CLEAN STOVES.

Gas stoves should be cleaned twice a week by washing with soap and water and rubbing with kerosene when the metal is both dry and cold. Newspapers should be used instead of cloths for cleaning.

Dig over the used up radish patch for a row of string beans. Scatter a little fertilizer and rake it in before planting. Ridges on a new rubber mat to keep a flower pot from marring paint or varnish permit air to reach the bottom of a pot to ventilate a plant it contains.
