THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province. STURGEON TEA—The parishioners of Sturgeon will hold an ice cream social on the church grounds on Wednesday, July 1, beginning at 2 p. m.

HAIR BEAUTIFIER—All who desire beautiful hair should get Mrs. White's hair lotion. Call on her at The Lennox Hotel.

SURVIVING SISTERS—The name of one of the surviving sisters of Adelaide Wilson, was not published in the report of her death. The sisters are:—Viola at home and Mrs. Bert Sturdy of Crapaud, Mrs. Jessie Oak-les of Westmorland, Mrs. Mark McVittle of Westmorland and Mrs. Elmer Pearson of Chelton.

ATTRACTIVE PROPOSITION—Attention is directed to the advertisement of Carruthers Silver Black Fox Co., Montague, which appears in this issue. An exceptionally good feature of this proposition is that the foxes will be reared by a very efficient rancher for a fraction of one per cent, of the estimated increase.

VICTORIA SHIPPING—The Schr. W. Parnell O'Hare, Captain Allan McLean in charge, docked at How- with seventy thousand of lumber at's wharf Friday. She was laden which she brought from the Mira- michi for Mr. Geo. Ives of Tryon. The Schr. Bonus, Captain Straight in charge, is loading produce at Govern- ment wharf. When loaded she will sail for Cape Breton.

AGENTS WANTED—Live and reliable agents wanted in every district throughout the Province to sell stock in the Canada Atlantic Fox and Fur Co., Limited. Guarantees 10 per cent, each dividend annually for the next five years. None but reliable and hustling representatives need apply. For full particulars as to com- mission, etc., write J. Stanley Wed- lock, Secretary-Treasurer, Charlot- town.

WEDDING BELLS—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Straight, Vic- toria, presented a very interesting and attractive appearance at 8.30 o'clock Wednesday evening, June 24th, when their daughter, Miss Beth, Blanche Straight became the wife of Mr. Miner MacNevin, also of Vic- toria. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. George M. Young in the presence of immediate relatives. The bride, who was given away by her father, presented a beautiful ap- pearance in a white voile dress trim- med with satin and lace. She car- ried a bouquet of white lilacs and lilies of the Valley. The wedding march was played by Miss Francis Rogerson. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful sunburst o- pearl. The wedding gifts were great in number and quality, among them being a substantial cheque from the firm of Wright Bros., with whom the groom was employed. The Guardian joins with a host of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacNevin many and happy years in their new state.

NYLONS FACE CREAM—We can not say too much in favour of this cream. Every time we sell a jar we make a customer for our store, they are sure to come again it gives such excellent satisfaction. Nylons Tal- cum Powder is a gem also 25c. each E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore.

SERIOUS FIRE—A serious fire oc- curred at Pleasant Valley on June 23rd when the dwelling house of Mr. Benjamin Young has burned to the ground. The fire was caused by a spark from the kitchen stove and was not discovered in time to save any of the furniture or contents of the house, another outbuilding was also burned and the loss which Mr. Young has sustained is very severe as he had no insurance.

HORSES TO BE RACED—The Mc- Kinnon Drug Company will race the following horses at Summerside on July 1. On Dominion Day: Dr. Sharper, 2.19; Orwell Bell, 2.23; and Helen R, in the sulky at Summerside. He will drive Moth Miller in the 2.30 class.

COMING EVENT—H. Price Wed- ber presents the Boston Comedy Company in the new drama, "A Queen for a Day," at the Prince Ed- ward Opera House, July 1st. The popular actress, Edwina Grey, in the title role.

THE REXALL NEWS—The July number of this small pamphlet has just been issued by the McKinnon Drug Co. It is replete with wise sayings and doings, excellent recipes for cooking and directions for taking care of one's health. The number is very appropriate to the First of July, Dominion Day, cover being decorated with a Union Jack, beneath which is inscribed: "The Flag which braved a thousand years the battle and the breeze." The pamphlet can be obtained free from the McKinnon Drug Store.

A UNIQUE SOUVENIR—Messrs James Paton & Co., have on exhibi- tion and for sale a unique souvenir of the Island. It takes the form of a cushion top, and on a back ground of Khaki is set out a beautifully de- signed silver black fox, surrounded by maple leaves in natural tints and colored map of the Island. The design and general workmanship are by Mr. Rowland Paton, and the souvenirs are proving popular sell- ers.

If you desire absolute purity whole some and delicious confectionery you will be particularly pleased with our Willard's chocolates. We have just received a fresh shipment direct from the makers and know the variety of flavors, dainty freshness, unques- tionable purity and palate pleasing properties, you will find that these fill the bill.
