THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN
 Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all. Alex McLeod, Montague, was in the city yesterday.

The Cascadia will leave Montreal for Charlottetown, Monday, May the 23rd.

E. J. Terry, representing James Robertson Co Ltd, St John, N. B., was in the City yesterday.

Attention is called to the ad. of the estate of Maria Hayden, late of Vernon River, in Queen's County, which appears in this issue.

The freight and passenger steamer Rosalind sailing from Montreal May 21 is due at Charlottetown May 24th. The ad appears elsewhere in this issue.

There were no cases before the Police Court in this city yesterday.

The attention of readers is directed to the ad of the Spirella Corset shop which appears elsewhere in this issue.

John Horne, of Winsloe, shipped twenty-two horses yesterday morning. One pair of matched dapple greys were pronounced by a number of expert judges to be a superior lot.

An oversight in proof-reading made The Guardian say yesterday morning that the comet would hereafter appear in the eastern sky after sunset. The western sky was intended, as the context shows.

Rev. D. McLean will preach at Nine Mile Creek on Thursday, the 19th inst, at 7.30 p. m.; St. Catherine's, Saturday evening; Churchill, on Sabbath, the 22nd, at 10.30, and in the People's Church at 7 p. m.; Monday, the 23rd, at Stanchel.

The many in this Province familiar with his force as a preacher will learn with regret that Rev. J. J. Teasdale, once one of the most popular preachers in the Methodist church in the maritime provinces, is quite ill, in London, Ontario, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lettiney, formerly of Digby.

Rev. R. H. A. Haslam, well known as an agitator of North Western missions and who has conducted services in St. Peter's and St. Paul's churches in this city will go to Halifax for the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England and will be the guest here of Ven. Archdeacon and Mrs. Armitage, who are well known here.

W. Halpenny, of the Montreal A. A. A., champion pole-vaulter, whom Charlottetown claims the honor of producing, has been invited to attend a big athletic meet at Pittsburg on June 18th. The event is being arranged by the Pittsburg Press and among the competitors will be Shephard, Gessing, Rosenberger, Robbins, Keviat, Flannigan, McGee, and other famous New York athletes. Mr. Halpenny will probably accept.

The auction sale of the Douse property on Queen Street was held yesterday. The properties offered were the stores occupied by James Callaghan, tailor; J. Riggs, barber; and Wakelin & Essory, boot and shoe men. None was sold. The Callaghan building was reserved for $2100. The highest bid was $1900. There was a reserve bid on the other of $6000, and the highest offer was $5,000. These properties bring in a rental of about $1,000 a year.

The second game of the Junior Base-Ball League, was played yesterday afternoon at Victoria Park, between the Orleans and Empires. After fighting hard for nine innings, the Orleans defeated their opponents by 16 to 8. R. Warburton umpired the game to the satisfaction of all. As the Abbies and Vics could not manage to get a junior team together this leaves only the Orleans and Empires in the League, and each standing with even honors, having won one and lost one each. Only one game more remains to be played and which ever team wins will be entitled to the handsome trophy donated by L. B. Miller, Principle of the Charlottetown Business College.

Yesterday morning two enthusiastic young horsemen, each the owner of a reputed trotter started a conversation in a certain gangway in this city, on the respective merits of their animals. The conversation was long and finally it was decided to post up $50 and run off a match race to decide the question. They withdrew to a building in the rear of the gangway to complete arrangements for the event. While in the building it is surmised that the previous argument must have had some startling effect on the minds of the owners of the fast ones, for they evidently ran the race off (mentally) while under the stress of mental argumentative excitement. While under the impression that the first heat was in progress, one smote the other emphatically, the weapon in the case being a healthy chair. The chair was undamaged but the senior competitor's head suffered to some extent. This ended the imaginary heat, the chair jigger winning by a head—or a chair. The victim of this short encounter interviewed a medico for the purpose of alleviating his sufferings. His countenance is now considerably brightened by the addition of two pieces of sticking plaster, one over the left eye and another strip on his upper lip, to say nothing of a prominent welt on the northeast side of his head. The $50 has not been awarded yet as it is reported only one heat has been run off.

A long felt want supplied. Reindeer Condensed Cocoa in liquid form, milk and sugar combined. Just add boiling water. Will keep in same can after opening. 5-19d11.

The jewellers in this city have agreed to close their places of business on Friday in memory of Edward the Peace Maker.

A team from St Dunstan's College will play a game of baseball with the Victorians of this city at Victoria Park this afternoon.

Any city girl with a fair education, who desires to learn type setting, should call at the Guardian office between eight and ten this morning.

The officers, N. C. O's and men of No. 2 Company 4th C. A. must meet at 9.30 sharp at the Drill Shed tomorrow morning. By order of the O. C.

Out of respect to the memory of his late Majesty, King Edward VII, Beer & Weeks' store will close at 10 a.m. Friday and remain closed during the remainder of the day.

In the Methodist Church at Vernon River South on Friday evening, May 20th, a memorial service for King Edward will be conducted by Rev. D. B. McLeod and Rev. George Orman.

The parishioners of St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora, will hold their annual tea on July 19th. There will be special train arrangements and all kinds of amusements, particulars of which will be given later.

By a telegram received yesterday, the serious illness is reported of Mrs. Henry Cooper of Bear River, N. S., formerly of this city. Her son, C. H. Cooper, left New York Tuesday for Bear River. Her many friends in this city will eagerly await news of her recovery.

The Church of England services tomorrow, the day of the King's funeral will be as follows: Church celebration of the Holy Communion, St. Peter's Cathedral, 8 a. m.; united memorial service for St. Peter's and St. Paul's congregations in St. Paul's Church at 11 a. m.

Notwithstanding The Guardian's reminder of some days ago to the obliging Chairman of the Street Committee, the lower end of Great George Street from Water Street to the steamer's wharf is as dry and dusty as it has always been in dry weather, greatly to the inconvenience and annoyance of a host of people.

In their regular space in this issue, Johnson & Johnson make a liberal offer to all users of Eastman Kodak Films. The latest and most up-to-date method of developing is employed and new developer used for each film.

Rev Dr and Mrs Heartz and their daughter Mrs (Dr) Arthur Johnson, are in this city. They will spend the summer months at the Old Heartz homestead. The doctor has recently returned from Bermuda, where he fulfilled some preaching engagements. As a member of the Methodist Conference of Nova Scotia, although not having any regular congregation the doctor is still in active ministry and is continually filling engagements in the pulpits of the Methodist churches here and in the other provinces. His numerous friends and admirers here will be pleased to see him enjoying his usual health and vigor.

A correspondent from Granville writes:—Miss Keir and Miss Dunning who spent the winter in Charlottetown have returned to their homes in Granville—Cathel and Mrs MacLeod of Quincy, Mass. have purchased a farm in Granville where they intend to reside. The farm is in a flourishing condition and gives promise of good work in the future.—John I. Taylor, Charlottetown, recently paid a flying visit to friends in Stanley and Hope River. Owing to the stress of farm work D. S. Dunning has taken his speedy chestnut game off the race track.—A. H. Chappell is again seen on the road with his beautiful horse Prince Craigmere.—Reuben Chappell is diligently training the well-known pacer Peg-leg.—Messrs Ward & Chappell have the contract of mecadamizing the road from Mallett's bridge to Folland's corner.

This Store closes Friday 20th inst from 10.30 a. m. to 1 p. m. only.

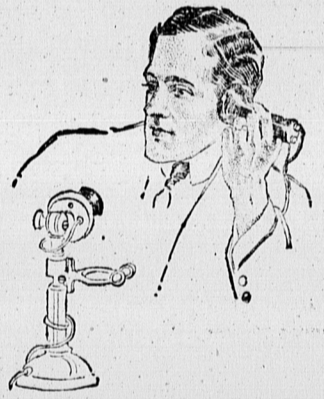

Some of the newest models in 1910 suits

This spring has been a wonderfully good season in the mantle department—selling more suits than ever since we commenced handling the line. The cuts above—if the GUARDIAN has been able to print them clearly—will illustrate the main style tendencies shown in the department. The fabrics are largely hard finish worsteds—a good many Venetians and Broadcloths as well as many serges. The colours run the gamut of the new ideas. We have the sizes and style that you want—and the prices are mainly $16.50, 18.50, 19.50, 21.50, 23, 25 up.

A mail order talk---over the phone

Here it is—substantially as it occurred in fact word for word as well as a good memory preserves the conversation.
 "Brrrrrrr" went the phone.
 "Hello" said the man at the desk.
 "Have you the NEMO Corset, style 305?" continues the phone.
 "Certainly—what size? came the answer?"
 "I've a mail order catalog here—and I want to see if you will sell the line just as cheaply" came the phone.
 "Surely, we will" came back the reply.
 "Well their price is $3.50" persisted the phone.

"That's all right" said the man at the desk. "In that case we'll save you just 18 cents"
 "The mail order price is 3.50—plus 18 cents for postage which amounts to 3.68. Our price is $3.50, delivered at once—right at your door.
 "Send them right up" said the phone.
 And so it goes on—this great and growing store is able and willing to meet and beat any prices made by anybody anywhere anytime. All we ask is a chance to compare—and the order is as good as ours already.
