For His Own House

No one knows better than a professional painter what poor economy it is to use cheap paint. Sometimes he is compelled to use it on other people's buildings, in order to meet their demand for a low price; but when he paints his own house, he chooses the best paint he can get—knowing it not only makes the best-looking job at the beginning, but is also cheapest in the end.

"ENGLISH" B-H PAINT

is known among painters throughout Canada as being of a quality not approached by many other paints. Its guaranteed formula:

70% Brandram's B.B. Pure White Lead
30% Pure White Zinc
100% Pure Paint

is recognised as combining the world's two standard paint materials in exactly the right proportions to meet Canadian climatic conditions. These materials, and our special methods of grinding and mixing, produce a paint with maximum penetration, ease of working, good appearance and durability.

See that it's used on Your Buildings!

THURSDAY

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage took place at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, North Battleford, Sask., October 2nd, of Miss Mary Josephine MacAree, daughter of Mrs. Mary MacAree, of this City, to Mr. Joseph E. Gillis, Barrister, formerly of this City, now of Blairton, Alta.

NEW PASTORATE.—Rev. J. D. McLeod, Mrs. McLeod, and their son, Fenwick, who have been visiting the former's home in Montague, were the guests of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman, city, this week, preparatory to their departure for Canso, N. S., where Mr. McLeod has accepted the pastorate recently vacated by Rev. Mr. Freeman. Mr. McLeod resigned the pastorate of Paradise, N. S., congregation, to accept this charge. They left for Canso yesterday morning.

DEATH.—The death occurred at his home in Charlottetown yesterday of Mr. Jas. Kelly, of the firm of Kelly, Taylor & Co. Deceased had been in failing health for several months. He engaged in the grocery business for a number of years and was well and favorably known. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow and six children to whom the Guardian tenders its sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place on Friday at 9.45 a. m. from his late residence, Pownall Street, to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to the Catholic Cemetery.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very happy event took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes, of Hampshire, on Sept. 27th, when their only daughter, Miss Elsie May, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Colby C. Lewis, of Freetown. The ceremony took place at 7 p. m. The bride entered the parlor, which was artistically arranged with autumn leaves and flowers by Mrs. D. T. Fraser of Kensington, on the arm of her father, to the strains of a wedding march beautifully rendered by Mrs. Charlie Taylor, of Freetown. Miss Eva Taylor made a pretty flower girl. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Arthur R. Hurn, of North River. The bride looked exceedingly nice in a handsome dress of shadow lace over white silk, with the conventional veil and orange blossoms and large bouquet of white asters and maiden hair fern. After the ceremony the young couple were seated at a table in the dining room, where they were joined by the bride's father, who presented her with a sum of money. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and social games which all present enjoyed. On the following evening the happy couple left by train for their future home in Freetown, where Mr. Lewis is a progressive young farmer. On the evening of the wedding an old time chivalrie was held by the younger friends, and their behavior was all that could be desired, and while affording lots of fun they also wished the newly-weds all the blessings of a happy married life.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.—The Prince County Hospital gratefully acknowledges the following donations:—350 Glenwood Sunday School; apples, potatoes, onions, turnips, Mr. McCormac, St. Eleanor's; apples and carrots, a friend, Bedeque; corn, cucumbers and cut flowers, Rev. Father Arsenault, Mt. Carmel; 3 bus. apples, cucumbers and cut flowers, Rev. Ayers, Bedeque; 1 qt. raspberry jam, Mrs. Gordon McQuarrie; 2 jars mustard pickles, 1 jar tomato jam, Mrs. Percy Tanton, Summerside; 1 jar chow, 1 jar mustard pickles, Mrs. Jessie Eustace, Summerside; 2 wild ducks, Miss Gertrude Wright, Middleton; 1 bottle preserves, Mrs. Cousins, Summerside; potatoes, carrots, parsnips, beets, Mr. John Waugh, Summerside; 1/2 bus. tomatoes, lettuce, Mrs. Campton, Summerside; 1 jar chow, 1/2 gal. preserves, Mrs. Holden Mills, Summerside; 2 pts. plums, 1 bus. potatoes, Mr. James Callbeck, Linkletter; $1, a friend; cabbage, Miss Blackmore; 5 qts plums, Mrs. John Crofer, Malpeque; buttermilk, Mrs. Geo. THE NATIONAL MISSIONS of Repentance and Hope is being held by the Church of England throughout the Empire during the months of October and November with the object of deepening the spiritual life of the nation. In this city the Mission Services will be conducted by the Rev. H. M. Littles of Montreal who has taken part in a number of such Missions. The Rev. W. A. Hubbard of Port Greville, and the Rev. J. L. S. Foster of Hubbards will also assist.

RED POINT.—Harvest concluded, oats a fair crop, wheat short, potatoes abundant, with good demand, and good prices for all. The starch factory in East Baltic is running and grinding up large quantities of potatoes. Fair catches of mackerel have been made the last week as far west as Naufrage on the north side, and small quantities taken west to Fraser's Harbor on the south side of East Point, but present indications are not favorable to a large catch. A large catch of codfish this season, and prices high, and a fair catch of hake with the highest prices ever known, makes it good for the fishermen. Miss Lulu Ballem is visiting at Red Point, the guest of Miss Bessie Robertson.

Another brave P. E. Island boy has yielded up his life for the great cause. Parker H. Crockett, son of Captain George Crockett of Little York. Deceased was one of the first men from this Province to volunteer his services and was in many of the hardest battles of the war, escaping without a scratch until the fatal day which brought his life to a close. Deep sympathy will go out to his parents and his brothers and sisters. The eldest brother Edwin is the Inspector of the Bank of Nova Scotia, another Vernon is now in England with the 105th Battalion. The sisters are Mrs. Ambrose Rodd, Milton; Mrs. Bruce Duck, Charlottetown and Myrtle at home.

An Islander reported seriously ill at the front is Private F. E. Martin of Belfast.

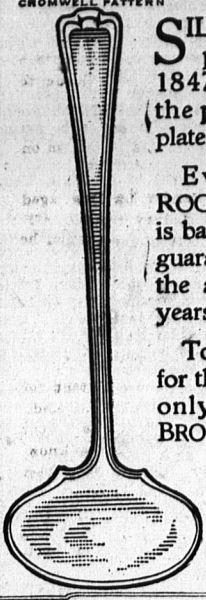

WEDDING BELLS.—Miss Georgia A. McTague of Tignish, P. E. I., was married on the 28th inst. to Melbourne Hemphill, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, at St. Peter's Roman Catholic church, Dorchester, Mass. The bride was given away by her brother, Ernest, and her other brother, W. R. McTague, acted as groomsmen, with Miss Mary Trainor as bridesmaid. Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Derby, assistant pastor, and music was rendered by the choir. The bride was beautifully attired in a dress of white satin, veiled, orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums and white roses. The bridesmaid wore a dress of lemon colored chiffon and carried a bouquet of tea roses. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to the home of the bride's brother, where breakfast was served, and afterwards left by train on their honeymoon trip to White Mountain and New York, where they intend spending some days with the groom's brother before returning to their home in the West.

POULTRYMEN MEET.—The regular monthly meeting of the P. E. Island Poultry Association took place last evening in the L. O. A. Hall, and was well attended. It was decided to hold their annual Poultry Show, this winter, but the date and place has been left over until the November meeting. A great deal of interest has been awakened to the poultry association of late, many new members being added to their roll, and most of the old ones are coming back. Altogether it looks as if their show that is planned to take place this winter, will be the best ever held on the Island.

EMYVALE.—The standing of the pupils of Emyvale School is as follows: Teachers Mary Callaghan, Katie M. Clarkin. Grade VI—1st Susie Curley, 2nd, Sarah Hagan, 3rd, Mary Murray.
