Thirteen members from Charlottetown and eleven from Summerside were present. Mr. Earle Cannon, the president, was in the chair. After dinner had been served by Mrs. Arthur McEwen, a number of matters concerning the work of the organization were discussed and an entertainment committee and resolutions committee were appointed, each consisting of two members from Charlottetown and two from Summerside.

George V. Fraser (above), Maritime manager of British United Press for the past three years with headquarters in Halifax, has been promoted to the management of the company's Montreal Bureau. A native of Montague, Prince Edward Island, Mr. Fraser began his newspaper career with The Guardian in Charlottetown where he also served for a time as public relations officer with the Pries Board before joining BUP. Prior to taking over the Maritime management, he opened and took charge of a bureau in Moncton, N.B. Succeeding him in the Maritimes is Robert J. McCleave, a law graduate of Dalhousie University. Mr. McCleave is presently with the public relations department of the Canadian National Railways in Montreal.

MAIL COURIER REMEMBERED - A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Williams, North River, when the York Point and North River boxholders assembled to show their appreciation to their mail courier, Nelson Williams. At nine o'clock they all proceeded to the livingroom where Mr. Wesley Bell read an address, and Mr. Andrew MacEachern presented Nelson with a well-filled purse. Nelson in his own way thanked the people very kindly and then they bounced him to the ceiling singing "For He's A Jolly Good Mail Driver". The rest of the evening was spent in games and dancing, music being furnished by Francis Doyle in his usual good style. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by ladies present. In the wee small hours of the morning they departed to their respective homes knowing they had an excellent evening.

RELATIVES, NEIGHBOURS AND FRIENDS learned with deep regret of the sudden passing of Mrs. Wilbert MacPhail of Argyle, P.E.I., at the early age of 35 years. Mrs. MacPhail had been in her usual good health up till a few days previous to her death, when on March 17, she passed peacefully to her Eternal Home.

Five-year-old Patricia A. Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, was badly burned in the fire which destroyed the general store of Harry MacLaughlin at Stanhope on Tuesday. She is in the Charlottetown Hospital with serious burns on body and legs. It was reported that the fire started when oil was put on a fire while starting it. The can exploded and the little girl ran from the building covered with flaming oil. The child and an older sister were together in the store at the time.
