

Hatchway this Winter

"GOOD-BYE buttons"—that's the glad cry of the man who takes to Hatchway Underwear. He steps on his snug warm Hatchway Winter suit, sees the way it's well-cut lines snugly hold to his body with never a button to shed or break, and then like thousands of his brethren, he becomes a Hatchway fan for life.

Hatchway is the last word in sane, downright underwear comfort; made with the famous "overlap" feature, it slips off in an instant, and cannot bunch or bind. Hatchway Winter Underwear is sold in all sizes, is made in seven qualities of wool and wool-cotton mixtures. It is stronger, longer lived, more durable, more economical and much more comfortable than any other kind of underwear.

Maritime Religious Education Council

The first of a series of interdenominational Young People's rallies across Canada was held at Middleton, N. S., Oct. 4-5. The first meeting was held on the evening of the 4th inst., with Rev. Waldo C. Machum in the chair. After the devotional exercises led by Rev. W. D. Wilson, James Wilson of Middleton was elected president and Miss Viola Tupper of Bridgetown, secretary. Dr. P. R. Hayward of Toronto, General Secretary of the Religious Education Council of Canada, gave the address of the evening on the subject "A National Young Peoples' Programme."

Tuesday morning, Rev. W. H. Watts of Digby led the devotional exercises. Dr. Hayward outlined the essential principles of Young Peoples' work and the conference was divided into two groups,—the ladies under the leadership of Miss Marjory Trotter, Maritime Girls' Work Secretary,—and the gentlemen under Dr. Hayward and Rev. J. H. Freestons, who discussed the relationship of young people to the home and to the boys and girls of the congregation.

In the afternoon, at the close of the devotional period led by Rev. Mr. Gillis, of Waterville, the conference divided into denominational groups,—the Baptists under Rev. Waldo C. Machum; the Methodists and Presbyterians under the joint leadership of Revs. H. S. B. Strothard and F. M. Milligan. At each of these rallies, the denominational programmes were outlined and emphasized, and special attention paid to the relationship of young people to the support of denominational enterprises.

The total registration at the conference was made up as follows:—Baptists 55; Methodists 12; United Church 8; Anglicans 5.

The evening service on Friday was attended by a large number of interesting people, old and young. Rev. H. S. B. Strothard spoke on "Young People and the Kingdom of God," and Dr. H.T. DeWolfe on "The Challenge of Jesus." Both speakers making a strong appeal to the young people present to devote themselves whole-heartedly to the extension of God's kingdom to the doing of Christ's will in the world.

This most successful young peoples' rally was brought to a close with an impressive consecration service, conducted by Rev. F. M. Milligan.

Similar rallies have been held in Sydney, Truro, Fredericton and St. John, details of which will no doubt appear later.

Authorized capital of $7,077,900 is represented by companies whose incorporations were reported to The Monetary Times during the week ended October 6, compared with $15,223,300 for the same week last year. A comparative summary by provinces is as follows:—		Not since the war period have bond sales reached so high a total during any individual month as they did during September, when new financing reached a total of over two hundred and eleven million, according to Monetary Times estimates. Of this amount, however, the Dominion government loan was responsible for two hundred million, although even this deduction total sales are higher than for the previous month and at most equal to those of September last year.		"The Great Western Stampede" by C. E. Gorton, a vivid story of the time when Calgary took on the appearance of old frontier days, is only one of the many interesting articles in the November issue of ROD AND GUN IN CANADA. Those who are interested in hunting will enjoy the good moose hunting story by A. A. Merrill, "Bud Makes Good," the account of the perplexing adventure on the lonely Gannet rock, "Duck Hunting on the Gannet rock," by Bonnycastle Dale, and the thrilling capture of "My Nineteenth Black Bear," by Theodore J. Stocks, who has hunted in the western mountains for fifteen years. A description of the strange island "Barr Island" by C. H. Gibbons is also of particular interest. The November issue contains a dozen good stories and articles for the sportsman, while all the regular departments, "Guns and Ammunition," "Along the Trapline," "Outdoor Talk," "Fishing Notes," and "Kennel," are full of interest and information. F. V. Williams, J. W. Wilson, and Martin Hunter, well known to readers of ROD AND GUN IN CANADA, have all contributed good articles which will be enjoyed. From cover to cover, this issue is packed with interest for everyone keen on any phase of hunting and fishing or outdoor life.
