STORY-HOWATT WEDDING.-At the Presbyterian Manse, Hampton, was the scene of a pleasant autumn wedding on Wednesday, October 4th at 7 p. m. when Miss Elsie Melvina Story, daughter of Albert Story, Crapaud, became the wife of Mr. Heath Harry Howatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albrow Howatt, Tryon. The bride looked charming dressed in a navy blue tricot-tricot suit, with a chic hat to match, wearing a set of con fur, gift of the groom. The bride was attended by Miss Catherine Murchison of Bonshaw while Mr. Brent Howatt supported the groom. Rev. Mr. McPherson tied the nuptial knot in the presence of the near relatives of the bride and groom which made two hearts beat as one. After the ceremony and signing of register, the happy couple motored to Westmoreland to the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Heath McVittie, where a bounteous supper was provided. After supper a large sarabande from the surrounding settlements gathered at the home to shower congratulations in the happy young couple. The evening was spent in music and songs until the wee small hours of the morning when amidst showers of rice and old slippers the happy young couple motored to their future home in Tryon where the groom is one of the most progressive young farmers of Prince County. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents, also cheques from Mr. and Mrs. Albrow Howatt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howatt, Mr. Albert Story.

IN MEMORIAM

THE LATE MISS EDITH E. STODART

Something of a shock was felt by Prince of Wales College students when they learned of the death of their fellow student Miss Edith E. Stodart, which occurred somewhat unexpectedly on Tuesday 6th, instant. Miss Stodart had not been in the best of health for the past few months but was not seriously indisposed until the end of September when she entered the P. E. Island hospital for treatment. There her condition was found to be not such as to anticipate any grave outcome and therefore when she took a serious turn for the worse on the 5th, instant and passed away quietly the following morning her relatives and friends were greatly taken by surprise. Miss Stodart it appears had been suffering from severe pains in the head and it developed that she had been subject to an internal trouble that proved fatal. The funeral service which took place on Sunday from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hunter, Grafton Street was largely attended. Service was conducted at the house and grave by the Rev. Mr. King of the Methodist Church. The pallbearers were school and college friends of the deceased, namely Barry Tait, Eric McDonald, Roy Tanton, Roy Carter, Wilfred Large, H. Duvar.

MATHESON - CAMPBELL. - A very quiet but nicely wedding took place at 3 o'clock on the 6th of Tuesday, September 26th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Campbell, Darlington, when their third daughter Miss Ethel was united in marriage with Mr. Hugh John Matheson of Oyster Bed Bridge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Slaver in the presence of quite a large number of invited guests. The bride who was given away by her father was beautifully gowned in white satin and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair fern. Miss Susanna Matheson, sister of the groom attended the bride while the groom was supported by Mr. John A. Campbell, brother of the bride. The wedding march was nicely rendered by Miss Isabelle McLeod of Charlottetown. After the ceremony was over all sat down to a daintily prepared supper to which all did ample justice. It was not long before the blowing of horns and the ringing of bells made it plain to all that the divarities were not far away. On their way all they extended greetings to the bride and groom and after having received a generous treat they wended their way homeward in peace. The wedding presents were numerous and costly. Among the other gifts were several good sized chairs-one being as large as $100.00. After a very pleasant and enjoyable young couple left amid showers of rice for their home in Oyster Bed Bridge. The bride's going away suit was of navy blue serge with hat to match. The Guardian joins in extending Mr. and Mrs. Matheson many years of happy wedded life.

est sugar factories in that country Mrs. Stodart and her three daughters came to Prince Edward Island in 1914 for the children's education, the girls attending Prince Street School. Edith was a remarkably clever and industrious student and a credit to her school and Prince of Wales which she subsequently entered being in her second year at the time of her unexpected demise. In addition to being popular with her fellow students, being awarded the James Paton prize as the most popular scholar in Prince Street School, she took an active interest in church work and recently became a member of the Methodist Church Choir, members of which attended for the musical service at her funeral. Miss Stodart is survived by her father, Mr. and Mrs. Stodart, the former having recently returned to Cuba after a vacation spent partly here and partly in Scotland; also by her two sisters, Jessie in Boston and Cecilia with her mother here. The greatest sympathy is extended to the bereaved family in their great loss.

MRS. PETER TRAINOR Sunday, the first day of October, shall ever recall sad memories to the numerous friends of the late Mrs. Peter Trainor, especially in Charlottetown where she was known and respected all her life and mourned in such a sudden, tragic death. Needless to repeat the sad circumstances woven round her untimely end reported next day in the daily press. Truly "in the midst of life we are in death." Little did she now bereaved and wounded husband, when he took his wife for that accustomed drive out into the country that beautiful Sunday afternoon, think that like a bolt from the blue heavens his beloved partner should be called away from earth to eternity; "Man proposes, but God disposes" and though so suddenly summoned before her Divine Judge we are assured by her perfect Christian life, the untimely death, in her generosity of soul and charity to all in thought, word and work, that a sudden death is not therefore a sad death.

Before her marriage the deceased was Miss Mae Benoit and besides her respected and bereaved husband, she leaves to mourn her mother, Mrs. Clement Benoit, Halifax, and the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. W. O'Riley, Montreal; Mrs. Alex LeBlanc, Halifax; Mrs. Batchelor, Chicago; Mrs. Wm. Butler, Halifax; Mr. C. H. Benoit, Charlottetown; Mr. Peter Benoit, Charlottetown; Mrs. Joseph Paquet, Levis, Que.; and Mr. Reid Benoit, Chicago.

An additional proof of her popularity and sympathy for the bereaved ones were necessary, it was shown by the immense throng that visited the stricken home and were present at the funeral to St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Tuesday morning, October 3rd where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Leonard Macdonald. The pallbearers were: John Murnaghan, William Moran, Dr. John Murray, Lawrence Doucette, J. P. Duffy and D. J. Riley.

To the bereaved husband and relatives the sympathy of the whole community goes out in this hour of sadness and bereavement. Requiescat in pace. Spiritual and Floral tributes were received from the following: Spiritual: St. Vincent's Orphanage; Mr. and Mrs. John McQuillan, Quebec; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cantwell; Mr. and Mrs. G. J. McCormac; Mr. and Mrs. William Moran; Mrs. J. Blanchard; Mr. and Mrs. J. Murnaghan; Patrick Murnaghan and family; Mrs. Gerald Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. John Percival and family; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. P. Trainor; Mr. and Mrs. E. Stanley; Peter Benoit; Mrs. T. B. Riley; George Trainor; Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn; Mr. and Mrs. J. Peter McDonald; Nellie Gillis; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Trainor; Miss Mary Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Stanley; Mrs. Thomas Laurie and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McCloskey and family; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. D. Campbell; J. P. Duffy and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Trainor, Quebec.

Floral: Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stewart, Cross; Mr. M. J. McMillan, Wreath; Messrs. Carvell Bros, Wreath; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Benoit, Pillow; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paquet, Levis, Que.; Cross; Mr. and Mrs. Alex LeBlanc, Halifax, Crescent; Mr. and Mrs. William Butler, Halifax; Wreath; Dr. G. L. Smith, Halifax, Wreath.

MRS. MURDOCK N. MACIVOR PUGWASH, Oct. 11.-The death of Mr. Murdoch N. MacIvor occurred at his home, Gun Shore, on Tuesday, 26th inst., after a long and painful illness.

The deceased was a son of the late Neil and Margaret (Moreton) MacIvor and at the time of his death was in the 69th year of his age. He is survived by his wife, nee Mary Graham, a daughter, Ethel, wife of Rev. C. W. Kierstead, York, P. E. I.; a son, Wylie G. of Toronto, Ont., and a sister Mrs. John Fraser, of Ross, N.S. Two sisters, Mrs. John Matheson, of Gulf Shore and Mrs. Wellington Fillmore, Cambridge, Mass., predeceased him some years ago. There are five grand children; Little Misses Charlotte, June, Barbara and Betty MacIvor, Toronto and Master Fraser Kierstead, York, P. E. I.

The funeral was held from his late residence on Thursday afternoon, Rev. J. R. Millar, officiating. The hymns, "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "The Sands of Time are Singing" were sung by the Choir. A duet, "The Unclouded Day," which was a great favorite of the deceased, was beautifully rendered by Mrs. (Rev.) J. R. Millar and Mrs. E. M. Cuffey. Mr. Millar paid a splendid tribute to the life and character of the departed and spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family. Interment was in the Fox Harbor Cemetery.

Mr. J. A. Reid was funeral director and the pall bearers were,

REBUILD HAILEYBURY BIGGER AND BETTER

COBALT, Oct. 10.-The town of Cobalt had a narrow escape last night. The flames were within half a mile of the town, and the buildings of the Hudson Bay Mines were consumed. The courage of the people of Haileybury is enthusiastic. "Sure we will rebuild," said Ray Gibson. "We will build a bigger and better Haileybury than ever before."

Laurie Stromberg, Angus MacLeod, and Hydrangeas-Mr. Alex Mac- of sterling character. In religion he was a Presbyterian and his health permitted, he was ways found in his place in the Church. He was a loving husband and a kind, indulgent father. The large concourse of people who attended the last sad rites as well as the beautiful floral tributes, bear silent testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community, and to the sympathy which is felt on all sides for the bereaved widow and family. Mrs. John T. Wood and Kenneth Morrison of Bridgetown, P. E. I. are cousins of the deceased and Mrs. Margaret Morrison is an aunt.
