Jap Prospects Depend on Time

BROOKLYN, Nov. 3 — Panicky Japanese continued firing anti-aircraft guns four hours after the Tokio raiders had left and flames raged in the city until the night of the next day, according to Mr. Ramon LaValle, who was in the city at that time as a member of the Argentine diplomatic service. He spoke in the Academy of Music on the war against the Nipponese Empire.

Mr. LaValle, no longer in the diplomatic service, was in the Japanese capital nine months after going there early in 1942. He told his audience of the complete surprise of the Japanese when General Doolittle's bombers roared over the city April 18, 1942, but he warned that the Japanese people will not crack.

The former attache characterized the Japanese as an intelligent enemy, with "amazing" endurance and tenacity, and said that they were not inferior to Americans.

"Time today is the watchword of Japan", he said. "They need time badly."

Mr. LaValle said he believed the Anglo-American powers can rely on the Russians for help in defeating Japan. He added, however, that Japan must be pounded incessantly by air as Germany now is bombed and the Allies must have air bases in Siberia or China.

As for China, he said, the Allies must destroy the invading army there but "it will be a very difficult job."

Mr. LaValle agreed with the belief of many Allied leaders that Germany must be defeated first. He mentioned the reply of the Soviet military attache in Tokio, who, then asked what he believed would defeat Japan, said "At least two years of general attack from all sides."

He left his Tokio post last January and after three months' travel reached the United States.

Stocks Decline; Blame Rumors

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 — (AP) — Stocks declined fractions to around 2 points today on a selling movement which brokers attributed to early peace anticipations based on further unconfirmed reports that German morale was cracking.

Volume totalled 1,072,250 shares, the first time it topped the million mark since late September, as against Monday's dealings of 648,660 shares. The Associated Press 60 stock composite was down .6 of a point at the closing level of 50.1. It was the widest dip in this index since Aug. 2.

TORONTO, Nov. 3 — (CP) — Traders appeared a bit mystified by the sharp retreat in the stock market today after the opening had shown firmness. Prices slipped off easily after the first hour and were progressively weak till the close. Heavy trading in some of the junior and penny issues boosted volume to 667,000 shares, the heaviest turnover since Sept. 9.

Reports coming out of Europe that the German war machine was having trouble at home were blamed for undermining the support for the war stocks. By mid afternoon the whole list was on the down grade, including golds which had shown small index gain at noon. Golds had a loss of .71, base metals with a drop of .53 and western oils a loss of .16.

The people of Asia are being assailed with propaganda attacking British and American "imperialism" and are being told that long, defensive battles lie ahead for them, under Japan's benevolent guidance, to prevent their being strangled by the Allies.

Anticipate Big Smash

Nippon's militarists anticipate a big land smash against Burma but expect no trouble from Soviet Russia. Nevertheless large Japanese forces are kept along the borders of Soviet Siberia in a precautionary protection of the rear against Russia.

At home the Japanese are engulfed by a wartime fanaticism and jingoism which makes them an effective part of the war machine, despite such hardships as a wartime doubling in living costs, meals poor even to these normally frugal people, and scarcities of coal, clothing and other necessities.

Persons recently in Japan and whose information and judgement we trust say the Nipponese leaders, although convinced that Japan will lose to the Allies in the present war, anticipate another war a generation later in which they will lead the Asiatic races to victory over the white races. To this end the Japanese are said to be sowing the seeds of brotherhood among the Asiatics now, along with seeds of hatred for the whites.

Laugh-Packed Film At The Capitol S'side

The laugh packed story of a hard-hitting newspaper editor who has to take over a "love-lorn" column is the amsing theme of Warned Bros.' new film, "You can't Escape Forever," which started its run yesterday at the Capitol Theatre.

The film stars George Brent and Brenda Marshall who lend a realistic touch to their roles. They envelope just the proper chacterizations of two sophisticated newspaper people who really care for each other but cover their true feelings with wise-cracks and sarcasm.

Brent, as the managing editor runs a story that clearly conveys his suspicion regarding a certain reformer's "natural death." Not having substantial proof, he gets his paper into an embarrassing spot. As a result, he's forced to take over the heart-throb column.

Although disgusted with his new job, and having to take a lot of ribbing especially from Brenda, who handled the spot before he took over, it is through his column that Brent finds a lead to the exploits of a gang of racketeers.

He asks Brenda to help him because the leader of the gang uses a lonely hearts club as a blind for nefarious activities. Through a series of exciting and amusing incidents, they bring the racketeers to bay, and in so doing, reveal that the reformer whose death was supposed to have been a natural one, was the victim of foul pay.

Lady Oakes Tells Story Of Family Tragedy

By E.V.W. JONES
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

NASSAU, BAHAMAS, Nov. 3—(CP) — Lady Oakes, Sir Harry Oakes' widow, told her story of a family tragedy today at the trial of Alfred De Marigny charged with murdering her husband and the crown rested its case.

De Marigny, son-in-law of the Canadian mining millionaire, almost immediately started for the witness stand to defend himself but Chief Justice Sir Oscar Bedford Daly decided to postpone his appearance until tomorrow.

Thirty-four witnesses had testified and the deposition of another had been read when Attorney General Eric Hallinan announced at 3:18 p.m. that the crown's case had been concluded.

Sir Oscar gave De Marigny the choice of remaining silent, of giving an unsworn statement from the prisoner's dock, or of testifying under oath from the witness stand and submitting to cross-examination.

"I will testify," De Marigny said in a clear, loud voice

Lady Oakes—her voice occasionally breaking with the sorrow which came to her when her husband's beaten and burned body was discovered here last July—laid bare the troubles which beset the family after her 18-year-old daughter, Nancy, was married last year to the twice-divorced De Marigny.

She related how "we tried to make the best of a very bad situation" once she and Sir Harry learned of the marriage.

But soon Nancy fell deathly ill of typhoid fever in Mexico, and before she was recovered "we learned that she was pregnant, and for her health it had to be terminated." There were two operations to achieve the purpose, Lady Oakes said.

"Sir Harry was terribly resentful," said the widow.

"How did you yourself feel about this matter" asked the Attorney-General.

"I felt as any mother would under the circumstances.

"I had told Alfred to take the utmost care of Nancy."

She confirmed previous testimony that Sir Harry threatened to kick De Marigny out of a room he had reserved next to Nancy's at the hospital with a plan of undergoing a tonsillectomy.

When she left the hospital, Nancy came to Nassau with De Marigny.

Last June, Lady Oakes said, she received a letter from Nancy in which the daughter "said they would have nothing to do with the Oakes family until Alfred was received into the family circle."

the Russians, by-passing the sealed-off peninsula in the north, were attacking in the south with amphibious combat teams of land, sea and air forces which had wiped the Germans from the Caucasus.

The Russians have won back 369,000 square miles from the Germans, who had invaded a total of 754,000 square miles of Russia.

In the autumn of 1941 the Germans held 590,000 square miles when they rushed toward Moscow and failed to take it. In 1942, when the Moscow salient had been beaten back, the Germans again thrust out toward Stalingrad to reach a high-water mark of 655,000 square miles.

This autumn the Germans reeled back until they now hold an estimated 365,000 square miles, Moscow dispatches said.

N.B.Lobster Packers Sue Steel Corporation

POINT DU CHENE, N.B., Nov. 2—(CP)—Mr. Justice J.H.A.L. Fairweather, of the New Brunswick Supreme Court, visited Point Du Chene tonight to inspect property involved in a suit by the Eastern Lobster Packing Co., against the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation.

The Lobster Packing Company is seeking $65,097 damages, claiming that alleged trespass made it impossible for them to operate their business. The plaintiffs contend that pipes and tracks were laid on their lands and wharves here by the defendants, that timber was left on the property and that coal dust from storage bins saturated the water.

The case will be continued at a date yet to be announced.

N. Y. Election For Lieut. Governorship

NEW YORK, Nov. 3—(AP)—The Lieutenant Governorship of New York remained Republican today in an election which Governor Thomas E. Dewey interpreted as a vote of confidence in his administration.

The election of State Senator Joe R. Hanley, 67, by nearly 350,000 votes over Lt.-Gen. William N. Haskell, 65, retired, Democratic and American Labor Party nominee, was expected to inject Dewey more than ever into the 1944 Presidential picture.

The vote in 8,907 of the state's 8,987 districts was Hanley 1,824,903 and Haskell 1,473,530.

The election also saw former Magistrate Thomas A. Aurello win easily a 14-year term as a state supreme Court Justice at an annual salary of $25,000 a year despite the fact that the Democratic and Republican leadership had repudiated their nomination of him.

Old-Type Planes Used In Famous Taranto Raid

LONDON, Nov. 3—(CP) — The Admiralty disclosed tonight that 21 almost-obsolete Biplanes were the raiders that put half the Italian battle fleet out of action at Taranto naval base the night of Nov. 11-12, 1940.

Extent of the damage inflicted was known soon after the raid but it remained for the new admiralty publication "fleet air arm" to tell of the raiding force which crippled Axis sea power in the Mediterranean.

The torpedo-carrying Biplanes were launched from the carrier Illustrious and only two were lost. Plans for the attack had been drawn up as far back as 1938—at instigation of Acmiral of the fleet Sir Dudley Pound, former first Sea Lord, who died in London last month.

Contemporary accounts of the raid said at least two and probably three battleships in Taranto harbor were seriously damaged while three cruisers and two Auxiliary vessels also were badly damaged. In those dark days of 1940, with Britain being heavily bombed and France prostrate, the Taranto attack was hailed as Britain's biggest naval victory of the war.

positions from which to hammer the enemy's expected withdrawal across the Gargliano River Valley toward the 4,600 foot Aurunci mountain range.

There was scant prospect, however, that Allied troops could move out into the mine strewn valley swiftly enough to trap any substantial portion of German forces retreating from Massico Ridge.

Nazi defences sprang another leak on the 8th Army's Adriatic front, where British and Canadian troops surged across the Trigno River an undisclosed distance inland from the original bridgehead at San Salvo near the coast.

It was not disclosed what Canadian units took part in this operation, staged well east of the Apennine mountain sector where the Canadian 1st Division forms the left wing of the 8th Army driving on the road hub of Isernia. However it is known that the Three Rivers Tank Regiment, part of the Canadian 1st Army Tank Brigade, is with the British right wing of the 8th. Army.

The Three Rivers Regiment and the Irish Brigade were formally named by Allied Headquarters during the day as the units which made an amphibious landing at Termoli early in October. On Oct. 6 an important battle was fought at Termoli in which 14 German tanks were knocked out, 10 of them by the Three Rivers tankmen. Such formal naming of a unit by headquarters is regarded as tribute for courageous fighting. The only other Canadian unit so named at Algiers is the 48th Highlanders of Canada, a Toronto unit, which played a large part in Italian mountain fighting.

Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's 8th Army was being forced to fight hard for every yard it gained. Enemy resistance was stiff in all sectors.

The Germans called upon their hoarded stock of tanks in an effort to beat back American troops who drove three miles northward to win the last heights across the Upper Volturno Valley from Venafro.

This advance swept up Pratella, nine miles southeast of Venafro, and Gallo, about the same distance south of Isernia, as well as eight other mountain towns and villages in the thickly populated area.

De Marigny's Former Wives

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 3 — (AP) — Court records here show that both former wives of Alfred De Marigny, on trial at Nassau on a charge of slaying his father in law, Sir Harry Oakes, obtained Miami divorces.

His first wife was Lucie - Alice Cahen whom he married in Paris March 22, 1937. She charged that he neglected her and "flirted with other women."

De Marigny was married next to Ruth Fahnestock, daughter of a wealthy New York broker, at Sutcliffe, Nev., on Nov. 23, 1937 and she obtained a divorce here April 17, 1940, on the grounds of "cruel and inhuman treatment."

DOGS CAME FIRST

ELLESMERE PORT, England — (CP) — A 68-year-old widow who had not taken a holiday in 12 years in order to look after her 35 dogs was summoned in this Cheshire town, for causing the dogs unnecessary suffering. She was fined the equivalent of $4.50 and $9 costs and her kennel ordered cut to four dogs.

Canadian Cod Fishermen Reap Vital Wartime Harvest

From the picturesque shores of the Gaspe Peninsula, flotillas of graceful fishing schooners daily put out to sea carrying more than 3,500 fishermen to their rugged jobs. These men annually bring in catches totalling more than 35 million pounds of cod fish to swell the food and medical supplies of the United Kingdom. Cod is dried an cured for overseas shipment, thus saving valuable cargo space, while the livers yield precious vitamin-rich oil. Some of the 1,800 boats used during the fishing season, which lasts from June through November are shown at sea in the top photo. A young fisherman displays a prize catch at lower left. Lower centre photo shows cod filet being cured with salt in huge barrels. Chemist at right is preparing cod livers, from which 75,000 gallons of cod liver oil are produced annually. Marketing through their cooperatives brings fishermen an average of six cents a pound for their catch. (National Film Board Photos).

Increase In Pensions To Aged And Blind

Old age pensions payments in this Province have been increased to a maximum of $25.00 per month, it was learned yesterday. This is an increase from the $18.00 maximum established last year. The new rate goes into effect as from Oct. 1. Prior to last year and from the inception of the scheme in 1933, the maximum rate was $15.00 per month.

Maximum pensions to the blind have been increased on the same basis.

The average pension paid in the Province varies from month to month with the number of deaths. In January there were 1,912 old age pensioners, and they received an average of $13.53. In October they numbered 1,877 and their average pension, on the increased payment basis, was $18.58.

Similarly, blind pensioners, numbering 117 in January received an average pension of $16.14. In October they numbered 114 and their average pension was increased to $22.32.

Old age pensions amounted to approximately $35,000 in October, and pensions to the blind another $2,554.

Under both schemes, the Dominion Government continues to pay three quarters of the total pensions.

From July 1, 1933 to June 30, 1943 — the ten year period in which the scheme has been in operation, the Dominion Government has contributed $1,721,299 to old age pensions in this Province. Its contribution to blind pensioners since the establishment of blind pensions in 1937, has been $72,194.

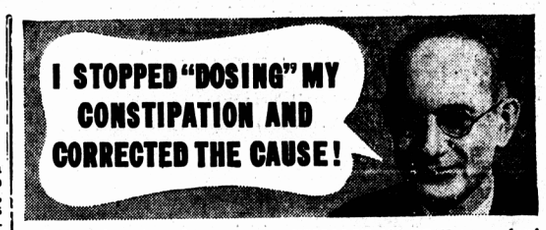
I STOPPED "DOSING" MY CONSTIPATION AND CORRECTED THE CAUSE!



● In these busy days of war you owe it to your country—as well as to yourself—to keep "in the pink". That's why it's so important to avoid the common type of constipation caused by lack of "bulk" in the diet. And do it by getting right at the cause instead of "dosing" with harsh purgatives that give only temporary relief. Just follow this simple plan. Eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN every day! It's delicious as a cereal or in hot, tasty muffins. Drink plenty of water. Then see if you don't agree ALL-BRAN is the "better way" to natural regularity. But remember, eat ALL-BRAN every day!

Grocers have ALL-BRAN in two convenient sizes. Made by Kellogg's in London, Canada.

Cost Of Living Bonus Increases

OTTAWA, Nov 3—(CP)—Cost-of-living bonus payments to wage-earners in most Canadian industries will be increased 35 cents a week or 1.4 per cent of wages—depending on wage category of the workers — effective Nov. 15, it was announced today.

The cost of the increase to Canadian employers is estimated unofficially at about $53,000,000 a year.

The maximum bonus now will be $4.60 a week, instead of the $4.25 a week which has been in effect since August, 1942. Workers who have been receiving 60 cents a week—minimum and compulsory bonus—will get 95 cents.

The maximum bonus now is based on a wartime increase of 18.4 per cent in the official cost-of-living index maintained by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Allied Ship Burns In Halifax Harbor

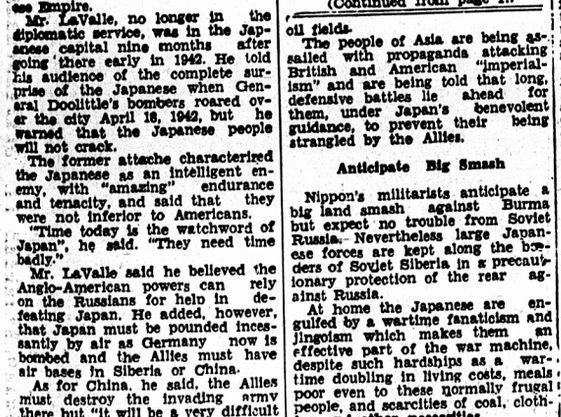
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 3 — (CP) — An Allied ship caught fire in Halifax harbour today and, after a fireboat had fought the flames for hours, the vessel was towed to a spot outside the mouth of the port.

The merchant ship was lying in Bedford Basin, the harbour's inner anchorage, when the fire started. Cause of the outbreak was not known.

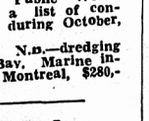
A bevy of more than a dozen tugs moved the vesel several miles downstream and past the harbour gates. Smoke was still pouring from her holds as she travelled past the downtown section of the city.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 — (AP) — The former French liner Normandie, now the U. S. S. Lafayette was moved from its North River pier at the foot of 48th Street today for the first time since the United States entered the war.

A swarm of tugboats pulled the giant 83,000 ton hulk to a drydock where it will be fitted out for naval service.



Painful, Pus Filled Boils the Cause of Much Misery



If you suffer from boils you know how sick and miserable they made you feel.

Boils are an outward indication of impurities in the system, and just when you think you are rid of one another crops up to take its place and prolong your misery. All the lancing and poulticing you can do may not stop more coming.

To help overcome boils you should purify the blood, so why not give that old, reliable blood medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, a chance to show what it will do in helping you get rid of them? Thousands have used it for this purpose for the past 60 years. Why not you?
