Red Sox; Yanks Take Browns 12-10

NEW YORK, May 5—The Yankees wheeled their siege guns into line today and exploded 16 hits for 29 bases and a 12-10 victory over St. Louis Browns, to sweep the current three-game series.

Joe DiMaggio and Tommy Henrich each hit his third homer of the season. DiMaggio also connected a triple and a single and drove in four runs. Billy Knickerbocker connected for a triple, double and single off his old mates and batted three runs across.

Billy Sullivan and Beau Bell paced the Brownies' 12-hit attack with a homer apiece.

Duo Banished

The first fistic outbreak a Fenway Park baseball crowd has witnessed in 18 years incited Detroit Tigers to come from behind and defeat the Red Sox 7-5 in the series' finale.

After the Sockers pounded over four runs against Vernon Kennedy in the 5th., fiery Ben Chapman took a third strike. When he questoned Umpire Joe Rue's judgment, George Tebbetts, Detroit catcher, taunted him. The players then engaged in a heated verbal exchange, during which Chapman challenged Tebbetts. The latter ripped off his mask and grapped with Chapman. Umpires separated them and expelled both.

The Tigers tied the score in the seventh and pulled ahead in the eighth after Greenberg singled ahead of York, who blasted his second homer of the game over the left field fence.

Senators Win Series

In Washington, Johnny Stone banged out a home run with the bases loaded as the Senators beat Cleveland Indians 8-6.

The victory gave Washington the series, two games to one.

Washington drove Mel Harder out of the box in the fifth and continued to pound three more Indian hurlers for a total of 25 hits. Zeke Bonura got three of the Senators' blows, and rookie George Case whacked out a couple.

Successful Debut

Frank Gabler, former National League hurler, made a successful debut in the American League ranks with a seven-hit mound performance as Chicago White Sox hammered three Philadelphia Athletics pitchers for 17 hits and a 10-4 victory.

Boze Berger hit the first pitch of the game for a home run and added three more safeties to pace the winners' attack. Gee Walker hit one into the left field stands with Berger and Teinbacker on base in the third to tie the score at 4-4.

The White Sox added two more runs after Walker's homer in the third to clinch the victory.

Stagehand Is Withdrawn From Derby

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 5 — A bomb exploded unexpectedly in the midst of Kentucky Derby preparations today, left the United States most famous horse race practically certain to be without its favorite, Stagehand, and threw the $50,000 classic wider open than ever.

The Earle Sande-trained Cinderella horse, 5 to 2 choice to win Saturday at Churchill Downs as the result of his triumph over Seabiscuit in the Santa Anita Handicap last March, was withdrawn when he developed a high temperature from a sore throat.

The fever reached as high as 104.2 degrees last night. When it failed to drop below 101 this morning, owner Maxwell Howard of Dayton, Ohio, announced his ace would not start and that he would rest his hopes on The Chief, conqueror of Stagehand and Herbert Woolf's Lawrin Thursday in the trial stakes.

Sande said late today Stagehand's fever had gone down and there was an indication he would be formally entered for the Derby, when the books opened tomorrow. By this time the colt would be eligible in case Howard believed him as fit to run by Saturday. But he was regarded as a doubtful starter.

Bill Kiley To Manage Team

AMHERST, N. S., May 5—Bill Kiley, former Minto ball star, will take charge of the Amherst Community Field during the summer months, and will also take over the coaching of several juvenile baseball stars. Kiley will act as backstop for the Amherst Saint Pats, with Fiddler MacDonald and Bruce MacCallum of Charlottetown as his battery mates. MacDonald is the lad who set the Fencebusters back on a couple of occasions last year.

It is the consensus of opinion that Saint Pats will operate in a league comprising Moncton, Sackville, Amherst and Springhill.
