

MAXIMS
OF A
MERE MAN
The way clears at once for him who begins.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody
Covers Prince Edward Island Like the Dew

MAXIMS
OF A
MERE MAN
To see the right and not do it is cowardice.

Morning Guardian, Founded 1857
Charlottetown Guardian Two Cents
CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 1935 8 PAGES
Annual Subscription Delivered 35 Cts
By Mail Canada and U. S. A. 94 Cts

JAP FORCES THREATEN CHAHAR PROVINCE

New Brunswick Presents Claim For More Subsidy

Want Minimum Increase Of $1,844,425—Premier MacMillan Opens Case For Prince Edward Island.

(C. F. by Guardian's Special Wire)
OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—New Brunswick claims a minimum increase of $1,844,425 in the annual subsidy paid to the Province by the Dominion.

Before the White Royal Commission in further support of the demands put forward by Premier L. P. D. Tilley, this claim was advanced by Attorney General W. H. Harrison for New Brunswick at a late sitting on Saturday. The amount requested is in addition to the "interim" subsidy of $650,000 recommended by the Duncan Commission of 1926 and the regular yearly subsidy of $600,000.

Taking up the subject of the lands given to Quebec in 1898 and in 1912 to Ontario in 1912, Col. Harrison stated that with a value of one dollar per acre placed upon

NINE WOMEN ON TRIAL FOR LIVES

Are Charged With Poisoning Husbands, Relatives, Whose Property They Allegedly Coveted.

(Copyright 1935 By The Associated Press)
(C. F. by Guardian's Special Wire)
DEBRECZEN, Hungary, Jan. 27.—Nine Hungarian women will be tried for their lives tomorrow on the charge that they poisoned their husbands or other relatives. The first proceedings involved 10 women. One was hanged, the others sentenced to life imprisonment.

Poison obtained by steeping fly paper in hot water was used, the prosecution charges, to put out of the way husbands no longer wanted or relatives whose property the defendants allegedly coveted.

One of the women, Mrs. John Nagy, the prosecution charges, poisoned not only her husband but also 10 other persons. To her husband's grandchild, it is alleged, she gave poison because she did not like the sight of him. Another child, it is alleged, she put out of the way because its crying annoyed her.

The 40-year-old woman also is accused of preparing the poison and selling it to other women of the village who wished to destroy their husbands.

Behind these multiple murders, the prosecution contends, is a story

Big Increase In Estimated Value Of Field Crops

(C. F. by Guardian's Special Wire)
OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—Figures released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics show that the estimate of value of Canada's field crops had increased almost $8,500,000 from the first estimate made a month ago. The estimate was $44,874,000, or $91,376,500 above the revised estimate for the 1933 crop.

The increase in the estimate of the 1934 crop was entirely due to the higher prices prevailing as the marketing progressed, the report explained.

The total values of field crops in 1934 are estimated as follows, with revised figures for 1933 within brackets: Wheat $185,972,000 ($136,958,000); oats $105,380,000 ($79,818,000); barley $29,107,000 ($18,984,000); rye $2,881,000 ($1,893,000); beans $1,079,300 ($878,000); buckwheat $4,372,000 ($4,233,000); mixed grains $15,634,000 ($13,336,000); flaxseed $1,968,000 ($1,766,000); corn for husking $4,410,000 ($2,982,000); potatoes $23,822,000 ($23,062,000); turnips, etc. $12,685,000 ($11,626,000); hay and clover $13,195,000 ($10,306,000); alfalfa $13,322,000 ($15,279,000); fodder corn $15,728,000 ($10,239,000); grain hay $12,528,000 ($19,407,000); sugar beets $2,328,000 ($2,700,000).

By provinces the total values are, in order as follows, with the revised values for 1933 within brackets: Ontario $143,734,000 ($135,815,000); Alberta $108,499,000 ($86,499,000); Quebec $98,309,000 ($87,512,000); Saskatchewan $84,440,500 ($82,708,000); Manitoba $50,293,000 ($35,653,000); New Brunswick $14,961,000 ($12,044,000); Nova Scotia $12,995,000 ($12,151,000); British Columbia $12,749,000 ($12,377,000); Prince Edward Island $9,054,000 ($8,841,000).

WILENTZ WILL CROSS-EXAMINE PRISONER

Attorney-General Determined to Show German Carpenter Kidnapped A and Slew Lindbergh Infant.

(By John Ferris, Associated Press Staff Writer)
FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 27.—For Bruno Richard Hauptmann the most critical day of the Lindbergh baby murder trial comes tomorrow.

He will face a man who is determined to show the German carpenter kidnaped and slew the infant son of Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, collected $50,000 ransom and followed a dizzy path through the stock market.

Attorney General David T. Wilentz is confident he will "break" Hauptmann. He is sure that under his insistent questions Hauptmann will weaken. Hauptmann is just as confident the attorney general will do no such a thing.

The prisoner sat in his cell today studying documents, refreshing his mind, preparing himself for the rigors of cross-examination. He is no longer stolid. He is aware of the perils ahead and is ready for them.

What the state will do in cross-examination has not been announced. But Hauptmann will see more of the little account book he kept in his home before his arrest last Sept. 19.

It is likely that Wilentz will keep the defendant on the stand all day, giving him no respite from the torrent of questions, watching him and producing at the most crucial moment something to tear away the foundations of Hauptmann's kidnapping story that he had no hand in the crime.

William E. Frank, the federal attorney who followed on paper Hauptmann's stock speculations, has supplied Wilentz with the ammunition for that part of the prosecution's attack on the carpenter's story. Former Judge George K. Loring, who is the state's assistant attorney general, and Assistant Attorney General Robert Peacock have supplied other material for the prosecution chief.

Chief defense counsel Edward J. Reilly said he would produce in court a surprise witness to support Hauptmann's alibi that he was in the Bronx on the night of March 1, 1932 when the Lindbergh baby was kidnaped.

That night Hauptmann has testified he was called for his wife at the bakery where she was employed, and with time on his hands took the owner's police dog for a walk. On the street, he met a man who thought the dog was one which he had lost, and accused Hauptmann of taking it.

Hauptmann, the story goes, told the man who he was and satisfied the stranger the dog was not the missing one. Later when the stranger returned to his home he turned on the radio and heard the announcement of the Lindbergh kidnapping. That fixed the date in his mind, Reilly said.

Mrs. Hauptmann will testify in her husband's defense this week, and she will be put through cross-examination as rigorous as her husband's. The state has no intention of sparing her, and will question her as to her reasons for quitting work about the time the ransom was paid.

The prosecution will question her also about her 1932 trip to Europe.

CHINA FEARS A BIG DRIVE

Forces Massing On Eastern Boundary—Reinforcements Arriving Steadily.

(C. F. by Guardian's Special Wire)
KALGAN, Chahar, Jan. 27.—The massing of Japanese and Manchoukuoan forces on the eastern section of Chahar Province, bordering Manchoukuo, today heightened Chinese apprehensions that a major Japanese drive across Chahar and to the Soviet-Mongolian frontier is approaching.

The Japanese forces, which in fighting last week wrested control of eastern Chahar from the Chinese, now number about 3,000 infantry with artillery, tank, and army planes.

Japanese planes are continuing scouting expeditions over Kuyun, Tuhsou and even Tulumia, which is only 20 miles east of Kalgan, the main city on the modernized commercial route between China and the Soviet. Reinforcements from the main Japanese army in Manchoukuo, the Kwangtung army under General Jiro Mirami, are reported arriving steadily.

Although the Chahar fighting stopped after three days with hundreds of casualties and a truce was negotiated, the Japanese forces are now firmly entrenched on the eastern boundary of the province and Chinese here and in Peking, south of the Manchoukuo-Chinese boundary, are very uneasy.

ANNOUNCEMENTS COMING EVENTS, MEETINGS, ETC

- Skating, Cornwall Rink to-night, 8 to 10. L-3864
- Canoe Cove Rink Monday Jan. 28th, Duncans, Maple Leafs vs Bulldogs. Admission 10 cents. L-3859
- Hockey game on Monday, Jan. 28th at Canoe Cove. Bulldogs and Duncans. L-3861
- Winslow, Huskies vs. Maple Leafs at Milton Rink tonight. L-3864-1-28-11
- Hockey at Wheatley River Rink tonight. Rustico Rangers versus Wheatley River Stars. L-3862
- Reserve Thursday, Jan. 31st for Baptist Church annual turkey supper. L-3865
- Hockey at Marshfield tonight. League game, Dunstaffnage vs. York. Skate after. L-3870
- Hockey at Hunter River tonight. New Glasgow Married Women vs. Hunter River Married Men. Lots of fun expected. L-3772-1-28-11
- Brooklyn Egg Circle annual meeting will be held Jan. 31st, at 7:30 p. m. Bonus will be paid. L-3853-1-28-11
- Poultry, George Leitcher's Co., next Queen's Hotel, buying dressed Chickens and Poultry until March. L-3846-1-28
- Hope River play Monday, January 28th, a gripping drama of the North. If not fine Monday Wednesday, 30th. L-3820-1-28-11
- Borden Line Club loading hogs, lambs, calves, Albany, Wednesday, January 30th, until noon. L-3856-1-28-11
- I will be buying live hogs at Emerald and Albany Thursday, January 31st. Get my prices before shipping elsewhere. G. C. Green. L-3863
- Hockey East Royals tonight, West Royals vs. Royals Royals, 8 o'clock sharp. League game, skate after. L-3863
- Bradbane Rink opening tonight. Excellent ice. Hockey, Summerfield Comets vs. Bradbane. Skating after match. L-3871
- Borden Rink tonight, Cape Traverse vs. Tryon, Tip Top League. Admission 20c and 10c. One hour's skate. L-3868
- League games at Highfield tonight, Junior Granites vs. West Kent Eagles, Brackley Rovers vs. St. Avard's Beavers. Skate after. L-3866
- In order to live comfortably in later years, one must save money for this purpose. We have an ideal method. Why not investigate. Ask A. A. Moore, Manager, Sun Life. L-3619-1-28
- Hog prices going up. Loading this week at Murray River, Uigg, Killarney, Elmira, Souris, Wilshire, Bradbane, Albany, Kensington, Fortham, usual days and hours. Consult your secretary. Hunter Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning until 10:30. Do our own selling, weigh your own pigs, encourage and maintain best marketing. Get all that's in it by shipping cooperatively, and put your neighbor-wise livestock marketing Board. L-3867

Bennett Warnings Unheeded During King Administration

One of the outstanding features of the Government's economic reform programme is that which aims at protecting the investing public against the stock market exploitations, the merger-mongering, stock watering and other financial abuses which disfigured the Mackenzie King regime, and which resulted in the ruin of tens of thousands of Canadian families. It is certain that Mr. Bennett has been no sudden convert. As he pointed out on Monday night, he saw what was coming nearly seven years ago when, speaking in the House of Commons, he warned the Government of the day, Parliament and the people of the inevitable disaster that lay ahead and which, in fact, less than a year and a half later amounted to a universal catastrophe. On June 9, 1928, he said in the House of Commons:

"Do you realize, sir, that this great speculative era that we now have on the American Continent is one fraught with possibilities of the gravest disaster for this country? The brokers' loans alone in New York last week were over $5,000,000,000, an unheard of figure. In this country, this great era of speculation in this country and on this continent, is one fraught with possibilities of the gravest danger to Canada."

HEAD OF ANTI-LONG FORCES MISSING

Vigorous Search Made For E. J. Bourgeois, President of Square Deal Association.

(By Kenneth Gregory)
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
BAYTON ROUGE, La., Jan. 27.—E. J. Bourgeois, President of the Square Deal Association, opposing the dictatorship of U. S. Senator Huey Long, has disappeared, his adherents declared today as they pressed a vigorous search for him.

Groups of men hunted through the woods and brush near the airport where yesterday armed troops came face to face with the anti-Long forces, but the reason for centering the search there was not explained by Bourgeois' tight-lipped associates. They say their leader vanished a Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Bourgeois said, however, her husband had left on a tour seeking recruits for his organization. This was not confirmed elsewhere.

Residents of East Baton Rouge parish were anxiously fearful of violence and watched armed patrols move through the streets.

With martial law prevailing and additional national guard troops being hurried here from other sections. All state buildings and the executive mansion of Gov. Allen were under heavy guard.

There was no open sign of further outbreaks but rebellious citizens, many of whom are Square Dealers, apparently do not intend to terminate their manoeuvres.

They met questions as to their plans with stony silence.

Senator Long himself after a hectic four-hour court session yesterday, broadcast to the city by loud speakers was enroute to Washington surrounded by burly guards whose hip pockets bulged apparently with arms.

There were no tangible results from two meetings held in Feliciana Parish last night but reports were received that the men who attended were ready to back up the Square Dealers with whom they are associated.

The tense situation was climaxed late yesterday at the parish airport when a citizens' army surrendered to the militia and dispersed quietly after a barrage of tear gas was tossed. The outbreak held the threat of a pitched battle but was quelled with only one casualty. Many escaped, but several men were placed under technical arrest and later released.

SIX BUILDINGS BURNED IN KENTVILLE FIRE

Loss Estimated At $70,000—Forty Persons Homeless.

(C. F. by Guardian's Special Wire)
KENTVILLE, N. S., Jan. 27.—Spectacular rescues from flames which swept through six buildings in the heart of Kentville's business district were described tonight as counted losses totalling $70,000.

Breaking out in the rear of the Weaver Block early Saturday morning, the fire swept through the Chisholm block and four smaller buildings, owned by the Kentville hospital company, on Webster and Cornwallis Streets.

Three other structures were damaged by fire, and the terrific heat broke plate glass windows in three nearby stores. Thirteen families fled in night attire from the apartment block owned by Tom Weaver—second largest building in town—as flame and smoke drove them from their quarters.

Mrs. K. M. Moran, trapped on the third floor, was about to jump to the ice-coated street to find help when a ladder was run up and fireman Harry Redden carried her to safety.

Elias Hatt, living on the third floor, ran down the smoke-filled filled staircase with his wife and baby to the second floor, where flames blocked their escape. They crawled through a window to the roof of C. B. Lockhart's clothing store, already ablaze, and were rescued by firemen.

Clothed only in her nightgown, Miss Gladys Wood reached the street by crawling on hands and knees down three flights of stairs while others were being assisted to safety.

Last to be rescued from the Weaver Block was Mrs. James Peck, who had not heard the alarm because of deafness and was hurriedly suffocated when firemen broke down the door of her third-floor apartment.

CELEBRATES 76TH BIRTHDAY

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
DOORN, Netherlands, Jan. 27.—On this snowy midwinter's eve German Emperor Wilhelm II of Germany sat down with his children, his children's children and a few selected guests in Doorn Manor or at a small, one-course dinner in celebration of his 76th birthday.

The Kaiser, in excellent health and looking younger and fresher than many of his company, drank his usual glass of wine after dinner and spent the evening in lively conversation.

A majority of the guests are leaving tomorrow. Many notables of Doorn signed the Hohenzollern birthday register.

Gold Bars Fall Out Of Plane

(By Guardian's Special Wire)
LONDON, Jan. 27.—Aeroplane, police and hundreds of excited amateur searchers today were scouring Kent, Essex and East Sussex for $30,000 worth of gold bars that fell out of a mail plane yesterday.

The hunt began after authorities said the 16 gold bars, dropped when the trans-channel plane lurched, and the door of the baggage compartment fell open, did not fall into the sea, as first supposed, but into some thicket in the south downs.

Buy Salada Orange Pekoe Blend and enjoy a new delight in tea.

• Buy Salada Orange Pekoe Blend and enjoy a new delight in tea.

'SALADA' TEA

• Buy Salada Orange Pekoe Blend and enjoy a new delight in tea.

LLOYD GEORGE SEES WAR IN EAST

Wants Britain and United States to Take Action In Delicate Situation.

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
BIRMINGHAM, Eng., Jan. 27.—David Lloyd George, wartime premier, expressed apprehension over the situation in the Far East during a speech here last night, and called upon the United States and Britain to take action to preserve the peace.

Declaring he was much more fearful of conditions in the East than in Europe, he said the situation was "none the better for the fact that we have not tackled it in time. I think events in that quarter are gradually approaching the point where the United States and Great Britain can no longer put off and procrastinate."

Dillinger Aid Believed Dead

ST. PAUL, Jan. 27.—Evidence to confirm rumors of John Dillinger's death was claimed here today, an authoritative source disclosed.

John Dillinger's Canadian-born chief lieutenant succumbed to bullet wounds last April 26 at Chicago, the informant announced. The information was furnished by a former member of the gang and corroborated by a letter penned by Dillinger himself, he added.

Now That It's Getting Cold Well Be Troubled With Spats Before Our Eyes

Winds: fair and decidedly cold. Tuesday—Mostly fair and milder.

CELEBRATES 76TH BIRTHDAY

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
DOORN, Netherlands, Jan. 27.—On this snowy midwinter's eve German Emperor Wilhelm II of Germany sat down with his children, his children's children and a few selected guests in Doorn Manor or at a small, one-course dinner in celebration of his 76th birthday.

The Kaiser, in excellent health and looking younger and fresher than many of his company, drank his usual glass of wine after dinner and spent the evening in lively conversation.

A majority of the guests are leaving tomorrow. Many notables of Doorn signed the Hohenzollern birthday register.

Gold Bars Fall Out Of Plane

(By Guardian's Special Wire)
LONDON, Jan. 27.—Aeroplane, police and hundreds of excited amateur searchers today were scouring Kent, Essex and East Sussex for $30,000 worth of gold bars that fell out of a mail plane yesterday.

The hunt began after authorities said the 16 gold bars, dropped when the trans-channel plane lurched, and the door of the baggage compartment fell open, did not fall into the sea, as first supposed, but into some thicket in the south downs.