IN OPERATIC CIRCLES.

Dear Guardian—Possibly there has never been any greater proof of the actor's willingness to offer his "Mite" than will occur tomorrow night Dec. 1st at George M. Cohan's Broadway Theatre...

When one thinks of such artists as Weber and Fields, George M. Cohan, William Collier, Irene Franklin and practically all of the successful Theatians of the metropolis...

The American has already raised thirty thousand dollars and with the addition of the "Actor's Mite", unquestionably many a poor little waif will realize on Christmas Day the meaning of "Peace on earth, good will to man."

The Realto is ringing from end to end with the news that Lulu Glaser, the famous comic opera star was technically under arrest for almost an hour and had to wait in the Sheriff's office in Pittsburgh, Penn. until the manager of the theatre where she was appearing, furnished two thousand dollar bail.

The little star is being sued by Mrs Bertha Richards for the alienation of her husband's affections. Miss Glaser, and Thomas Richards are now appearing in a vaudeville sketch entitled "That's the way to Kiss."

J. C. Lawrence, formerly a member of The Colonial, well known in Charlottetown, is now a member of The Lorch Stock Company, located at Passaic, New Jersey, and the writer is pleased to chronicle that he made a great success in the role of "Joe Brooks" in the well known play "Paid in Full."

To quote the N. Y. Telegram, "Miss Ethel Barrymore, is anxious to pose before the motion camera."

She says modestly, "My children will want to know how I looked. For six generations my people on the Drew side have been actors and actresses. If my grandmother Mrs. John Drew and the artists of her time could have left moving pictures of their work there would not be needed any dramatic schools today."

The writer just learned that Carl Blythe, a former Charlottetown favorite, is appearing in Washington, D. C., in Stock.

A clever little story is going the rounds of Broadway about Henrietta Crossman. It is as follows, like many an other who climbed the weary ladder to Star-land, Miss Crossman mounted the first rung with the opposition of her parents sounding in her ears.

The idea of going on the stage her father advised her; "you haven't the brains," but feeling that Providence had led her to make her choice, she went on, doing the first small part that was given her to the best of her ability, and gradually small things developed into big ones, until at last she reached the top. And I suppose when you finally won your success your father was the first to be proud of you?"

Miss Mollie Revel, who will be pleased to remember, has just closed with "The Searchlight" and has become a "Movie" or in other words is posing for The Rex Motion Picture Co.

"The Sun Dodgers" opened at The Broadway tonight and indications point to a long run. Who can wonder at it with our old friend George Monroe of "My Aunt Bridget" fame

George Roche appeared last week in Cincinnati, Ohio, with Melbaurne Macdowell and Isabel Evesson, playing "The Sheriff and the Widow." Judging from reports our friend Georgie made good.

Mabel Reid, a one time favorite of The Colonial Stock Co., has just returned to New York after a long season with Vaughn Glaser, having closed with that attraction in Ottawa.

EDITH WARREN, New York.

Nov. 30, 1912. Dear Guardian—The chief topic of conversation on the Rialto to-day was the verdict of $22,500 given Miss Edith St. Clair, in her suit against Klav and Erlanger for alleged breach of contract. Miss St. Clair is a musical comedy artist who had long been a member of one of the big firm's organizations and she testified that they had given her a life contract at seventy-five dollars per week. She claimed they had not lived up to the terms of aforesaid contract, that she had only received $2,500, from them and they had stopped payment, so the lady went to law and won her case.

Grace Procter, one of last year's members of the Colonial Stock Co., opens Monday in the well known vaudeville playlet entitled, "The Subway. Miss Procter playing the role created by Violet Black, who is now meeting with success in London.

No doubt old-timers remember Lansing Rowan, a handsome, statuesque blonde, and will be grieved to learn of her sad death last week in Brooklyn hospital where she passed a way, alone and in destitute circumstances. Her remains were saved from a pauper's burial in the Potter's

TROUBLED WITH KIDNEYS COULD NOT SWEEP FLOOR.

It is hard for a woman to look after her household duties when she is suffering from a weak and aching back, for no woman can be strong and well when the kidneys are out of order.

The weak, lame and aching back comes from sick kidneys and should be attended to at once so as to avoid years of suffering from the kidney trouble which is sure to follow if the back is neglected.

On the first sign of a pain in the back Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They go right to the seat of the trouble.

Mrs. Joseph Throop, Upper Point De Butte, N.B., writes: "I cannot speak too well of Doan's Kidney Pills. For two years I was so tired, life was a burden and I got up more tired than when I went to bed, and my back was so lame I could hardly straighten up. I took different kinds of medicine, but none of them did me any good until a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I did so and to-day I don't know what it is to be tired and my lame back is all gone. I can recommend them to any person suffering with lame back and that terrible tired feeling."

Price, 50 cents a box, 3 for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."
