An Easy Way to Stop Head Noises

Good Advice For Those Who Fear Deafness

Men and women who are growing hard of hearing and who experience a stuffy feeling of pressure against their ear drums, accompanied by buzzing, rumbling sounds in their head like water falling or steam escaping should take prompt and effective measures to stop this trouble. Headnoises are almost invariably the forerunners of complete or partial deafness and most deaf people suffer from them constantly. Sometimes the noises become so distracting and nerve racking, with their never ceasing "hum" they drive the sufferer nearly frantic and complete nervous breakdown and even violent insanity have been known to result.

Thanks to a remarkable scientific discovery made recently in England it is now possible to almost instantly lessen the severity of these head noises and in a very short time to completely and permanently overcome them. With the disappearing of the head noises, the hearing also greatly improves and very frequently can be restored to normal. This English treatment is known as Parminit and can be easily and safely self administered at home. Leading druggists in Charlotte town and vicinity now have it in stock. Get from your druggist 1 oz. Parminit (Double Strength) and mix it at home with 1 1/2 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar. Stir until dissolved and then take one tablespoonful four times a day until the noises disappear and hearing improves. Parminit is used double strength in this way not only to reduce, by tonic action, the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian tube and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear and the results it gives are both remarkably quick and effective.

IMPORTANT. In ordering Parminit always specify that you want double strength; your druggist has it or he can get it for you; if not, send 75c. to the International Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine St., Montreal, P. Q., who make a specialty of it.

Those taking part in the play were the school children who, though quite young and inexperienced, acted their respective parts to the entire satisfaction of all. Most of the people in the district attended and, besides, there were many others who seemed thoroughly satisfied with the way in which they were entertained. Much credit is due the teacher, Miss Edna Fitzgerald, for the excellent way she has trained her pupils during the past few months and all trust, or at least hope that in years to come, the pupils will not forget the wise instructions they have received. It is but fair to say that the energetic ratepayers of the districts deserve thanks for the cooperative way they have assisted the teacher in making the concert a distinct success.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—On Wednesday evening 2nd inst., between fifty and sixty of the friends from North River and Kingston called on Rev. C. S. and Mrs. McLaren to exchange friendly greetings and kindly cheers after his trying period of illness. After a hearty welcome the evening passed in social chat, games and music till half past nine tea was announced and needless to say the table groaned with good things provided by the ladies present after all had done ample justice to the dainties provided they assembled in the sitting room when Deacon, Daniel T. Fraser was called to the chair and after few kind and touching words of encouragement and cheering sympathy to their loved Pastor and a glowing tribute to the friends assembled, he on behalf of the friends, presented the Pastor with a substantial sum of money to which Mr. McLaren feelingly and fittingly replied thanking the friends over and over for their kindness and sympathy during his illness and speaking a word of Christian cheer to all. Mr. H. McMillan of Cornwall was then called on and spoke in the highest terms of Mr. McLaren as a Pastor and friend. Mr. Stephen Ackland spoke of the good done by Mr. McLaren during his Pastorship and the good feeling that exists among the people; also words of cheer to the Pastor and wife, Deacons Drake, Scot and Holmes also spoke in words of cheer and kindness when all rose and joined in singing "God be with you till we meet again." EASTERN NOTES.—Mr. T. S. Robertson, Red Point, who had a severe attack of pneumonia, is rapidly recovering under the skilful treatment of Dr. McLean. Among the boys who have answered their country's call in the present crisis is Harvey St. John, a schoolboy, youngest son of the late William St. John. His fishing has been nearly a failure in eastern waters this season, gales of wind prevailing a large part of the time, and when fishermen did get out off Basin Head fish were scarce. John Robertson and his sons went up to East Point in the motor boat two different days. The first day they got a catch of good cod fish a little over half the buoy; on the 2nd inst. they had to go five miles east and got plenty fish, but the days a boat can go there is rare. On the night of the 2nd inst. Rev. Mr. St. John, S.C.M., gave a lecture on his experience in the West Indies, much appreciated, accompanied by magic lantern views, at the Church at Kingsboro.

Cardigan has lost another of his old landmarks in the death of John Parker, Tuesday, Dec. 1st, at the advanced age of 87 years. He was born in Sturgeon, being the oldest of a family of fifteen, four of whom now survive him. In the early days he taught school in this place and also in adjoining districts and many of our substantial citizens recall the old schoolmaster with kindly words. He was a student, fond of books and read the same books over and over again, when he found something of value in them. His mind was alert and logical. His wife predeceased him less than two years and besides his two brothers and two sisters he leaves three sons, Herbert, Fremont and Horace in North Dakota, and three daughters, Mrs. J. A. Wagner, in Montana, Mrs. Edward Bullpitt, Cardigan, at whose home he passed away, and Mabel, who recently returned from Boston to be with her father to comfort him in his closing days. The funeral, which was one of the largest ever seen in this community, took place Wednesday forenoon at Cardigan Church, the pastor, Rev. J. C. Martin, officiating, and the body was laid to rest in the plot with those whom he loved. (Patriot please copy.)

This was his first term at Dalhousie. He had spent many years at Cornell and Princeton and considered the material that comes to the Dalhousie as second to none. He was glad to see that there was a Students' Council and hoped that the ideal of British Government, close co-operation between the Legislature and executive should be realized at Dalhousie. He said he was pleased that higher qualifications would be required next year and the standard would be raised from year to year. Dean McRae is a son of the late Finlay McRae of Canoe Cove, P. E. I.
